Ceremony Is Performed In Hendrickson Garden

Miss Donna Zelda Vellex and William Edward Shepherd Jr., were married August 4 in an 8 o'clock evening ceremony in the gardens of the Ray Hendrickson home at 37 Vancouver avenue in Medford.

The Rev. Dell E. Millard performed the double-ring wedding rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Veilox of 832 West Thirteenth street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Shepherd, L. B. Star Route, Box 225, Eagle Point.

The bride chose a white brocaded silk and rayon sheath dress which she wore with a fingertip length lace veil held by a lace headband. Her accessories were white and her corsage was a lavender orchid.

Mrs. James L. Miller, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom, of Dallas, Ore., was matron of honor. She wore a white brocaded cotton sheath dress with white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

Mr. Shepherd was best man for his brother.

The double ring ceremony was performed before a floral cross. Baskets of gladiolus and hydrangeas were placed on either side.

Cody Fincher carried the rings and Lila Fern Chastain was flower girl. The flower girl's frock was of peach trimmed bandeau.

The reception also was held in the gardens. Mrs. David Kelsoe cut and served the wedding cake after the bride and bridegroom had cut the first piece. Punch was served by Robert and James Shepherd, brothers of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Miller took charge of the bride's book.

The bride attended Phoenix and Medford schools and for the past two years has been employed in Medford as a typist.

The bridegroom attended Hitt, Calif., and Talent Elementary schools, Phoenix High school, and was graduated from Eagle Point High school in 1957. He has served four years with the Air Force and is employed at Fir Ply Inc., White City.
