

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Howard Tinseth (Giles photo)

Marriage Ceremony Held in Prineville

News of interest in the valley is the marriage of Miss Marjorie Elaine Wood and Vance Howard Tinseth which took place July 27 in the Prineville, Ore., First Baptist church. The Rev. Stanton Irving performed the 8 o'clock evening double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Elton Wood, Prineville, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Tinseth, 1300 Queen Anne avenue, Medford. The bridegroom has been living in San Jose, Calif., and the young couple will make their home in that city at 627 South Ninth street, Apartment 8.

Dr. Wood gave his daughter in marriage.

Gown of Organza

The bride wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta trimmed with Alencon lace which had been made by the bridegroom's mother. Her veil of nylon net and matching lace was held by a headpiece of white roses and pearls. She carried a bouquet of peach colored gladioli and wore a strand of pearls which were a gift from the bridegroom. With her bouquet she carried a handkerchief which had belonged to the bridegroom's great-grandmother.

Miss Janice Wood was maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were the Misses Barbara Whitmer and Karel Sinclair.

They wore gowns of white silk organza over peach colored taffeta and carried bouquets of matching gladioli with white chrysanthemums.

Donald Tinseth, Medford, was best man for his brother, and seating the guests were Harold Moore, Madras, Ore.; Terry Sherwood, Milwaukie, Ore.; and Donald Wood, a brother of the bride.

Lighting the candles were Lora Wood, a sister of the bride, and Donald Wood. Carrying the rings were Rosalee Wood, another sister of the bride, and Harvey Gerlitz, Roseburg, a cousin of the bridegroom.

Two Are Soloists

Mrs. Donald Clauson, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied John Sundquist, the bridegroom's cousin from Seapooone, Ore., and Mrs. Keith Browning who furnished solos.

The bride's mother wore a blue embroidered silk organza sheath dress with white accessories, and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a sheath frock of turquoise colored silk with white accessories. Both wore corsages of peach colored gladioli.

The reception was given by the bride's parents in their home. Mrs. Rolla Wood, Seattle, Wash., aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Donald Ward and Mrs. John Mauldin poured the punch. Other hostesses were Mrs. Welden Hughbanks, Mrs. Ray Denton, Mrs. Jerry Brees, Mrs. George Whitmore and Mrs. Ted DeFord, Medford.

The couple left for their wedding trip to Washington and Canada, the bride wearing for traveling a lemon yellow suit with beige accessories.

Attending the wedding from Medford were Miss Joyce Roelfs, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gandt, Mrs. Fred Landers, Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. DeFord. From Central Point was

Mrs. Wayne Martin.

Among out-of-town guests were Mrs. Anna Swanson, grandmother of the bridegroom, from Portland, and Mrs. Maud Wood, Dayville, a grandmother of the bride.

Other guests were from several West Coast cities.

Those who entertained for the bride-elect were Mrs. Albert Gandt who served a luncheon in her home, 1248 Eureka circle, Medford; Mrs. Clarence Wilson, Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. Don Minear, who gave a shower in the home of Mrs. Wilson at Talent; Mrs. Frank Thorne, Mrs. George Wiltmar and Mrs. Weldon Hughbanks who entertained in Mrs. Hughbanks' home, in Prineville.

The bride attended Cook County High school, the University of Oregon and will be a senior student at San Jose State college.

The bridegroom is a Medford High school graduate, and attended Whitworth college. He was graduated in 1960 from the University of Oregon. He is employed in the loan department of the First National bank in San Jose.

New Group Has Election

Officers have been elected by the newly formed Security Benefit club. Mrs. Enos Naffziger was chosen president; Mrs. Eva Wright, vice-president; Mrs. Edward McCracken, secretary; Mrs. Susie Johnsonburg, treasurer; and Conrad Luback, finance chairman.

Appointed to office were James Bishop, membership chairman; J. P. Graham, program chairman; Mrs. James Bishop, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Mae Olin, kitchen supervisor.

Finis Snodgrass, Portland, was guest of the day. He gave a talk on "How to Run a Good Club." Other guests were Mrs. Ella Russell, Mrs. Mae Remillard, Mrs. Ethel West, and Mrs. Frank Taylor.

A committee to draw up new laws for the club was appointed. Serving on the committee will be Mrs. Ina Redmon, Mrs. Joe Fritsch, and Mr. Graham.

The club meets at the Knights of Pythias hall each Wednesday from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Applegate Women Are Honor Guests

Applegate Valley Mrs. Arthur Goss and Mrs. Lee Hall were hostesses for a lavette shower honoring Mrs. James Fowen at her home recently. Fifteen women attended the party.

Mrs. Donald Wyant, Star Ranger station, also was honor guest at a lavette shower at the home of Mrs. Robert Webb recently. Nine women attended.

Wonder Couple Takes New Route

Wonder — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson have just returned home after a trip over the new Winnemucca to the Sea route and report the new highway is completed from Adel, Ore., to the Nevada border. The Wilsons were much impressed with the diversified scenery.

Medford Woman Honored Guest On 80th Birthday

An open house was held August 8 honoring Mrs. Celia Clogston, 72 Reager street, in observance of her 80th birthday. The event was given by Mrs. Jeffery Clogston, a daughter-in-law, and Mrs. Boyd Dunford, a granddaughter, and was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery Clogston, also on Reager street. Mrs. Martin Clogston also assisted with the event. About 50 persons attended.

Mrs. Clogston was born in Severy, Kansas and has lived for 32 years in the Medford area.

Her children, all present for the occasion, are Jeffery Clogston, Martin F. Clogston, and Frank H. Clogston, all of Medford, and Mrs. Raymond L. Clark, Yakima, Wash. Mrs. Clark has spent a week visiting her mother.

The honored guest also has six grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Decorations for the birthday observance were arrangements of pink and white gladioli, Mrs. Clogston's birth flower.

Dierdorffs To Observe Anniversary

Gold Hill — The Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Dierdorff, former Gold Hill residents who now reside at 2033 42nd avenue in Oakland 1, Calif., will observe their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday, August 19. An open house at the home of their daughter, who resides next door, will honor the couple. Friends are invited to call between the hours of 2 and 4:30 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Dierdorff, a former pastor of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church, in a letter to members of the local church recalled that 10 years ago the church at Gold Hill was being planted, cleaned and plans were underway for the social event of the year, the golden wedding anniversary of the pastor and his wife. Now plans are being made for the couple's 60th anniversary open house to which friends in the Gold Hill church and community are invited to attend.

The minister reports both he and his wife are in good physical health. He says Mrs. Dierdorff still spends much of her time happily quilting and he still teaches a class in Sunday school.

A spokesman of the Gold Hill church suggests that those who will be unable to attend the open house for the Dierdorffs send cards to the couple or write to them at their home address since they would enjoy hearing from friends in their former church and community.

Millers Make Vacation Trip

Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller recently spent a two weeks vacation sightseeing and visiting relatives. Mr. Miller's brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miller, and Harry Miller, while there they also were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harvey, a brother-in-law and sister-in-law of Mr. Miller.

Among highlights of their vacation was a boat trip from Port Angeles to Victoria, B.C., a stop was made at Nanaimo, Canada and tours were taken in Vancouver and Victoria, B.C.

They also spent some time at Yellowstone National park and at Grand Coulee dam. En route home the Millers were guests of her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cannon and Linda at Klamath Falls.

Numerous Relatives Meet at Gold Hill; Houseguest Departs

Gold Hill — Many relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Edith Thompson last Sunday, August 5. Coming from various places in California were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cunningham, Misses Gennie Lane, Mrs. Rosa Sammar all of Exeter, Mrs. Sara Larson, of Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Larson from Norwalk.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Swindler and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swindler with their families from Medford, Mrs. Jewel Routh, Robert Routh, and Mrs. Hannah Routh all of Gold Hill.

Mrs. Rosa Sammar had been a guest of Mrs. Thompson and her mother, Mrs. Hannah Routh the past two weeks. She returned to her home in Exeter with Mrs. Sara Larson, a sister of Mrs. Thompson.

The Cunninghams left for Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Celia Clogston, who celebrated her 80th birthday August 8, was honored at an open house at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery Clogston, Reager street. Mrs. Clogston, whose hobbies are sewing, gardening and painting, poses here beside a Hoover rose bush in the garden of the Jeffery Clogstons. Mrs. Clogston has lived in the Medford area for 32 years.

Golden Wedding Anniversary Observed In Central Point

Central Point — Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold, 4611 Gebhard road, Central Point, gathered Sunday, August 5, to honor their golden wedding.

The Arnolds were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Arnold, and then went to North's Chuck wagon for dinner. Roy Arnold, Klamath Falls, delivered a short devotional. Both Roy and Reuben Arnold are sons of the honored couple.

An open house was held in the afternoon at the Arnold home on Gebhard road. Over 100 guests attended, including their children, Lester Arnold, Central Point; Mrs.

Picnic for Tuesday

Pythian club will meet Tuesday, August 14, at 6:30 p.m. at Maple park near Cubby's Drive-In for a pot-luck picnic. Families of the club members are invited and the club will furnish coffee. Members will be advised of any change in meeting place because of inclement weather.

HELP US!

We need clothing, shoes, dishes, furniture, and bedding.

We Pick Up. HELP OTHERS!

The Salvation Army
30 N. Holly
773-7335

Family Reunion Observes Anniversary of Allison's

Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Allison, 1027 West Tenth street, Medford, were honored Sunday, August 5 on the occasion of their forty-first wedding anniversary, when a family reunion was held. Relatives from as far away as Idaho and California attended.

The event also observed the birthday anniversary of Mr. Allison, which was August 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison were married in Winner, in the south-central part of South Dakota, and they lived near there until 22 years ago when they moved to Medford.

Mr. Allison, now retired, was engaged in farming in South Dakota, and for a number of years was employed by the fire department at White City. Later he was employed by Jackson county. He served in World War I.

The event Sunday was planned by the couple's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson, Medford.

Another daughter, Mrs. F. E. McPherson, Santa Paula, Calif., could not be here for the occasion.

Relatives Attend

Their son, Earl F. Taylor, Mrs. Taylor and their daughters, Mavis and Marda, came from Project City, Calif., to attend; while their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Taylor, and daughter, Mary Ann, were from Central Point, and their other son, F. H. Taylor, Mrs. Taylor and children, Nancy, Kathy and Gene, were among guests from Medford.

Others at the event were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Allison and children, Patty, Carol and Mike, Anderson, Calif.;

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allison and children, Cathy, Karen, Bobby and Jimmy, Central Valley, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gallino and children, Garry and Sheryl, Cloverdale, Ore.; Mickey Taylor and Peter Mallot, both Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. David Martin and son, Roy, of DeSmit, Ida.; and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Martin, Pottlatch, Ida.; Miss Susan Fisher, Salem, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. John Cantrall and son, Gregory, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lingren and son, Kenneth; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Martin and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Johnson and son, Royal.

A brother of Mr. Allison, F. E. Allison, Grand Island, Neb., also could not be here for the occasion.

Family Arrives From Rhodesia

Ashland — Visiting this summer at the home of Mrs. Anna Renzema, 532 Scenic drive, are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reddy and three children, who arrived in Ashland July 8 from Africa, where the Reddys have been teaching in the Mt. Silinda mission school in Southern Rhodesia. Mrs. Reddy is Mrs. Renzema's daughter.

They have visited friends and relatives in Seattle and Corvallis and expect to spend a short time with Mr. Reddy's mother in Tulare, Calif. Future assignment is dependent upon conditions in Africa.

An overloaded washer won't turn out a clean wash. The suds and rinse water must circulate freely to remove dirt.

MRS. LENA CAMPBELL 664-2780

Introducing Mrs. Lena Campbell

only car saleswoman in So. Oregon. Lena would like the opportunity to talk to the ladies about the beautiful styling of the '62 Pontiac and Tempest. Get the women's view on how you can drive a new car now, without hurting your family budget.

DEAN & TAYLOR PONTIAC
2177 SO. PAC. HWY. "99"-773-7421

Club Events Are Listed

Central Point — Coming events of the Central Point Garden club include a dried flowers show, to be held October 30 and 31 at the 4-H fair grounds, and the Siskiyou district meeting to be held October 24 at the Central Point Grange.

Mrs. Eugene Orr, Old Military road, was hostess for a recent meeting of the club.

Mrs. L. C. Gorden, assistant director of the Siskiyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, spoke of events at the recent district board meeting.

Other speakers were Mary Louise Truly, a member of the 4-H home extension improvement club, who told of her trip to summer camp, and James Anhorn, who gave a demonstration on flower arranging. He is a member of the Junior Garden club and the Daffy Dills 4-H club. Other guests were Mrs.

James McCuen, and Myrna Young.

WES PEARSON
JEWELER
9 So. Central 772-9392

Keepsake
DIAMOND RINGS

DIRECT IMPORT SALE!

FULL CARAT OF DIAMONDS

EASY TERMS

$275.00
(10K weight)

Encore
By the makers of DIAMOND RINGS

Open Fridays Until 9 p.m.

COBBLETS

A GAME OF CHARM...

do the mile in "Zing", a rib soled oxford with a toe that's squared for action, as seen in SEVENTEEN

- Maverick Brown with Black
- All over Black
- Sweet Kid Leather with Ribbed Crepe Soles.

$9.95

Johnston and Stewart
The Corner Shoe Store
Central at Main Downtown Medford

Vacation Bound? We Hope You Have a Wonderful Time

... but before you leave ask for the Mail Tribune

VACATION PAK SERVICE

We will hold the Mail Tribune while you are on your vacation. Each issue will be held in our office while you are away and will be delivered to you personally by your carrier upon your return.

It's FREE!

No papers to pile up on your porch. You will be able to catch-up on all local news and special features when you return.

When you leave on your vacation just complete this handy order, and either give it to your carrier... mail it... or just bring it in to the office. WE WILL DO THE REST...

A Free Service of

THE MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

Complete This Vacation-Pak Order Today or Phone the Circulation Department.

772-6141

VACATION PAK ORDER

Please save my Mail Tribune while I am on vacation, beginning _____ and deliver all of them to me when I return on _____ certain, please call Mail Tribune when you return!

Name _____

Address _____

City _____