

Demo Committee Adopts By-Laws

New by-laws were adopted by the Democratic Central Committee during a meeting recently at the Labor temple. The by-laws were compiled by a committee appointed six months ago by George Lottin, then chairman of the central committee. Members were Mrs. Hugh F. Friel, Ralph James, Jean Mills, present central committee chairman; Henry Padgan and A. E. Jenny, by-laws committee chairman.

Principal item discussed was a provision for a quorum of 15. A motion to delete it was defeated.
