GP, BF Nab Playoff Tilts in Softball

Sam Jennings company will encounter Communications Workers of America at 8:45 o'clock this evening and Central Point Merchants will oppose Jay Allen Cars at 8:15 o'clock in Jackson County Softball association playoff at Cheney field here.

Tonight's losers will be eliminated from the double elimination playoffs while winners will move into Friday night play.

Grants Pass Elks defeated Central Point 3 to 0 in the major league last night and on Friday night at 8:15 p.m. will tackle the Central Point Jay Allen victor, Butte Falls nosed Jennings 5 to 4 in the minor circuit last evening and in the early Friday mix will take on the Jennings-CWA winner.

In a non-league fray last night John Wheeler Loggers, tuning for the state tourney, beat Jay Allen 7 to 1.

Two-Hitter
The Elks last night had two-hit, nine strikeout pitching by John Brown. Grants Pass reached the Merchant's Harry Tonn for five save blows. Tonn whiffed three.

Neal Ellis blasted home four runs for Butte Falls, with a double in the fourth inning and a homer in the sixth. Gordon Carrigan knocked in the other BF marker in the fifth with one of his two doubles for the evening.

Tom Rodgers batted in two tallies for Jennings with a double in the fifth inning and a sacrifice fly in the second. Les Walker singled home a runner in the fifth and Dick Atterbury's sacrifice fly permitted a score in the sixth. Riley Bean had two singles for SJ.

Carrigan fanned two Jennings batters and Willard Barnum of the Tirenmen whiffed two.

LINESCORE:
Sam Jennings .000 022 0-4 5 6
Butte Falls .000 012 0-4 3 0
Grants Pass .000 012 0-4 3 0

Belinsky Named In Damage Suit

Santa Monica, Calif.—UP—It was a trying day Tuesday for the Los Angeles Angels' brash young rookie pitcher Bo Belinsky.

The loquacious southpaw, who pitched the season's first no-hit game, began the day by being named in a $150,000 damage suit filed by an attractive nightclub cashier who charged Belinsky pulled her from a late-hours party and injured her head.

Belinsky climaxed the day by being knocked out of the box by the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night in the second inning after starting the game.

In the suit, Gloria Perry Eves, 33, Hollywood, charged Belinsky with assault and battery and with disfiguring her.

KEN HUBBS
Second Base Record

Ken Hubbs Sets Mark At Second

Chicago, UPI—Like Stan Musial, who is about twice his age, Ken Hubbs can set a new record every game he plays in.

All Hubbs has to do is keep from booting the ball.

Hubbs, a 20-year-old rookie with the Chicago Cubs, installed two new standards for National league second basemen Wednesday when (1) he completed 58 consecutive games without an error, and (2) 321 chances flawlessly.

Red Schoendienst held the old marks, setting both in 1950 when he completed a string of 57 games without error and also handled 320 chances at second base for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Hubbs went into Wednesday's game with the San Francisco Giants with 312 chances and he added nine in the Cubs 7-5 victory.

He tied Schoendienst's record of successive chances without a boot when he threw out Tom Haller on a routine play and eclipsed it in the ninth when he took a toss from shortstop Andre Rogers for a force play on Carl Boles.

Anxious Moment
But there was an anxious moment in the fifth inning. Hubbs had to run three steps to his right to backhand Tom Haller's grounder. He knocked it down, picked it up and dropped it. He did not make a throw.

The official scorer, Jerry Holtzman of the Chicago Sun-Times, ruled it a hit, calling it a "tough chance."

Cheers and boos were about equal in decibels from the crowd of 14,000 when the scoreboard flashed the decision. An informal press poll called a "generous but intelligent ruling" by the scorer.

In the clubhouse later, Hubbs said he never doubted it would be called a hit because he had been playing Haller, a left-handed swinger, to pull toward right field.

"Even if I had gotten the throw off, I don't see how I could have made the play," he said. "Haller has too much speed."

August of 1962 Carbon Copied

Pittsburgh—UPI—Stan Williams, the black sheep of the glamorized Dodgers' pitching staff, was called on tonight to rescue league leading Los Angeles from a five-game losing streak that seemed a carbon copy of last August's disaster.

The fumbling, obviously jittery Dodgers took it on the chin again Wednesday night, bowing to the Pirates, 6-3, as Don Drysdale lost his second straight game. It was their second defeat and the fifth in a row—half the number of last season's August horror which saw them beaten out of first place.

Williams, so obviously off his stuff that Manager Walter Alston once this season relegated him to the bullpen, has snapped out of the doldrums to build an 11-8 record. He lost to the Giants Sunday, but was impressive in defeat.

Vernon Law or Joe Gibbon was the probably Pittsburgh hurler.

Rogue River Muddy Below Gold Ray Dam

Portland—UPI—The weekly report on fishing conditions prepared by the State Game Commission: Southwest Winchester Bay salmon angling has been excellent; sea-run cutthroat being taken in lower Umpqua and lower Smith rivers; Coos Bay salmon angling may improve; Howard Prairie Reservoir slowed for trout; Rogue river has been muddy below Gold Ray from highway work; salmon angling at jaws of Rogue excellent.

Central: East Fork Hood river good for rainbow; rainbow 3 to 6 pounds being taken in Cultus river channel of Crane Prairie; Williamson river good to excellent on flies; Odell lake slow for kokanee but excellent for lake trout.

Dodger Loss Streak Extended To Five Games; Watch Reds

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer
And now add Don Drysdale's slump to what may be a Los Angeles Dodgers timetable to disaster.

Hailed only a week ago as likely to become the major's first 30-game winner since 1934, Drysdale has lost two straight games, making his chances to reach 30 very remote and endangering his position as the Dodgers' pennant-saving "stopper." He's plainly showing the double strain of trying for 30 and of "carrying" a Dodger staff weakened by the loss of Sandy Koufax.

The Pittsburgh Pirates dealt Drysdale his second straight defeat and extended the Dodgers' longest losing streak of the season to five games Wednesday night with a 6-3 victory. With a 21-6 record and only 41 games left on the Dodger schedule, Drysdale would have to win practically every game he starts for the remainder of the season to score 30 wins.

Dodgers Chances Sliver
What's more important is the effect on the Dodger pennant chances. Big Don hasn't pitched a really strong game since he notched No. 20 against the Chicago Cubs on Aug. 3. Since then he's won a 7-5 "struggler" over the New York Mets and been kayoed in two subsequent starts. All the signs indicate that Don is tiring at a time when the Dodgers need him most.

The Dodgers retained their 1½ game first-place lead because the San Francisco Giants bowed to the Cubs, 7-5, Wednesday but the fast-closing Cincinnati Reds moved to within 5½ games of them with a 4-3 triumph over the Milwaukee Braves. The Reds may be the team to watch—it was at this time a year ago that they made their winning move and they have a four-game week-end series with the Dodgers on tap.

The Houston Colts defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-1, and the Philadelphia Phillies swept the Mets, 9-3 and 8-7 in 13 innings, in Wednesday's other National league games.

Yanks Beat Twins
In the American league, the New York Yankees beat the Minnesota Twins, 9-3, and retained their six-game lead over the Los Angeles Angels, who shaded the Boston Red Sox, 5-4. The Detroit Tigers defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1, the Kansas City Athletics downed the Washington Senators, 8-4, and the Cleveland Indians rebounded from a 10-2 loss to top the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, in the nightcap of their two-night double-header.

Roberto Clemente drove in three runs with two singles and Bill Mazeroski knocked in a pair with a triple and a single to lead the Pirates' assault on Drysdale. Bob Friend yielded homers to Wally Moon and Willie Davis but went 8 2/3 innings to win his 13th game.

Dick Bartell's two-run seventh-inning single provided the winning runs for the Cubs, whose rookie second baseman Ken Hubbs set two records by completing his 58th consecutive game without an error and handling 321 chances without a miscue. Ernie Banks hit his 31st homer for the Cubs and Willie Mays hit No. 37 for the Giants.

Robinson Drove In Three
Frank Robinson drove in three runs with two homers and Bob Purkey reached a career high of 18 wins in one season as the Reds scored their 24th victory in 30 games. Robinson's homer gave him 10 in the month of August and raised his league-leading batting average to .342.

Relief pitcher Russ Kemmerer got pinch-hitter Stan Musial to hit into a game-ending double play that saved Houston's triumph. Don Demeter hit two homers to lead the Phillies' easy victory in their first game with the Mets and then Johnny Callison broke up the 13-inning nightcap with a run-scoring double.

Ralph Terry pitched a seven-inning shutout for the Yankees and Lenny Green and Earl Battey connected for the Twins.

Wagner Led Angels
Leon Wagner's two-run triple was the big blow of a four-run first inning that stood up for the Angels' victory with the help of Jack Spring's shutout relief pitching in the eighth and ninth.

Don Schwall suffered his 13th setback against six wins for the Red Sox.

Hank Aguirre pitched a four-hitter for the Tigers, who ran their season edge over the Orioles to 12-2. Jerry Adair ruined Aguirre's bid for a shutout with a third-inning homer.

Jerry Lumpe drove in four runs with a two-run homer, a single and a sacrifice fly as Kansas City's Dan Pflaster gained his third win. It was the 12th straight time the Athletics beat the Senators and raised their season advantage over them to 14-3.

The White Sox sent 13 men to the plate to score 10 runs in the ninth inning of their opener with Cleveland but Jim Perry pitched a six-hitter for the Indians in the nightcap to spoil Early Wynn's bid to score the 290th triumph of his career.
