House Democrats Arrange 10-Day Recess

Washington - (UPI) - House Democratic leaders today arranged to take a 10-day recess starting late today or Friday. With some protest from the Republican side of the aisle, they sought to telescope the remaining work schedule for this week and to add to the agenda a controversial bill to reopen national service life insurance to veterans of World War II and Korea.

Crater Stadium Fund Short $2,500

Central Point - The Crater High school stadium fund is now about $2,500 shy of its goal, Dr. Charles A. Meyer, District 6 superintendent, said today. About $500 came in during the past seven days, and money is still trickling in, he indicated. Some 80 three-year season tickets that sell for $50 each are still available. Sale of most of these "could put us over the top," Dr. Meyer said. The $2,500 is not raised, it may be necessary to seek free labor on construction of the stadium roof, he added.

State Said Ahead In Highway Work

Salem - (UPI) - Oregon highway officials said today the state's share of a $1.9 billion plan in previously frozen federal highway funds was smaller than most states because it was ahead of most others in getting interstate projects under way. The government Wednesday gave the states a surprise go ahead to sign contracts for extra streets, roads and highways to be built with federal subsidies. One reason was to stimulate the economy.

Norstad Given Highest Honor

Bonn - (UPI) - Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today awarded West Germany's highest honor to retiring NATO supreme commander, Gen. Lauris Norstad, in an apparent political demonstration aimed at Washington. Adenauer gave Norstad the Grand Cross of the Federal Order of Merit in a brief ceremony during an interruption in the NATO military chief's "working visit" here. Normally, such a decoration would have been given only during the recipient's formal farewell visit. Norstad is to make such a visit later this autumn.
