Miss Oregon—Miss Martha Louise Wyatt of Jacksonville, is often in the news these days as she prepared for her trip East to take part in the annual Miss America contest and pageant. Two Medford women particularly interested in the new Miss Oregon are Mrs. C. M. Lixberg (at left) and Mrs. Marjorie L. Green, of Burelson's store. Miss Wyatt worked at the store for a year or so before entering the Miss Rogue Valley contest, and the store provided her wardrobe for the Miss Oregon pageant at Seaside earlier this summer. Miss Oregon was a guest Tuesday night at a garden party given by Beta Upsilon of Beta Sigma Phi; she wore a black suit and black straw hat. Miss Wyatt spoke briefly of the Seaside event and said she had been thrilled and grateful to be named Miss Congeniality, as well as Miss Oregon, since that title is conferred by the contestants themselves. S. S. France Holds Health Certificate

New York—The S.S. France, a new luxury liner, is the most recent of five foreign ships to carry a certificate of sanitary construction from the Public Health Service (PHS). To insure that the ship would get the PHS approval, the owners paid for translation of a PHS handbook for use by the shipbuilding firm, for a PHS sanitary engineer to travel to France for consultations during construction and for a final check at the shipyard after the liner's shakedown cruise.

Poolside Fashion Show Attracts Large Group

One of the largest parties of summer was given last Tuesday evening by Beta Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Skinner on Hillside drive. Guests, those on the program, hostesses, their husbands and families at the event numbered about 250 persons.

After suffering through a week of cold and rainy weather, the worried chapter members were rewarded on Tuesday night. The air was balmy after the early-evening breeze died down and a full moon added its light to those of the garden and swimming pool and the soft flames on the candles which centered the small tables and floated on the lily pond.

Miss Oregon Attends Mrs. Larry Rose, chapter president, greeted the guests and introduced as a special guest Miss Martha Wyatt, of Jacksonville, Miss Oregon for 1962, and Mrs. Reedy Berg, a former Miss Oregon. She also introduced Mrs. Skinner, the hostess and chapter sponsor.

The lighted pool and terraced gardens provided an unusually effective setting for the fall fashion show staged with the cooperation of Mrs. Jean Hart. Between the sections of the show, a diving exhibition and water ballet numbers were given by members of the Dolphin club, University of Oregon. Richard Griffith, Spokane, Wash., gave a diving exhibition, and the water ballet numbers were by Richard Hildebrand with Miss Linda Hess, and then Miss Hess performed with Miss Suzy Thompson. The young women, with the Misses Sharon Ford and Shirley Boswell, modeled bathing suits of various periods to appropriate music. Last model out was tiny Shawn Stinson modeling a 1970 "suit" made of a few wisps of gauze and a ribbon or two.

The clothing was representative of all facets of a woman's wardrobe including wool afternoon and street dresses, silk and lame cocktail and evening frocks, suits and rain wear. Colors ranged from the russet red of a wool dress modeled by Mrs. Reter, a former sponsor of the chapter, through the orange ice frock with jacket of woven gold and silver modeled by Mrs. Lust to the classic black mink on black wool coat worn by Mrs. Schade. Mrs. Huggdahl modeled a black dress with deeply dipped back neckline and drapery which created much interest. Mrs. Wimberly also described the model's hair styles, which were designed by operators at Winnie's salon. The commentator began her presentation with "The Wonder of Being a Woman."

Refreshments were served from tables arranged in the garden. Mrs. Jack Rentz was show chairman, with Mrs. Hopper and Mrs. Fred Wilson as her assistants. Young daughters of members were usherettes. They were Carl Knoll, Sandy Wilson, Kathleen Rentz, Susan Plumley, Rebecca Morris, Jeannie Wilson, Susan Morris, Kathleen Moody and Linda Rentz. Members' husbands took charge of the traffic and the parking arrangements. Proceeds from the party will go for a scholarship for a Southern Oregon college student.—O.S.
