

Kubick-Zundel Ceremony

Miss Sharon Raye Zundel became the bride of Robert Walter Kubick in 2 o'clock afternoon rites August 11 in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John H. read the double ring wedding ceremony in the presence of about 150 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Zundel, Route 3, Box 122A, North Foothills road, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Walter Kubick, Grants Pass.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a long-sleeved, princess style Chantilly lace gown over a hooped skirt of nylon tulle and rows of lace. The gown's neckline was outlined with pearls and sequins, and her shoulder-length veil was held by a Queen Anne Tudor crown trimmed with pearls, rhinestones and sequins. The bridal bouquet was a nosegay of stephanotis, gardenias and red rosebuds which she carried with a missal, a gift from the bridegroom's parents. For something old she wore her mother's engagement ring.

Sister is Attendant

Miss Sylvia Diane Zundel, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Marsha Kubick, a sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Their gowns of American Beauty rose colored satin were designed with full bell-shaped skirts and fitted bodices. Their hats, made of ribbons from the same material as their gowns, were worn with short veils, and they carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Victi Wood, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a rose-pink silk frock of nylon smocked with silver studs and carried pink and white gladioli.

Lloyd Bendickson, Portland, a school friend of the bridegroom, served as best man, and seating the guests was Raymond Parker, Grants Pass.

The altar was decorated with gladioli in white, pink, rose and peach colors. Satin ribbon bows marked the pew ends.

Miss Marilyn Guldin furnished the processional and recessional music.

Reception at Club

The reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the Girls Community club. About 125 guests attended.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Zundel wore an ice cream silk brocade sheath dress with white accessories, and the bridegroom's mother chose a Schiffl embroidered beige linen sheath dress with beige and brown accessories. Both had gardenia corsages.

The reception rooms were decorated with baskets of pastel gladioli. The wedding cake was centered with a stemmed glass which supported the bride and bridegroom's cake. The cake was cut and served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Bobby Wood. Mrs. Fred Lawrence served the coffee and Mrs. Henry Nelson, Eugene, aunt of the bridegroom, poured punch.

Miss Cheryl Vosika, a cousin of the bride, registered the guests and Miss Beverly Beach, a school friend of the bride, presided at the gift table. Mrs. Lloyd Bendickson, Portland, had supervised the decorations and refreshments.

Mrs. Ann DeBoe, Grants Pass, loaned the lace cloth used on the reception table, which had been used at her wedding. The two tall wedding candles which stood at either side of the wedding cake will be saved and burned again at the couple's wedding anniversaries.

Dinner Given

The wedding rehearsal party was a dinner given by the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sosika, at Kim's restaurant.

Earlier the bride's aunts, Mrs. A. D. Vosika, and Mrs. Woods entertained at a miscellaneous shower for the bride-elect.

The bride will teach this fall in the elementary schools at Concord, Ore., and the bridegroom will continue his studies as a student at the University of Oregon medical school, Portland.

The bride is a 1958 graduate of Medford High school and she received her bachelor of science degree from Southern Oregon college, last June. During the summer she attended the University of Oregon. She was active in school projects and clubs, was treasurer of the Torch Honor society and was a band major in Medford High school. She also was queen of the first Sports fair in Medford was a member of the Civil Air patrol and was chosen state queen in 1957 in Portland.

At Southern Oregon college she was a member of various organizations and was secretary of the Gamma Theta Upsilon. At SOC she was a Skitsa and a homecoming princess. The bride has modeled for Harry and David's Fruit of the Month club literature.

The bridegroom, who was graduated in 1957 from Grants Pass High school attended Southern Oregon college for three and one-half years and has been a student at the medical school for the past year. He will be a sophomore there this fall. He is a member of the Theta Delta Phi fraternity.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Licklider, Elkton, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nelson and daughter, Berta Kay, Eugene; Mrs. Robert Knapp, Blue River, Ore.; and Mrs. Bobby Griffin and daughter, Jeanne, Cottage Grove.

The couple is making a wedding trip to Canada and will attend the World's Fair in Seattle on their return. They are to arrive August 21 in Portland where they will live. For traveling the bride wore a fern green silk suit with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walter Kubick (Sharon Raye Zundel), married August 11 in Sacred Heart Catholic church here, will live in Portland while the bridegroom attends the University of Oregon medical school. (Knackstedt photo).

Pictured during the reception at Girls Community club, which followed their wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walter Kubick. (Knackstedt photo)

Linda Ray Neal, Peter Kreisman Engaged to Wed

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neal, 310 Bridge street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Ray, to Peter Jon Kreisman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreisman, 455 Liberty street, Ashland.

Both young people are 1961 graduates of Ashland High school. Miss Neal is employed by the Pinnacle Packing Corporation of Medford. She will return in September to Eugene where she is an economics major in the Honors college at the University of Oregon. Mr. Kreisman is employed by the National Forest service, Applegate district. He will return in September to Stanford university, California, where he is studying physics under a General Motors national science scholarship.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Linda Ray Neal

Pershalls Return From Oklahoma

Central Point — Mr. and Mrs. Elvin M. Pershall and daughter, Judy, have returned to their home in Central Point after an extended visit in Oklahoma and Kansas with relatives and friends.

While in Bartlesville, where the family formerly lived, Mr. and Mrs. Pershall attended a reunion of Mrs. Pershall's graduation class.

FIT—QUALITY—SERVICE
You'll Get 'Em ALL Here!

Johnston & Stewart
JUNIOR BOOT SHOP
211 East Main

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Allen Eastwood (Good photo)

Miss Rebecca Ferrell

Betrothal News Is Made Known

Central Point — Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ferrell, Old Stage road, Central Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Rebecca Susan Ferrell, to Jim Damian Estremado, son of Mr. and Mrs. Damian Estremado, Route 1, Box 489, Gold Hill.

Both are graduates of Crater High school. Miss Ferrell attended the University of Oregon last year and summer session at Southern Oregon college. Mr. Estremado is associated with his father in the management of Gold Crest ranch.

No date has been set for the wedding as Miss Ferrell plans to enroll at Southern Oregon college for the fall term. She will major in elementary education.

Sons Here

Mr. and Mrs. Dana W. Bowers Jr., North Hollywood, Calif., and Mrs. E. F. Bowers, Yuba City, Calif., were recent guests of the men's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bowers Sr., 48 Rose avenue.

Parents of the Bride!

"A silver service... to be cherished forever... is the traditional parental gift to the bride"

GORHAM STERLING
"Dinner-for-eight" Set Savings!

It is a long standing tradition for the parents of the bride to give a basic service in sterling silver as the wedding gift. The Gorham "Dinner-for-eight" Set-Savings Offer makes it easier to carry on this gracious tradition.

8 Four-piece place-settings..... you save $20
8 Five-piece place-setting..... you save $25
8 Six-piece place-settings..... you save $30

Have her choose the design of her choice from the complete range of styles and designs available in our collection of world-famous Gorham Sterling Flatware. Proportionate savings are available on "Dinner-for-twelve" Services.

All prices are for a 32 piece service for eight (8 four piece place settings) and include Federal Tax.

Lawrence's
Open Fri. Till 9
21 N. CENTRAL
Convenient Terms If Desired

Methodist Church Scene of Wedding

Miss Linda Faye Denzer chose First Methodist church here for her marriage to Gale Allen Eastwood. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denzer, 16 Western avenue, a sister and a cousin were all married in the same church.

The parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Eastwood, 1045 South Stage road.

The Rev. George Roseberry performed the double ring rites at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of August 11. Approximately 125 guests attended the wedding.

Baskets of white gladioli and fern decorated the church. Mrs. C. R. Adamson was at the organ, and Miss Marilyn Popow sang.

Mr. Denzer gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown of white organza over net and taffeta was fashioned with full skirt appliqued with lace and sequins. The bodice of the gown was styled with short sleeves and round neckline, also appliqued with lace and sequins. Her shoulder length veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls and sequins.

Wears Crystals

The bride also wore crystal beads which belonged to her mother and were worn by her sister, Mrs. Francis Punch was served by Mrs. Floyd Eastwood, an aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Fann, sister of the bride, was in charge of gifts. Mrs. Gay Calkins, a cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Eastwood chose a beige wool sheath dress with jacket and brown accessories for traveling to the Oregon coast and Washington. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school, and is employed by Farmer's Insurance group. Mr. Eastwood was also graduated from Medford High school, and in June received his bachelor's degree from Southern Oregon college. He will teach in Coos Bay during the 1962-63 school year.

Two miscellaneous showers were given for the bride before the wedding. Hostesses were Mrs. Hugh Erickson and Miss Linda Larimer.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Eastwood, Indio, Calif., aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waser and son Mark, Gig Harbor, Wash.; and Francis Fann and children, Grants Pass.

WEDDING...

- Announcements
- Imprinted Wedding Napkins
- Punch Bowl Rentals

at Swem's
217 E. Main St.—Medford

MONTGOMERY WARD

WARDS HAS A CRUSH ON YOU AND A SPECIAL PLACE, TOO!

young junior shop

I want muted colors
IN MY SCHOOL-TIME COTTONS

Wards makes going back-to-school the most fun with their new muted cottons. Just love those billowy skirts and wide belts—and they're sized for my Junior Petite figure... priced pettily, too!

Variation on a shirtdress. Brown, blue or green cotton. 3-11. 8.98

Full sleeves and lace trim in cotton. Cupioni. Brown, turquoise, black. 5-13. 5.98

Tailored look in Amel* tri-acetate/cotton. Brown, blue, green. 5-11. 5.98

Lawrence's
Open Fri. Till 9
21 N. CENTRAL
Convenient Terms If Desired

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED or your money back! NO MONEY DOWN when you buy on credit at Wards