

Father Reads Ceremony

Miss Joyce Luella Roelfs became the bride of Donald Kent Tinseth in a ceremony held Saturday, August 11, in the Medford Friends church.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Roelfs, Route 4, Box 410 R, Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Helmer T. Tinseth, 1300 Queen Anne avenue, are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. B. E. Andrews and the father of the bride performed the eight o'clock candlelight ceremony. About 275 guests attended the double-ring rites.

The church was decorated with baskets of pink and lavender gladioli. At the altar, an arch was entwined with ivy and gladioli; double candles were on each side. The pews ends were marked with sprays of pink, white and lavender gladioli, white bows and candles.

Miss Julie Gandt and Dr. R. J. Nordquist furnished solos. Douglas Cummings played the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie satin fashioned with fitted bodice and scoop neckline. The full skirt was designed with scattered appliques decorated with pearls and iridescent sequins, and a big bow and chapel train accented the back. Her shoulder-length illusion veil was held by a crown of pearls, sequins and lace. She carried white carnations and pink rosebuds on a white ribbon. Tucked inside the Bible was a lace handkerchief which had belonged to the bridegroom's great-grandmother. The bride also wore a string of white pearls, a present from the bridegroom.

Miss Norma Jenks, Medford, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Douglas Cummings, Rancho Dominguez, Calif., was matron of honor. The other bridesmaids were Misses Peggy Gilbert and Connie Paulsen, both Medford. Miss Marilyn Roelfs, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Their dresses were of varying shades of pink and lavender organza over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and unpressed pleated skirts. Cloth flowers and sashes decorated the back of the skirts and their hair was flowers on a bow matching their dresses. They carried cascade bouquets of gladioli which matched their gowns. Each wore satin shoes the same shade as her dress, and white gloves.

Two Candlelighters
Miss Beth Wilcox, Central Point, and Miss Linda Wilson, Medford, were candlelighters. Their frocks were of pink brocade and they wore white gloves and pink and white carnation wristlets.

Miss Debbie Jenks, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink organza dress with sheer white pinafore. Paul Roelfs, brother of the bride, was ringbearer.

Vance Tinseth, San Jose, Calif., was best man for his brother. Other attendants were Hal Jenks, cousin of the bride, Douglas Kliever, Philip Gresham, and Gene Gerlitz, Roseburg, cousin of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride chose a pink lace dress with matching hat and white accessories for the wedding and reception. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise silk frock with matching shoes and hat and white gloves. Their corsages were pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Mrs. Mary F. Smith, Medford, grandmother of the bride, wore a lavender brocade dress and Mrs. Anna Swanson, Warren, the bridegroom's grandmother, chose a lace frock of dusty rose. They wore corsages of white gardenias.

Reception Held
The floral decorations for the church were arranged by Mrs. Lester Wilcox Jr., Central Point, Mrs. John Clark, Medford, and Mrs. Pearl Tinseth. The reception hall was decorated by Mrs. Albert Gandt and Mrs. Lloyd Neilson.

Mrs. Hal Jenks, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Nora Jenks, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Eugene Gerlitz, Roseburg, aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake. Punch was served by Miss Mary de Place and Miss Betty Young. Miss Cathie Curry, Newberg, gave out bridegroom's cake, and Miss Christine Prentice distributed rice bags. Miss Judy Franklin and Miss Caroline Gandt also assisted during the reception.

The couple traveled to Monterey and Carmel, Calif., on their wedding trip. For traveling, the bride wore a pale blue sheath and jacket with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and white carnations from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and will be a sophomore at Southern Oregon college this fall. The bridegroom also graduated from Medford High school and attended Westmont college, Santa Barbara, Calif., Oregon State university and Southern Oregon college where he will be a senior this fall. He is employed at Trowbridge and Flynn Electric company.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Lewis Smith, Los Angeles, uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowe, Hemet, Calif., great-aunt and uncle of the bride; Dr. and Mrs. Gerlitz and family, Roseburg, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; Bayard Stone, Newberg, Miss Sandra Neal, Vancouver, Wash.; Miss Pat Hue, Kennewick, Wash.

The parents of the couple were hosts for a luncheon given at North's Chuck Wagon for the wedding party and relatives Saturday noon following the rehearsal. The newlyweds are making their home at 1907 Prune street, Medford.

Sally Rae Stringer

Betrothal Told Of Two Students

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Stringer, 155 Seventh street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sally Rae, to David George Everett, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Everett, 199 Granite street, Ashland.

Both are 1962 graduates of Ashland High school and Miss Stringer will enter Southern Oregon college in September. Mr. Everett, who is employed by the Pioneer village in Ashland, will attend the University of Oregon in September. No date has been set for the wedding.

Children's Art Shown

An exhibit of children's art from 35 countries is on display in the children's department of the Public Library of Medford and Jackson county.

Sponsored by the Jackson county chapter of the Oregon United Nations association, the showing consists of work of children from six to 13 years of age. It is believed that children unconsciously long for peace, and express this desire in the international media of art.

Further information may be obtained at a meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, August 22, in the children's department of the public library. Mrs. Benjamin J. Trowbridge Jr. will speak. In addition, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., 899-1270, may give more information.

Bridge Club Plays Friday Evening
Play was conducted by the Camp White Veterans Bridge club Friday, July 10. Winning first place were Paul Hutton and Mrs. Fred Rehling, with 47 points. Mrs. J. J. Finegan and Mrs. E. T. Burich, and John Pettibone and Mrs. Hugh Collins tied for second place with 46 points.

Newlyweds Are Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Earl Lawson, whose wedding was an event of July 28 in Butte, Mont., were honored at a reception given August 11 by the bridegroom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Lawson at their home at 301 Windsor avenue.

About 150 guests were received between the hours of two and five-thirty o'clock in the afternoon.

The reception was decorated with a crystal bowl filled with white gladioli and pink, white and mint green gladioli decorated the living room and buffet.

Pouring were Mrs. Mahr Reynolds and Mrs. R. Duke Lorton, Ashland; and Mrs. Richard H. Saul, Mrs. Harry P. Posten and Mrs. Alan S. Markee, Medford.

Others who assisted during the event were the Misses Ellen Montgomery, Rita Olson, Georgia Johnson, Sandra Bates; and Jari Dyrud, Wallace Huffman, Michael Callan and Thomas Barker.

The bride is the former Miss Jerilyn Ann McGee, daughter of Mrs. Fred M. McGee, Butte, Mont., and the late Mr. McGee.

Wedding in Butte
The wedding ceremony was performed at 12:30 o'clock by the Rev. Dorrance P. Johnston in the St. John the Evangelist church. The double ring rites were attended by about 200 guests.

Miss Luann Murphy, San Francisco, Calif., a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss DeEtta Lawson, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Carol Robinson, Great Falls, Mont., another cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Michael Hartley, Moses Lake, Wash., served as best man, and Gilbert C. Clark Jr., Wichita, Kan., and Reginald H. Gladhard, Aurora, Colo., both uncles of the bridegroom, acted as groomsmen.

William McGee, Butte, a brother of the bride, escorted his sister to the altar.

The bride's gown of silk organza was styled with a fitted bodice and the scalloped neckline was outlined with seed pearls and sequins. The billowing skirt was designed with tiers trimmed with pearls and clusters of silk organza cabbage roses, and chapel train. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses, and her veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and sequins.

The attendants wore gowns of silk organza with full skirts and draped bodices of fitted satin, the maid of honor being in shrimp pink and the bridesmaids in mint green. Their short veils were similar to the bride's and matched the colors of their gowns. They carried bouquets of tinted carnations in contrasted shades.

Baskets of pink gladioli decorated the church.

Members of the St. John Senior choir sang the mass accompanied by Miss Margie McGrath.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a turquoise chiffon sheath with matching accessories and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother chose a gold chiffon draped sheath with matching accessories and her corsage was of talisman roses.

The reception, given by the bride's mother, was held in the Copper bowl of the Hotel Finlen.

For their wedding trip the couple traveled to Seattle, Portland and the Oregon coast and Medford. The bride wore a blue wool suit with white accessories for traveling.

The couple will live after September 1, at 1311 West Sixth street in Lawrence, Kansas.

The new Mrs. Lawson is a graduate student at the University of Kansas, and Mr. Lawson is a senior at the same school.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's college at Xavier, Kan., and is a graduate student teacher in the drama department at the university.

The bridegroom has been active in drama circles of the school and is assistant sound director of the theater staff at the school.

The rehearsal dinner party for 25 guests was given by Dr. and Mrs. Lawson in the Rose room of the Hotel Finlen.

Footlighters To Cast Play

"Under the Yum Yum Tree" is the name of the next production of the Footlighters theater group. Casting for the play will be held Monday and Tuesday, August 20-21, at the Footlighters theater behind the armory.

The play is described as a "very sophisticated" comedy for adults. It is currently playing in San Francisco.

Footlighter members and all those interested are invited to the tryouts.

Coffee Hour

A coffee hour for the wives of all Kiwanians will be held by Kiwanian Dames Wednesday, August 22, at 10:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. A. H. Schmechel, 441 Eastwood drive.

Miss Marian Governor

Couple to Wed In Winter Rites

Mrs. Gladys Governor, 401 West Second street, announces the engagement and coming marriage of her daughter, Marian Louise, to Lauren Keith Frazier, Mr. Frazier is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frazier, 3340 Dark Hollow road.

Miss Governor was graduated from Prospect High school in 1962. Mr. Frazier is a graduate of Medford High school, and is employed by Table Rock Lumber company.

The wedding is planned for November 22 in Kingdom Hall, Medford.

Recent Shower Honors Bride

Miss Gerry Maehren, whose marriage to James M. Henney, was an event of August 14, was honored earlier this month at a bridal shower given in the home of Mrs. Ebron Griffiths, 6198 Table Rock road, Central Point.

The gift table was decorated with a bride doll and ribbons in lavender with an arrangement of roses.

D. R. Hendrickson furnished piano music for the evening and a cake decorated in the wedding theme was served. About 20 guests attended from Gold Hill, Central Point and Medford.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome A. Maehren, 586 Beall lane, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ebron Griffiths.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kent Tinseth (Anders photo)

Service League Members To Model Furs Thursday

Ten Medford women will model for Medford Junior Service League's pre-season showing of furs set for Thursday, August 23 at the Rogue Valley Country club.

Jean Hart's, of Medford and Ashland, is cooperating with the League in sponsoring the show, which will feature Curtis Stewart's Fine Furs of San Francisco.

Models include the Mesdames B. Brandt Bartels, Billy Blackstone, Jack Edson, Richard Hensley, Donald Herried, Frank Hopewell, John Lynch, Raymond Miksche, Brian Mullen, and Houston Pitts. Coiffures for the models will be done by Hair Fashions, 125 West Main street, under the direction of Glenn. Guests will be served cocktails and hor d'oeuvre during the style show, which is scheduled for 6:30 p.m.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Gilbert Tummy at 772-7400. Proceeds from the function will go to the League's kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children.

Teacher Leaves For Germany

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Miller returned recently to their home at 2200 Rubi Way after a vacation in North Dakota, Montana, and Idaho.

They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Carolyn Miller, who departed after their return trip for Nurnberg, Germany, where she will resume teaching sixth grade in the Nurnberg American elementary school.

Among the places the Millers visited were the Grand Teton mountains, Yellowstone and Glacier national parks, as well as the Seattle World's Fair.

Where you find the clothes you love to live in Wire doing a Highland Fling!

You will, too, when you see Bill Atkinson's new sportsclothes for Juniors. Take the high road or the low road, to jean hart's

617 E. Main
Medford
Ph. 772-8992

180 E. Main
Ashland
Ph. 482-3965

IDA M. WOOD'S

"Retiring From Business"

SALE

EVERY FOUNDATION REDUCED

1/2 PRICE

Or Less. A wonderful opportunity to get your school wardrobe of bras, girdles and panty girdles. All clean merchandise.

Personalized Corsetry — 617 E. Main — 772-6547

PENNEY'S

5 DAYS ONLY! Begins Tuesday, Aug. 21

BUILD BABY'S PHOTO ALBUM WITH

pixy PIN-UPS

Beautiful 5x7" photograph, for only

59c

Non-glare lights get natural smiles.

Do your baby-bragging with a beautiful photo... "worth more than a thousand words." Get a completely finished photograph for only 59c. You will not be urged to buy but if you wish the remaining poses they're yours for 1.35 for the first, 1.25 for the 2nd and $1 for any additional.

AGE LIMIT 5 years. One or two children per family will be photographed singly for 59c each for the first picture. Each additional child under five, 1.50.

PHOTOGRAPHERS HOURS:
9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Brophy's

Serving Southern Oregon and Northern California for Over 35 Years

THE Double Ring Ceremony

a ritual that is becoming more and more prevalent in today's marriages. The exchanging of rings by the bride and groom expresses one of life's finer sentiments - whether they are matching gold bands (as illustrated) or entirely different in design.

Prices include Federal tax Charge or budget

For the Gifts You'll Give With Pride...

Let Brophy's Be Your Guide

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced