

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eston Humphrey
(Brainerd photo)

Humphrey-Bern Ceremony Held in Medford Church

Among August weddings was that of Miss Lucille Rae Bern, Coos Bay, and Walter Eston Humphrey. The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jean Henri Bern, Coos Bay. Mr. Humphrey is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Humphrey, 3482 Ross lane.

Dr. D. Kirkland West performed the ceremony at three o'clock on the afternoon of August 12 in First Presbyterian church here. Members of the families attended.

White gladioli decorated the altar for the double ring rites.

The bride chose a floor length gown of white net and lace. Her waist length veil was held by a seed pearl crown, and she carried a white Bible with white gladioli.

Miss Esther Waters, Coos Bay, was honor attendant, and Miss Vicky Bern, sister of the bride, and Miss Martha Humphrey, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Miss Waters' gown was yellow tulle with chiffon skirt panels, and the bridesmaids' gowns were of lavender tulle in the same style. The honor attendant carried a basket of lavender gladioli, and the bridesmaids' baskets held yellow gladioli.

John Flanagan served as best man. Seating the guests were John Humphrey, brother of the bridegroom, and David Johnson.

A small reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents. For the wedding and reception Mrs. Bern wore a light blue frock with white accessories, with a pink gladioli corsage. Mrs. Humphrey chose a beige dress with melon colored accessories and a melon rose corsage.

The bride is a graduate of North Bend High school, and attended Southern Oregon college.

The bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school and Southern Oregon college. He will teach mathematics and science in junior and senior high schools in Butte Falls this fall. The couple will make their home in the Gleason apartments in Butte Falls.

New York - UPB - Playing cards has been a part of American life since the days of Columbus. His sailors brought them along on their first voyage to the new world.

Ceremony At Home Weds Pair

Hazel M. Dickson, 717 Sherman street, and Walter G. Cummings, 832 West Twelfth street, were married in rites held late Sunday afternoon, August 12, in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Edward C. Root, The Three Pines, 3261 Jacksonville highway.

Dr. D. Kirkland West of the First Presbyterian church performed the 4:30 o'clock ceremony which was attended by a small group of relatives and friends. Baskets of pink and white gladioli formed the setting for the wedding ceremony.

The bride wore a pink organza dress over pink tulle, designed with a scoop neckline and fitted bodice, and bell-shaped skirt. Her feathered hat was in matching pink and her corsage was a white orchid. The crystal necklace and earrings which she wore were loaned to her by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John P. Dickson, Portland; they had belonged to Mr. Dickson's grandmother.

Mrs. Dickson was matron of honor for her mother-in-law. She wore an ivory colored satin brocade dress and her hat was of white tulle. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Donald Cummings, Sunnydale, Calif., was best man for his father.

Clay M. Lee seated the guests.

The bride, at one time employed with the Oregon Motor Vehicle department, Medford office, later served as assistant in the dental offices of her son, Dr. Dickson, until he moved to Portland in 1960 to become a teacher in the School of Dentistry of the University of Oregon. Wishes for the bride were found in a wishing well in the patio.

Bridegroom Retired

The bridegroom, now retired, was for nine years supervisor of electrical maintenance with the Elk Lumber company.

The couple is to return August 25 from their wedding trip to the Oregon beaches and Portland, and will live at the Sherman street address. For traveling the bride chose a tan and yellow glazed print suit which she wore with white accessories.

Out-of-town guests included Dr. and Mrs. John P. Dickson and sons, John and Billy; Portland; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Schultz, Eugene, son-in-law and daughter of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cummings, Sunnydale, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mark Asam
(Classic photo)

Asam-Austin Ceremony Held in Church Here

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mark Asam, whose marriage was an event of August 11, will live in Honolulu, Hawaii after their wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nev., and Chicago, Ill.

The bride, the former Miss Mary Kathryn Austin, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Austin of 360 Stewart avenue, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Alexander Asam, Honolulu, Hawaii, and the late Mrs. Asam.

The 12 o'clock noon nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. John Hig at Sacred Heart Catholic church.

Mr. Austin escorted his daughter to the altar.

The bride's gown of white brocade was styled with a full length bell skirt and elbow length sleeves. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Mrs. Walter Graft III, Stockton, Calif., was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Carmen Valentine and Kathy Austin, a niece of the bride, and Miss Rosemary White of Waitsburg, Wash.

The attendants' sheath frocks were pink embroidered sateen with scoop necklines and they wore pink and white carnation crowns and carried nosegays of these flowers. The matron of honor wore a white carnation lei and the bridesmaids wore leis of pink and white carnations, the leis being sent especially from Hawaii.

Kathy Austin, a niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Robert Messer served as best man and brothers of the bride, Alex Austin, John D. Austin, Ashland, and Philip Austin, Burney, Calif., seated the guests.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the church.

Miss Mary Robinson was organist.

The bride's mother wore a beige silk sheath dress with matching jacket and beige accessories, and she also wore a lei of mauve loa orchids.

Reception Held

The wedding reception was held in the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Austin at 2232 Dellwood avenue. About 100 guests attended the wedding and about 125 were at the reception.

Mrs. Dan Hooper and Miss Frances Arellano poured the punch. Miss Linda Montgomery served coffee and serving the wedding cake were Miss Jeanette Nougulier and Mrs. Floyd Darland.

For traveling the bride wore a brown knit sheath dress with beige accessories and matching hat.

The bride received her education at St. Mary's High school, Southern Oregon college and the University of Hawaii. The bridegroom, who is regional manager for a combined insurance company, attended St. Louis High school in Honolulu, and is a graduate of the University of California. They plan to be in Honolulu by the end of August.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Arellano, an aunt of the bride, and her daughter, Miss Frances Arellano, Redwood City, Calif.; Mrs. Virgil Garst, Wenatchee, Wash., another aunt; Mr. and Mrs. John Edstrom, Woodburn, Ore.; and Mrs. R. Peterson, Klamath Falls.

Wedding Today Of Interest Here

News of interest here is the wedding set for today of Mrs. Luola Bengtson, former Medford resident, and Lawrence F. Rehfeld, both of Eugene. The small family ceremony is planned in the chapel of the Eugene St. Mary's Episcopal church.

Announcement of the forthcoming wedding was made recently in Eugene when Mrs. Hazel Archibald entertained a group of friends in her home. Mrs. Robert L. Rinker cut the decorated cake served for refreshments. The table was arranged with pink flowers and candles.

Guests included Mrs. Bengtson's daughters, Mrs. Larry O. Mollahan and Miss Hilda Bengtson. Mrs. Bengtson and the bridegroom-elect taught together at the Woodrow Wilson Junior High school, Eugene, for the past year. Mrs. Bengtson has taught at the school for eight years in fields of social living and guidance and this year will be at the North Eugene High School in guidance and English.

Mr. Rehfeld, who taught history at Wilson, will teach world history and English at South Eugene High school.

Before leaving for Eugene Mrs. Bengtson taught in the Medford public school system.

Herb Accents Speaker's Topic

"Accent With Herbs in Casseroles" will be the topic of Mrs. Gretchen Wade's talk Tuesday, August 21, at 1 p.m., before members of the Rogue Valley Herb society. The group will meet in the Redwood room of the Medford hotel.

Mrs. Mattie Carson will present an exhibit of herbs and Mrs. LeRoy Cline and Mrs. R. D. Abel will decorate the tables.

A large number of members attended a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Abel. Roll call was answered by giving an idea for an herb bazaar. The women toured the herb gardens at the Abel home, and Mrs. O. C. Medicus, a representative for Spice Island products, lectured on teas.

Mrs. Ray Cerr assisted Mrs. Abel in serving refreshments of herb teas, cake and herb gelatine.

"Breakfast" is the word used for a wedding reception that takes place before one in the afternoon. A "reception" is held after one p.m.

Musicians and Dancers To Give Concert Today

Ashland — The third in a series of Sunday concerts sponsored by the Oregon Shakespearean festival and performed by the Festival musicians, singers and dancers will take place today at the old Presbyterian church across from the Plaza in Ashland.

Among the featured selections will be Mozart's "Quintet for Strings," Haydn's "String Quartet No. 19," and the first movement of "Piano Quintet" by Brahms.

In addition to these numbers, the singers and dancers will perform, Miss Carol Hendrick, Festival singer from South Dakota, will present a solo and then join the other members of the Festival madrigal group in singing several madrigal numbers similar to those sung prior to each Festival theatre performance.

The Festival dancers will also perform, with the choreography under the direction of Miss Anne Peterson.

The concert will start at 3:30 p.m. and a small charge will be asked of those attending, to help defray expenses.

Brides

Why pay more for your Announcements or Invitations? You will receive top quality workmanship and the fastest service here—we do all our own work. See our samples.

The ACORN PRESS
325 No. Bartlett Dial 772-4250

EVERYDAY IS SALE

DAY AT MEDFORD YARDAGE CENTER

410 EAST MAIN

WOOL FLANNEL

$1.98 yd.

PLAINS

PELLON

42 in. wide 3 yds. limit

39c yd.

QUILTED COTTONS

Reg. 98c

1.59

FABREX LIBBRETO

Dress & Suiting

$1.98 Yard

SKIRT LENGTHS

$1.59 EACH

ONE YARD WOOL

COTTON PRINTS

63c REGULAR 98c

RAW SILK

$1.79 yd.

Regular $1.98

SILK SHANTUNG

$1.79 yd.

Regular $2.98

TARPOON TYPE CLOTH

65% DACRON 35% COTTON

$1.49 yd.

43 INCHES

300 Denier BRIDAL SATIN

The Very Finest

$1.39 yd.

SHEER PRINTS

35% Cotton 65% Dacron

Regular $1.79

98c

SEW MUCH MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

Daughter Here; Son To Leave For Honolulu

Guests in the valley include Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Erkenbrecher, Modesto, Calif., and their two children, Catherine and Carla, who are visiting Mrs. Erkenbrecher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Dark Hollow road.

The Fairweather's son, Donald, who is on the staff of Warnecke and Warnecke, large firm of architects in San Francisco, will leave from the Bay city Thursday for Honolulu, Hawaii. The firm has been awarded a contract to design and plan a new capitol for Hawaii, and Mr. Fairweather will be one of the supervising architects. He will be accompanied by his wife and their two children, Douglas and Jennifer. The family will be in Hawaii about two years.

Perrys To Teach In Alaskan School

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry and children, Salinas, Calif., visited here recently with Mrs. Perry's mother, Mrs. Ray Wright, 1100 Reddy avenue.

The Perrys are traveling to Alaska, where they will teach in a government school at Deering, north of Nome. They plan to be in Alaska for two years.

Campus Wool Knit Bound Coordinates

Match every mood in these Matte-flat knits of 100% zephyr wool. Choose

Contrast trimmed Jacquard Cardigan in Camel, Grey, Vicuna Black $12.98 Matching Skirt, Camel, Grey, Black $10.98 from an assortment of 8 different style tops and matching skirts.

Continental Cardigan $10.98 All Wool Knit Continental Cardigan Matching Slim Skirt $10.98

LaPointe's

IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE