

THIS COULD BE WEEK OF DECISION FOR LEADERS IN BOTH BIG LOOPS

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

This could be the week of decision in both major league races—the week in which the Los Angeles Dodgers kiss goodbye to at least one pursuer and the New York Yankees lower the boom on the Los Angeles Angels.

The Dodgers get their chance tonight when they can open up a 7½ game lead over the Cincinnati Reds and leave the San Francisco Giants as their only real threat.

Then on Tuesday night the Yankees open a three-game series in Los Angeles with the opportunity to build substantially to their 4½ game margin over the Angels. To remain challengers in a practical sense, the Angels must win two of the three games.

The Dodgers increased their lead over San Francisco to 3½ games and over Cincinnati to 6½ Sunday when a five-run ninth-inning rally gave them a 5-1 victory over the Reds. The Yankees, meanwhile, blitzed the Kansas City Athletics, 21-7, to maintain their 4½ game bulge over the Angels.

Joeey Jay shut out the Dodgers for eight innings but Frank Howard opened the ninth with a game-tying homer and the panic was on. A walk, a sacrifice and safe bunts by Maury Wills and Jim Gilliam produced the tie-breaking run and then Willie Davis wrapped it up with a three-run inside-the-park homer.

Don Drysdale, pitching his strongest game in more than two weeks, fired a three-hitter and won his 22nd game of the campaign.

Howard, Mantle Star
Elston Howard and Mickey Mantle drove in a total of 15 runs in the Yankees' 20th barrage at Kansas City. Howard drove in eight runs with two homers, a triple and a single while Mantle knocked in seven with a homer, double and single.

The Milwaukee Braves walloped the Giants, 13-8, the Philadelphia Phillies edged out the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-2, the St. Louis Cardinals downed the New York Mets, 10-5, and the Chicago Cubs defeated the Houston Colts, 4-3, in the other NL games.

The Angels scored a 5-2 victory over the Washington Senators, the Baltimore Orioles shaded the Cleveland Indians, 6-5, the Minnesota Twins swept the Boston Red Sox, 4-2 and 7-4, and the Detroit Tigers gained an 8-3 triumph after losing to the Chicago White Sox, 11-5, in other AL games.

Aaron Hits Two Homers
Hank Aaron hit his 32nd and 33rd homers and Del Crandall and Lee Maye hit one each for the Braves off setting two San Francisco homers by Willie McCovey and one by Felipe Alou.

Ruben Amaro's ninth-inning single drove in Don Demeter with the decisive run for the Phillies who dealt Pittsburgh relief ace Roy Face his fourth setback.

Lindy McDaniel, making his first start since May 15, 1960, went eight innings for his third victory supported by an 11-hit Cardinals attack that included homers by Hal Maxvill and Julian Javier. The Mets suffered their 10th straight loss.

Bob Buhl squared his record at 9-9 when the Cubs made a three-run seventh-inning rally stand up for their victory at Houston.

Chance Strikes Out Five
Rookie Dean Chance pitched a five-hitter and struck out five to win his 11th game for the Angels. He faced 31 batters in 4½ games. Jim Gentile and Whitey Herzog homered for the Orioles.

Jim Kaat pitched a five-hitter and did not permit the Red Sox to hit a ball out of the infield after the fourth inning to win his 13th game for the Twins. Then Harmon Killebrew drove in four runs with a homer and a single to complete the Minnesota sweep.

The White Sox won their opener as Charlie Maxwell drove in six runs with a grand slam homer and two-run double but Billy Bruton's grand slam homer paced an attack that brought Hank Aguirre his 11th victory for Detroit in the nightcap.

Passers Star As Browns Crush Pittsburgh 33-10

By JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer

Paul Brown has come up with a new pair of passers in Jim Ninowski and Frank Ryan and it just might spell championship for the Cleveland Browns.

Ninowski, who came to the Browns in the deal that sent quarterback Milt Plum to the Detroit Lions, put on his second fine performance Saturday night and Ryan was there to back him up in Cleveland's 33-10 rout of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the second half of professional football's first doubleheader.

A crowd of 77,683 in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium saw Ninowski pass for four touchdowns and Ryan for one after the Lions had beaten the Dallas Cowboys, 35-24, in the first game of the twin-bill.

The champion Green Bay Packers (5-0) rolled over the St. Louis Cardinals (0-1-1), 41-14, the Philadelphia Eagles (1-1) clipped the Chicago Bears (0-2), 28-14 and the Los Angeles Rams (2-0) outlasted the Minnesota Vikings (0-2), 33-24, in other NFL games Saturday. In the lone Sunday game, the San Francisco Forty Niners (2-0) buried the New York Giants (0-1-1) 42-10.

Chargers Top Broncos
In the American Football league, the San Diego Chargers (2-0) beat the Denver Broncos (0-2), 31-24; the defending champion Houston Oilers (3-0) downed the Boston Patriots (1-2), 20-10, before a turnout crowd of 31,000 at New Orleans, and the Dallas Texans (2-1) shut out the Oakland Raiders (1-2), 22-0.

TAKES THREE TITLES
Denver—UPI—Chuck Kalb of Monroe, Mich., captured the class A and B hydroplane races and the class A runabout event Sunday for an unprecedented three class championships in the national championship speedboat races on Hidden lake.
