

SALEM ENCOUNTERS CORVALLIS TONIGHT IN STATE SOFTBALL FINALS AT WHITE CITY PARK

Merchant Club Tips
Albany, Lake Oswego

Memorial Field, White City - It will be Corvallis Merchants against defending champion Randall's Chuck Wagon of Salem here tonight in the finals of the men's state tournament of the Oregon State Softball association.

The two aggregations battle at 7:15 p.m. at this Veterans Administration dormitory facility. Should Corvallis win, a second finale game will be required since Salem is so far undefeated in this double elimination tournament.

here last night to gain the finals against the 1961 winner. Seeks Fourth Title
Salem topped Corvallis 2 to 0 last Saturday in the tournament's opening round then beat John Wheeler Logging of Medford and Lake Oswego to reach the title game. Randall's drew a bye last night. Corvallis fought back through the losers bracket to go into the championship night. The Merchants nipped Pendleton and Eugene prior to last night's fray.

Randall's seeks its fourth state banner in five years. Corvallis was a finalist also in the 1961 tournament. Corvallis tabulated second and seventh inning counters against Albany last night. In the second frame Homer Applegate doubled, Bill Watkins walked and Hal Wehmeier sacrificed the runners ahead. Applegate then scored on a sacrifice flyout by Marlin DeHaas. In the last canto Watkins walked, went to second and third bases on wild pitches and scored on a bad throw on DeHaas's fielder's choice blow.

Two-Hit Ball
Wehmeier chucked two-hit ball for Corvallis with five strikeouts and three bases on balls. He had errorless fielding behind him. Terry Ziegler and Jim Mechals got the hits. Corvallis tagged Ken Kalina for three safe blows, by Duane Speers, Tom Bowen and Applegate over six frames. Kalina walked one and whiffed three. Bill Case walked one and fanned one in last inning relief. Each S-F pitcher was charged with a run.

A DeHaas catch, falling against the left field fence robbed Albany's Gary Davies of a hit in the fifth inning. In the sixth, Mechals, playing third base, was hit in the face by a ball thrown from the outfield.

A Dow Poling home run in the sixth inning for Corvallis highlighted its game with Lake Oswego. It was the first hit that the Merchants managed off chucker Jerry Hodge. But the Corvallis club managed two second stanza tallies without benefit of a safety.

They resulted from two bases on balls, two passed balls, a sacrifice flyout by Lloyd Buettgenbach and a throwing error on a double play attempt.

Feeling Warm
Buettgenbach threw four-hit ball with seven strikeouts and a base on balls. Mickey Newell, Dean Gray, Bob Ziegler and Ted Antonson got the hits for Lake Oswego. Hodge struck out two and walked three, hitting one, in his six innings on the slab. Ron Davidson, tossing the last inning for the Lakers, allowed hits by DeHaas and Duane Speers and fanned two.

Feeling got a bit warm in the Merchant-Laker clash when first basemen Bill Watkins of Corvallis and Ron Koski of Oswego pushed runners Everett Stiles and Buettgenbach, respectively, in tagging them on ground balls. The fact that Watkins and second sacker Applegate were banged up in making putouts at first did not help matters.

Games tonight wind up a five day tournament with the champion gaining a berth in the regional meet at Seattle. Medford Moose lodge is sponsor. Tickets will be available at the gate.

Cascade Joins Unbeaten Clubs
Portland - (UPI) - The Cascade Emeralds and Beal Pipe of Portland joined Eugene and Archer Blower of Portland as the only undefeated teams in the American Amateur Baseball congress state tournament here Tuesday night.

Cascade pitcher Nelson Briles pitched a four-hitter and struck out eight as the Emeralds edged the Santiam Loggers 2-1. Rich Summer doubled to drive in the tying run in the sixth inning and scored the winning run on an error a few minutes later.

Beal's Dick Duerr pitched a three-hit, 7-0 shutout over Forest Grove in the night's other game.

Tonight's action, all in the losers' bracket, pits Oregon City against Ray's Continentals of Beaverton and Camas against Premier Gear of Portland.

DEFENDERS WIN
Portland - (UPI) - Defending champions Ward Cummings Ralph Lomax and Errol Murhard won first rounds here Tuesday in the Oregon Senior Golf Association tournament. Cummings, of Roseburg, edged Roy Hixson of Laurewood in Class A; Murhard defeated Charles Sumner of Forest Hills; and Lomax of Riverside stopped W. E. Duncan of Forest Hills.

Linebackers Will Meet On Friday

A noon luncheon of Medford Linebackers on Friday, Aug. 24, will mark the final drive in five-year season ticket sales for financing construction of the 4,000 seat grandstand at the Medford High school stadium.

The luncheon will be at North's Chuck Wagon.

Any sports fan interested may attend.

The stadium will be the main topic of the meeting. There will be a report on ticket sales and general information will be available on the project.

Jack Faces Mets Again

New York - (UPI) - Big Jack Sanford is shooting for 20 games this year and hopes the New York Mets will continue to help him reach his goal.

Sanford was set to hurl for the San Francisco Giants tonight in the opener of a two-game series here. Mets pitcher Casey Stengel, his pitching staff depleted by a series of recent double headers, was unable to decide on a definite starter.

Sanford's fine 17-6 mark makes him the ace of the Giants staff this year. San Francisco's two road victories in seven tries have both gone to Sanford, who has reeled off 11 straight wins. This total has only been matched by the Dodgers' Don Drysdale this season.

Five of Sanford's wins have come against the Mets, who have scored only six runs off Sanford in five games.

Sanford and manager Alvin Dark agree that the pitcher's success has been due to a policy of having Sanford bear down all the way as long as he can and letting relievers mop up if necessary.

Net Teams Get Closer To Clashes

Chestnut Hill, Mass. - (UPI) - Tennis teams from the United States, Australia, Mexico and Yugoslavia moved closer to their inevitable championship clash today in the third round of the national doubles tournament.

Yugoslav Davis Cuppers Boro Javanovic and Nikolai Pilic, the only entries from a Communist country among 300 players in the 82nd annual championships, still faced the toughest task in the eight-day tourney at Longwood Cricket Club.

The pair, delayed in arriving here by their cup match in Mexico last week, was to have played two matches Monday to catch up with the field.

However, their delayed opening round match took more than 150 minutes to complete and the second round test was put off to today. If they win, they will play again a few hours later.

Default
At the same time, defaulting United States teams gave Australians Rod Laver and Fred Stolle one day off and eliminated the double duty requirement for Mexican Davis Cup stars Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox.

The defending U.S. champions, Dennis Ralston and Chuck McKinley, rested and apparently back on their game following their unprecedented loss to Mexico in Davis Cup semi-finals, have won both matches here in straight sets.

The success of seeded teams also has held true in the women's division through two full rounds of play. The second ranked domestic tandem of four-time winner Darlene Hard and 1960 title companion Maria Bueno of Brazil ran into a minor roadblock but were expected to overcome it today.

Spencer Comes Through Again for Seattle Club

By RAYMOND L. ANDREWS
United Press International

When manager Johnny Pesky of Seattle waves George Spencer in from the bullpen, he can usually sit back and relax.

Spencer came on during a three-run Spokane fifth inning in Tuesday night's Pacific Coast league play and limited the Indians to three hits in the six innings he worked.

Seattle went on to score two runs in the eleventh to win it 5-3.

In other action, Salt Lake City edged Tacoma 2-1. Vancouver powered its way to a 6-3 win over Portland and San Diego nipped Hawaii 5-4.

Spencer, who owns a 9-1 mark, fanned four during his tenure and did not walk a man. Merlin Nipper finished up in the eleventh after the Reiniers had scored their pair.

Ted Schreiber singled in the eventual winning run in the overtime then later scored on Dave Mann's single for Seattle's winning margin.

Tacoma Checked
Don Prince and Frank Funk combined to check Tacoma on a four-hitter. Funk came in with one out in the ninth and the tying Tacoma run on third and whiffed Dick Gernert and Bill Hain on just seven pitches.

Gordy Lund provided the offense for Salt Lake with a homer behind a single by Bill Williams in the fourth.

All of Vancouver's runs came on homers with the big one a grand slammer by Jay Ward in the third. Joe McCabe chipped in with a solo homer in the same frame and Lamar Jacobs hit one out of the park in the Vancouver fourth.

Joe Bonikowski won his second against one loss although he was relieved in the seventh by Jim Rantz.

Rogelio Alvarez smacked a solo homer for San Diego in the seventh for the Padres' eventual winning run although it took a great throw by right fielder Ken Walters to cut off a Hawaii threat in the ninth.

Southpaw Bob Risenhoover saved the victory for starter Greg Jancich.

Stan Pasky of the Losers hit his 28th homer of the year and Bob Knoop also contributed a homer in Hawaii's 12-hit attack.

ANOTHER VOTE

Seattle - (UPI) - Another vote for a professional football franchise in Seattle came Tuesday from American Football league President Joe Foss. Foss, a World War II Marine hero and medal of honor holder, also is an ex-governor of South Dakota. He told a news conference at the World's Fair that a proper stadium and $1.5 million are necessary for a professional team to survive. Foss said Seattle is a prime city for a pro football franchise but needs a stadium that will seat 25,000 persons.

OLD Mr. BOSTON

YOU'RE MAKING A BIG MISTAKE IF YOU DO NOT TRY 80 PROOF GIN!

If you think higher proof means higher quality - that's a mistake.

If you think you have to pay more money to get a better gin - that's a mistake.

If you think the gin the English prefer is more than 80 proof - that's a mistake.

You should know, to begin with, that America is practically the only civilized country in the world that drinks high-proof gin. The British, who perfected gin, know that gin has an ideal taste and flavor balance, and they prefer it at milder, smoother 80 proof. Here's the whole story:

80 PROOF GIN TASTES BETTER
"Proof" is no measure of quality. It's a measure of alcohol content alone. (100 proof means 50% alcohol.) Alcohol itself has no flavor. The pleasant taste of gin comes entirely from the herbs with which it's distilled.

The best test of gin is to drink it straight or on-the-rocks. You'll find 80 proof gin has the big taste advantage of 80 proof milder - with the same full flavor of higher proof gins.

80 PROOF GIN COSTS LESS
Gins are taxed by the U. S. on their proof or alcohol content, only. The lower the proof - the lower the taxes, and the lower the cost to you. When you buy an imported label, you add the cost of shipping and duties. That pushes the price even higher, without giving you 80 proof quality.

80 PROOF GIN MAKES BETTER MARTINIS
It makes them extra dry, as you like them, but not extra strong. Twenty years ago, the 3-to-1 Martini was standard. Today, with the trend to dryer Martinis, they're made 4-to-1, even 5-to-1. As a result the modern Martini has climbed from a smooth 75.5 proof to an overwhelming 84 proof! Solution? Mix with 80 proof gin. It gives you the same full, dry gin flavor, but it returns the Martini to its original, more moderate proof.

80 PROOF GIN MAKES BETTER TALL DRINKS
When you mix a tall drink, like a Collins or a gin 'n tonic, you dilute the strength of the gin 'n taste. You also mix for balance of flavor. 80 proof gin will give you better balance. You don't have to drown it to drink it.

HOW TO MAKE DRY MARTINIS MAKE MORE SENSE

Using Standard Dry Vermouth	Using 80 Proof Dry Gin	Using 80 Proof Dry Gin (4:1 ratio)
3 - 10 - 1 (Traditional)	24.5 Proof	45.5 Proof
5 - 10 - 1 (Dry)	24.5 Proof	72.5 Proof
8 - 10 - 1 (Extra Dry)	24.5 Proof	75.1 Proof

(The "standard" used for today's bottled Martinis is a moderate 81.5 proof.)

OLD MR. BOSTON IS THE FINEST GIN YOU CAN BUY

It's vacuum distilled at an unusually low temperature in special glass-lined stills. Only at such a low temperature, is it possible to capture the most delicate essence of the herbs. This is one reason for Old Mr. Boston's flavor distinction. It is America's first and largest-selling 80 proof Dry Gin!
