

Yanks Crush Angels 11-4 With 10th Inning Explosion

By FRED DOWN
UTI Sports Writer

It was an old-fashioned New York Yankee explosion and it just about made a wreck of both the Los Angeles Angels and the American League pennant race.

Seven runs poured over the plate in the 10th inning rally Tuesday night, crushing the Angels, 11-4, and extending the Yankees' first-place lead to five full games.

It was the Angels' moment of truth—the game in which they had begun a late run on the Yankees—and the fact is they gave it a great try. But in the end they were smothered—and only a miracle can bring them back into position as practical pennant challengers.

The Angels had tied the score at 4-4 on Leon Wagner's ninth-inning single but all that did was set the stage for typical late-inning Yankee lightning. Two singles and a walk produced one run, another single and Cleve Boyer's double drove in two more runs and then Roger Maris clouted a grand slam homer after a walk to leave LA in the rubble of the AL standings.

Early Lead
Lee Thomas' two homers enabled the Angels to take an early 3-1 lead but the Yankees tied the score on Elston Howard's two-run sixth-inning homer and took a 4-3 lead on Bobby Richardson's run-producing seventh-inning single. Wagner's clutch hit tied it up again and gave hope to the crowd of 30,830 in Los Angeles—until the Yankees went to bat, that is.

The Minnesota Twins beat the Washington Senators, 5-2; the Detroit Tigers topped the Cleveland Indians, 10-1; the Baltimore Orioles routed the Chicago White Sox, 9-1, and the Boston Red Sox downed the Kansas City Athletics, 11-6, in other AL games.

The Milwaukee Braves shaded the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-5; the Cincinnati Reds downed the Chicago Cubs, 2-0; the Philadelphia Phillies swept a doubleheader from the Houston Colts, 5-3 and 7-4, and the New York Mets snapped a 13-game losing streak with a 5-4 win after losing the first game of a doubleheader to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8-6.

Twins Extended Streak
Jack Kralick and Ray Moore combined in a four-hitter for the Twins, who scored their fourth straight victory with the help of a key single by Bernie Allen in the sixth inning. Dave Stenhouse suffered his ninth loss against 10 wins for the Senators.

Jim Bunning pitched a four-hitter to win his 13th game of the season and the 100th of his big league career for the Tigers. Bunning yielded a first-inning homer to Al Luplow and then set down the Indians with three hits the rest of the way. Al Kaline had three hits for Detroit.

Robin Roberts won his eighth game of the year and the 242nd of his career behind a 10-hit Baltimore attack that included a grand slam homer by rookie Boog Powell. Early Wynn, in search of the 200th win of his career, retired only one batter in the first inning before being routed.

Carl Yastrzemski hit a three-run homer and drove in two other runs to lead the Red Sox' 15-hit attack. Earl Wilson, aided by Arnold Earley in the ninth, picked up his ninth win of the season.

Braves Nipped Cards
Lee Maye's 10th-inning single drove in the winning run for the Braves and gave Claude Raymond his fifth triumph. Charlie James had three hits, including a homer, for the Cardinals while Gus Bell had four hits and Tommy Aaron homered for the Braves.

Jim Maloney pitched eight scoreless relief innings as the Reds struggled to remain in the NL race with their win over the Cubs. Marty Keough's homer was the big blow for the Reds while rookie Ken Hubbs of the Cubs ran his record string of consecutive errorless games to 64.

Art Mahaffey won his 17th game and Jack Hamilton his seventh as the Phillies made it 15 in a row over the Colts. Roy Sievers and Johnny Callison hit back-to-back homers for the Phillies in the nightcap.

Pinch-hitter Marv Throneberry's three-run, ninth-inning homer enabled the Mets to down the Pirates after Pittsburgh won the opener with the aid of Felix Mantilla's three-run throwing error in the ninth inning of the first game.

Dodgers Slate Two With Phils

Philadelphia—UPI—The Los Angeles Dodgers open a two-game series tonight against the Philadelphia Phillies after being idle Tuesday.

Dodger manager Walt Alston picked Pete Richert (2-2) to start against Chris Short (7-7) of Philadelphia in what should provide Los Angeles with an opportunity to close

Stengel 'Retires' As Coach

By MILTON RICHMAN
New York—UPI—Proud old Casey Stengel, who always said he'd know when to quit, announced his retirement today—but only from the coaching lines.

Marv Throneberry, on the other hand, got such a belt out of the new job he may even try it again.

"I fired myself quick," Casey laughed, after taking a brief turn in the coaching box Monday during the nightcap of a doubleheader between the New York Mets and Pittsburgh Pirates.

Stengel could afford to laugh for the first time in nearly two weeks because his down-trodden Mets finally ended a 13-game losing streak. Reached The Ultimate.

Throneberry was the man who did it.

Casey reached the ultimate in platooning Monday when he used six coaches—including himself—during the nightcap.

Here's how it all came about:

Third base coach Solly Hemus was ejected by umpire Frank Walsh in the fifth inning and Stengel took over for him.

Outside of the first All-Star game in Washington last month, Casey's appearance on the coaching lines was his first in nearly 20 years.

Cookie Lavagetto, the Mets' first base coach, moved over to the third base line in the sixth and outfielder Gene

Jerry Condray Cops Kart Run

Jerry Condray, Grants Pass, won the Class 1 race Sunday at Medford Kartways.

Dick Florey, Medford, was second and Dick Hiner, Roseburg, third.

In Class 2 the victor was Red Bruce, Gold Hill, with Rick Barnes, Medford, second, and Dick Scott, Klamath Falls, third.

First in Class 2 was Jim Roads, Happy Camp, Calif. Chet Smith, Rogue River, was runnerup and Irish Kerwood, Medford, took "show" honors.

Bill Savard was victor in the A junior chase with Mike Updike running second.

A meeting will be held at the track at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 29.

Woodling coached at first. Throneberry took over.

When Woodling went up to pinch hit in the sixth, Throneberry took his place until the bottom of the ninth.

That's when Casey signalled from the dugout that he wanted marvelous Marv, as he's called in these parts, to grab a bat and swing for Jim Hickman.

The Mets had two runners on at the time and the Pirates were ahead, 4-2. Elroy Face ran the count to 1-and-1 and then came in with a slider.

Throneberry swung a d sent the ball into the upper right field stands for his 13th homer and a 5-4 Met triumph.

And who do you suppose clapped him on the backside as he rounded first base? Outfielder Richie Ashburn, who had scored earlier in the inning and had taken over Throneberry's job as first base coach.

Richland Eliminated

Las Vegas, N.M.—UPI—Richland, Wash., suffered a pair of defeats and was eliminated from further play in the Pacific-Southwest regional American Legion baseball tournament here Tuesday.

Ronnie Ramie's bases-loaded homer in the final inning gave Ferrington, Hawaii, a 10-6 victory over the Washingtonians early in the day.

Then Kenneth Beck of Granite, Utah, paced his team's 13-hit attack with a grand slam homer and a single as Granite posted a 9-6 win to knock the Richland entry out of further contention.
