

Exhibitors at Fair Increase This Year

Grants Pass - There has been a large increase in exhibitors and concessionaires at the Josephine County Fair this year compared to previous years, Lee Pruitt, fair manager, has announced.

Figures on number of entries were unavailable yesterday except in the 4-H division, in which entries totaled 700.

Mrs. Ole Olson, superintendent of the household arts and crafts department, said entries had more than doubled over last year in her department, filling all available exhibit space to capacity.

A number of Jackson county organizations and individuals have entries and exhibits in the fair.
