

Rites Held at Church

Mr. and Mrs. Halbert Lawrence Kemper
(Landis photo)

Central Point — A double-ring ceremony was used when Miss Nita Jean Trautman became the bride of Halbert Lawrence Kemper on August 18. The bride is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Trautman, 829 Hazel street, Central Point. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Halbert L. Kemper, Salem.

The Rev. Robert Cull performed the ceremony at First Assembly of God church in Medford. Approximately 150 persons attended the candle-light rites, held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Trautman gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of bouquet taffeta fashioned with basque bodice and long sleeves. The scoop neckline was trimmed with appliques of Venice lace and embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins. The back of the full skirt was accented with a butterfly bustle, and the skirt ended in a chapel train.

Her fingertip length veil was held by a queen's crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds.

Sister Is Attendant

Mrs. Charles Bell, Merced, Calif., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Sharon Trautman, Central Point, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Ernest Nelson, Central Point. Valerie Emmons, cousin of the bride from Central Point, was flower girl.

Miss Cheryl Ghelardi and Mrs. Adrian Stansfield lighted the candles. The attendants wore frocks of ice pink chiffon over taffeta, fashioned with bell skirts. Their headpieces were pink tulle covering a fabric rose. Mrs. Bell carried a bouquet of pink gladioli, while Miss Trautman and Mrs. Nelson carried white gladioli. The candlelighters wore wristlets of pink rosebuds, and the flower girl, who wore a pink nylon frock, carried a basket of gladioli petals.

Clifford Ganskie, Salem, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Seating the guests were Adrian Stansfield and Gary Olsen, Klamath Falls.

Reception Held
For the wedding and reception which followed in the church annex, the mother of the bride chose a blue sheath frock with white accessories, and a white rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a mocha-colored lace dress, also worn with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Reinhold Boes, Central Point, an aunt of the bride, was hostess for the reception. Mrs. John Ahorn, also the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Herbert Trautman Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Kenneth Trautman, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Rose Trautman, cousin of the bride, served punch. In charge of the gifts were Miss Royce Welch, Central Point, and Miss Norma Hulse, Medford. Mrs. Arlo Emmons, a cousin of the bride, was at the guest book.

For a wedding trip to the Oregon coast the bride wore a white brocade sheath dress with pink accessories and a white rosebud corsage. A graduate of Crater High school, the bride will begin work in the planning department of the City of Medford in September. Her husband, who was graduated from North Salem High school, is employed by Standard Stations, Sixth street and River-side avenue.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Rings, Banks, Ore., grandparents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Blackman, Salem, also grandparents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wellette, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wilson and family, Salem; Mrs. Grant Ford and daughter, Eugene; C. F. Bell, Merced, Calif.; and Mrs. C. R. Granskie, Salem.

Newlyweds Make Home In Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Lee Burg, who were married in First Methodist church here August 17, have left to make their home in Hawaii. The bride, the former Joyce Marie Smith, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, 706 Beekman street. Mr. Burg is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burg, Butte Falls.

The Rev. George G. Roseberry read the rites at seven o'clock in the evening. About 75 friends and relatives attended.

Yellow and white gladioli decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned with tulle skirt and lace bodice, in street length. She carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Donald Bowling attended the bride. Her yellow frock was fashioned with a green nylon tulle overskirt, and she carried yellow rosebuds.

Tony Rambo, Butte Falls, was best man, and guests were seated by Charles Smith, a brother of the bride, and Harvey Deen, Butte Falls.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. For the wedding trip to California the bride chose a yellow brocade suit with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school, and is employed as a nurse's aide by Rogue Valley hospital. Mr. Burg, who was graduated from Butte Falls High school, is a lieutenant corporal in the United States Marine corps stationed in Hawaii.

Sharon Anne Larson
(Landis photo)

Betrothal News Is Made Known

Jacksonville — Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Larson, Route 1, Box 10B, Jacksonville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Anne, to Robert E. Reider, Mr. Reider is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reider, Long Island, N. Y.

Miss Larson was graduated from Medford High School in 1961. She is employed as a bookkeeper by Fluiter's Bakery.

Mr. Reider, who was educated in New York, is employed as a civil engineer by Rogue River National forest. He is based at Star Ranger station.

The couple plan to be married in May.

Halls Entertain Recent Guests

Central Point — Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hall and daughter Leslie, 347 North Third street, Central Point, were Mrs. Hall's parents and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Christenson, Andrew and John, Sepulveda, Calif.

The Christenson family is traveling through Seattle to Canada.

Miss Kazuko Kondo, Kobe, Japan, arrived in the United States early this summer to stay for a year. She is living with Dr. and Mrs. Fred C. Lorch, 830 Minnesota avenue, and will enter Southern Oregon college in the fall as a freshman student. A graduate of Women's Art college in Tokyo, Miss Kondo plans to study elementary art education here. Her brother, Hisayuki, was an American Field Exchange student two years ago, and he also lived with the Lorch family. Another brother attends Northland college in Ashland, Wisc.

Japanese Student Here; Will Enroll In College

Among new students at Southern Oregon college in September will be Miss Kazuko Kondo, who is living with Dr. and Mrs. Fred C. Lorch and their family, 830 Minnesota avenue.

Called Kako, the young native of Kobe, Japan, will major in elementary art education. She is a graduate at Women's art college in Tokyo, where her field of study was graphic design.

Since she arrived in the United States on June 8, Miss Kondo has seen several sites on the west coast. On visiting Crater lake, she immediately sat down to paint. A visit to the city of San Francisco made her nostalgic for her home city, she said.

Miss Kondo's brother, Hisayuki, was an American Field Service exchange student living with the Lorch family two years ago. He has now returned to Japan where he is a student at Kwansai Gakuin university. Another brother, Kenji, is a student at Northland college, Ashland, Wisc. A younger brother attends high school in Japan.

Among the young artists hobbies are skiing, sewing, and traveling. A new experience for her in the U. S. was a drive-in movie, and her favorite foods are hamburgers and pies.

Fred Lorch, a son of Dr. and Mrs. Lorch, is now touring in Japan with a group of Stanford university students.

Medford Family Home From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. William L. White and children David, Barbara, Beth, Dick and Doug, who reside at 1103 Queen Anne avenue have just returned from a vacation trip to Everett, Wash., where they were guests of Mr. White's mother. While there they attended the World's Fair and visited with Mr. White's sister and family in Seattle.

Also the family attended the Pacific Northwest Regional Model Railroad convention in Vancouver, B. C., Canada. A highlight of the convention was a fan trip by 3-truck shay steam locomotive and passenger cars from Vancouver to Howe sound and return.

Home Economists Set Patio Party

The Rogue Valley Home Economists in Homemaking will meet Wednesday, August 29, 6:30 p.m. for a patio party at the home of Mrs. James A. Wells, 723 Palm street.

Miss Joan Beasley and Miss Florence Medford are in charge of the party for home economists and their husbands.

Couples interested in attending should contact Mrs. Arnold K. Harrang, telephone 773-6910.

The executive council met during the summer and made plans for the coming year. New officers for the group are Mrs. Keith Hockersmith, chairman; Mrs. Thomas D. MacLeod, vice chairman; Mrs. James A. Wells, secretary; and Mrs. Ronald F. Weatherford, treasurer.

Three to Attend Stephens College

Miss Rebecca Elin Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Gates, 1758 Military road, will return to the campus of Stephens college, Columbia, Mo., a few days early this fall to attend a Student Leaders' workshop.

Registration at the school will be held September 11 to 15, and classes will begin September 17.

Entering as freshman at the two-year college will be Miss Gloria Gene Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reese M. Alexander, 2309 East Main street, and Miss Rita D. Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Olson, 100 South Groveland avenue.

Social Events Are Held During Meeting of Board

A number of social events held in the valley last week stemmed from a meeting here of 36 officers and board members of the Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone company. It was held at Rogue Valley Country club.

The group was headed by Walter Straley, president of the company, and chairman of the board.

The men were accompanied by their wives and in charge of the meeting plans and entertainment were Raymond Reter, a board member, and Mrs. Reter, assisted by Jack Creager, manager of the Medford office of the company, and Mrs. Creager.

Mrs. Reter entertained at luncheon Thursday noon at the Country club for those who had arrived at that time. That evening the company gave a cocktail party and dinner at Mon Desir Dining inn, Central Point. During the afternoon the group toured Bear Creek orchards plant.

From there, the group traveled by chartered buses to Ashland to attend a performance at the Ashland Shakespearean festival theater.

On Friday noon the men met for luncheon at the Rogue Valley Country club and during the afternoon held their meeting.

On Friday morning Mrs.

Reter again was hostess at her home for a patio brunch attended by wives of the officers and board members. The Misses Claire and Mary Hanley were also guests. Mrs. Creager assisted the hostess.

During the afternoon the group of women made a tour of the valley and in Jacksonville visited the Beekman house, the Beekman bank, the Jacksonville Museum and the Doll house.

That evening about 30 of the group attended another performance at the Shakespearean theater.

A number of local business men and communications personnel were invited to the dinner and the men's luncheon.

The group stayed during their visit here at the Thunderbird and Crater Inn motels. The hosts furnished the visitors in each of their rooms with synopses of the Shakespearean plays which they would attend.

Mrs. Kadin Leaves For Alaska City

Shady Cove — Mrs. Hugh Kenneth Kadin, the former Marion Flowers of Shady Cove, left recently to make her home in Ketchikan Alaska. Mrs. Kadin was taken to Seattle by her parents, stopping in Portland and Tacoma, Wash., to visit relatives.

Mr. Kadin, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Kadin, Ketchikan, is employed with his father in the Ketchikan Pulp mill.

Why pay more for your Announcements or Invitations? You will receive top quality workmanship and the fastest service here — we do all our own work. See our samples.

The AGORN PRESS
325 No. Bartlett Dial 772-4250

Miss Cook, Ralph Hawes To Be Married This Fall

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Cook, Hillcrest Phoenix road, Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Deanna Darlene, to Ralph Edward Hawes, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hawes, Portland.

Miss Cook attended Oregon

State university for two years where she was affiliated with Sigma Kappa, social sorority. She received her bachelor of science degree from University of Oregon. Since graduation she has been employed as a child welfare worker in Coos Bay, Ore.

Mr. Hawes attended Portland university and is now employed with General Motors Acceptance corporation, Medford branch, and is living in Roseburg.

A November wedding is planned.

Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hansen, Foothills road, were honored on the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding Monday, August 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Table Rock road.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen were married August 20, 1932, in Portland. They have lived in the Rogue valley for seven years, and recently built their new home on Foothills road.

Mrs. Hansen is employed by McLaughlin Plumbing company, and both are active in the West Main Church of Christ.

At the lawn party celebration a cake baked and decorated by Mrs. David Bigham, a daughter of the couple, was served. Other children include Mrs. Versie Lodi, Calif., Ronald Hansen, San Jose, Calif., and John Hansen, Seattle.

Visitors Here

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ford, 3294 Crater Lake avenue, were Robert Speed and Arthur Pflughaupt, Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Speed is a professor of music at Grandview college, and Mr. Pflughaupt is an assistant professor of English at Drake university. Mr. Ford and Mr. Pflughaupt are cousins.

Deanna Darlene Cook
(Landis photo)

Newlyweds Live In California

Mr. and Mrs. Geray Milton Garrett are living at Long Beach, Calif., following their recent wedding.

The bride is the former Miss Pennie Joan Freeman and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill J. Freeman, 17 Perrydale avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Garrett, Route 3, Medford.

Their marriage was an event of July 28 in Daly City, Calif.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and the bridegroom is stationed with the Navy on the USS Acme, a mine sweeper at Long Beach.

WEDDING...

- Announcements
- Imprinted Wedding Napkins
- Punch Bowl Rentals

at Swem's
217 E. Main St.—Medford

Johnston and Stewart

YOUR CORNER SHOE STORE

Central at Main

Downtown Medford

Fashion Decrees...

Design's the thing! And California Cobblers uses its master's touch on a little flat that's aptly named "Mondrian." Intricately cut and stitched from its square toe to its stacked heel. In subtle combinations of Black and Hayride Brown with Black.

MONDRIAN

And, by Design It Costs Just...

$9.95

Use Your Charge Account

California
COBBLERS

MONTGOMERY WARD

117 SO. CENTRAL
PHONE 773-7301
Free Parking

sensational vinyl value!

.080 GAUGE TILES 29% THICKER THAN STANDARD 1/16" VINYL AT SIMILAR PRICES! VINYL CLEAR THROUGH!

CLOSE-OUT PURCHASE
MAKES LOW PRICE POSSIBLE

13 1/2¢ each
9x9" size; choose from medium and dark colors

9x9" size; choose from light and decorator colors 16 1/2¢ each

- Your choice of terrazzo, marble-ized or solid designs
- .080 gauge homogenous vinyl
- Limited quantities! Hurry in!

Premium quality vinyl priced less than standard 1/16" tile! Dirt and liquids stay on surface; cleaning's so easy! So tough, beauty lasts for years.

NO MONEY DOWN when you "Charge it" at Wards