Church Ceremony Held

First Christian church was the setting of the marriage of Miss Karen Ann Simcox and Lowell Dean Saturday, Aug. 18.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simcox, 1224 Winchester avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dean, 2905 Oakridge avenue.

The Rev. Fredrick R. Evans read the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening. About 175 guests attended.

An arch of lighted candles and yellow and white gladioli decorated the church. Miss Marilyn Shephard was at the organ, and Miss Julia Gandi sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta designed with bell skirt, three-quarter length sleeves, and scalloped neckline. Her elbow length veil was held by a taffeta rose, and she wore a single strand of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow rosebuds and ivy.

Miss Nancy Simcox, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Roberta Willett and Miss Ann Hammer, Myrtle Point, sorority sisters of the bride. They wore frocks of yellow crystalline, fashioned with bell skirts and elbow length sleeves. Small tiaras held their bridesmaid's veils, and their bouquets were of yellow carnations and greenery.

Miss Sammie Dean, niece of the bridegroom from Nampa, Idaho, was flower girl. Russel Pursell, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Serving as best man was Calvin Dean, twin brother of the bridegroom. Jay Dean, Nampa, Idaho, Carlyle Dean, Kent, Wash., and Mickey Dean, Corvallis, all brothers of the bridegroom, and W. S. Russell, uncle of the bride, seated the guests.

Frank Albert and William Cunningham, Caldwell, Idaho, were groomsmen.

Miss Peterson Honored Guest; Wedding Friday

Miss Sonja Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peterson, 2574 Jacksonville highway, was honored at a bridal shower given recently at the home of Mrs. Albert Gandi, 1248 Eureka circle.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Helmer Tinseth, Mrs. Keith Hockersmith, and Mrs. John Clark. Following the shower Miss Peterson played several piano numbers composed by her fiancé, Jack Augustus Behrens. About 30 guests attended the party.

Miss Peterson and Mr. Behrens plan to be married Friday, August 31, in First Methodist church here.

Married

O'Brien—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Grau, who were married August 11, are making their home in O'Brien. Mrs. Grau is the former Miss Joanne So of Norwalk, Calif.

Mr. Grau, formerly of Long Beach, Calif., is inspector at the Redwood station.

Traveler Returns

Returning recently to Medford after a stay abroad was Mrs. Dorothy M. Dowson, 47 South Berkeley way. Mrs. Dowson traveled to Europe with Mrs. George Stacey, who returned home earlier.

The two women went first to London and later visited other cities of the British Isles, including Coventry where they saw the recently completed new cathedral which is attracting world-wide attention because of its design and construction.

They also visited Scotland and later went to Sweden and Norway. Mrs. Dowson was especially impressed with Copenhagen. They then flew to Paris where they met Mrs. Stacey's daughter, Pamela, who had been attending school in Paris for the past year. In Paris they attended the opera.

The three women returned to New York City on the Mauretania and while there saw a production of "The Sound of Music" and the new musical adaptation of "Around the World in Eighty Days."

Before returning to Medford, Mrs. Dowson spent some time with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Bebber and son Bruce, Kansas City. Her son, Stanley Dowson, was recently home after having been on a summer cruise under the Navy's NROTC program. He is attending Stanford university on a NROTC scholarship.

The benefit party which Medford Junior Service league gave Thursday night at Rogue Valley Country club turned out to be a time for greeting friends as well as a time for watching beautiful women model fine furs. Pictured here shortly before the show began are (left to right) Dr. Billy Blackstone, Mrs. David Holmes and Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels, league members. Mrs. Holmes and her husband now divide their

Jazz Concert Set Today

Ashland—Concertized modern jazz with interpretive comment by Sam Cady will be a Sunday afternoon attraction today at the Bard's Brook Coffee house and Art Gallery, 31 Water street.

Between the hours of 3 and 5 p.m. musicians will be featured in a program of varied selections and theme. A trio, composed of Mr. Cady, piano; William Hannaford, bass; and Don Weaver, drums, will perform.

A quartet of Mr. Cady, Mr. Weaver, Mr. Hannaford on the slide trombone, and Walter Ayres, bass, will also play. Mr. Weaver, Mr. Hannaford, and Mr. Ayres are Medford musicians.

Mr. Cady will serve as master of ceremonies. Some of the jazz numbers are of his arrangement, and some he composed.

A nominal charge will be made for the concert, and espresso coffee will be served.

The Shakespearean art exhibit is still on display, as well as handcrafts of the Senior Citizens club. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Onstad have charge of the gallery and workshop.

Former Pastor Visits In Valley

The Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Volkman and sons, John and Bill, were honored Thursday evening with a covered dish dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kesler, 5054 South Pacific highway. Mr. Volkman is a former pastor of the Phoenix Presbyterian church.

The Volkmans have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pramann, 346 Scenic drive in Ashland while attending the Shakespearean festival.

Mr. Volkman is presently serving the Community Presbyterian church in Calistoga, Calif.

Shakespearean Actor To Present New Show

The fifth one-man show of Philip Hanson, well-known Shakespearean actor, will be presented for the first time Wednesday, August 29, in the parish house of Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland. The show, called "Villains and Fools," is to be presented by the Trinity Noon series, under the sponsorship of the Institute of Renaissance studies.

The show features scenes from the plays of William Shakespeare. During the hour Mr. Hanson will portray some 20 different characters, using no makeup or costume changes. As usual, his only stage property will be a chair.

At this time Mr. Hanson is with the San Diego Shakespeare festival. He has in the past acted with the Ashland festival.

Other one-man shows presented have been "Moby Dick," "My Name is Aram," "The Rebels," and "Kings and Clowns." The series began in 1959. Programs have been held in New York City, New Bedford, Mass., Portland, San Francisco, and Honolulu, Hawaii, and in a total of 22 states.
