

Gruber-Kay Ceremony Held at Medford Church

The Sacred Heart Catholic church of Medford was the setting for the marriage of Ann Camille Kay to Gerald Gruber at high noon August 18. The Rev. William B. Vaughters officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with tall standards of pink and white gladioli. Miss Marilyn Gulden was the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Kay, formerly of Valler, Mont., and now residing in Brewster, Wash. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gruber, Silverton, Ohio.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a Duchess design suit of white delustered satin with low cut collar and fitted peplum. Her silk illusion veil fell from a pleated satin crown and she carried white gladioli and lemon leaves.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Marion Ballard, George, Wash., who wore a beige silk sheath, matching hat and chapel veil. Her bouquet was pink gladioli.

Larry Gruber, Silverton, was his brother's best man and Craig Smith and Marion Ballard ushered.

The bride's mother wore an aquamarine lace suit and the bridegroom's mother an embroidered yellow dress. Both had corsages of white gladioli and rosebuds.

Following the rites luncheon was served at North's. The bridal party was seated at a lace-covered table decorated with pink gladioli, white chrysanthemums and tall white tapers. Small tables for the guests, and the parents' table held vases of similar flowers.

The bride's nephew, Danny Ballard, took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Leroy Welch cut the wedding cake, and Miss Bonnie Allingham, Prospect, served punch.

The bride was graduated from the University of Oregon in June, receiving her bachelor degree in finance and economics. Formerly she attended Montana State university for three years where she became a member of Phi Chi Theta, a national business women's fraternity. She is a graduate of the Valler High school.

The bridegroom attended schools in Cincinnati, Ohio, and was graduated in forestry from the University of Montana in 1960. He was a resident assistant, and a member of the Forestry club and Druids.

For going away the bride wore a pink floral sheath dress with matching chiffon coat and white accessories, and a corsage from her bridal bouquet. After a honeymoon spent traveling in Canada, the newlyweds will be at home at 800 South Oakdale avenue in Medford. Mr. Gruber is employed at the Bureau of Land Management.

Here for the wedding in addition to the bride's parents and the bridegroom's parents and their family were Bob Routh, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Welch and Royce Welch, Gold Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Arlan Kohl, Roseburg; Robert Fowler and Charles Morganstein, Missoula, Mont.
