

Mr. and Mrs. James Micheal Henney
(Rough photo)

Gerry Mary Maehren Wed To James Micheal Henney

Central Point—Among August weddings was that of Miss Gerry Mary Maehren and James Micheal Henney. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome A. Maehren, 586 Beall lane, Central Point, and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ebron E. Griffiths, 6198 Table Rock road.

The Rev. John V. Heberling read the double ring rites at eight o'clock the evening of August 14. About 100 guests attended the ceremony, held at Central Church of Christ, Medford.

White and yellow gladioli decorated the altar of the church, and Maynard Hadley sang.

For her wedding the bride chose a ballerina length gown of lace and organza. Her chapel length veil was held in place by a white satin rose and lilies of the valley, and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Diane Maehren attended her sister, and Miss Virginia Rausch lighted the candles. Little Donna Welch was flower girl. All wore dresses similar to the bride's in style. Miss Maehren's gown was fashioned of yellow organza, and she carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli. Miss Rausch also wore yellow organza, and the flower girl's dress was of pale green organza.

Clifford R. Griffiths, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Norman Henney, another brother, and Charles Henney, a cousin, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in the church rooms Mrs. Maehren chose a blue suit dress worn with white accessories. Mrs. Griffiths' frock was a sheath dress in tangerine color, also with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations and gladioli.

Attending the wedding were Mrs. Abbie Robbins, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Bessie Kimbrell and Mrs. Nettie Griffiths, grandmothers of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Ray Chisum and Mrs. Elmer Rausch cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Lyle Daun, a cousin of the bride, poured coffee, and punch was served by Miss Sharon Griffiths, a sister of the bridegroom. Miss Helen Goff gave out the bridegroom's cake, and Tom Henney, brother of the bridegroom passed rice.

Miss Sue Coffman was at the guest book, and Miss Linda Williams and Miss Bonnie France, former classmates of the bride, were in charge of the gift table.

For a wedding trip to Alameda, Calif., and San Diego, where the couple will live, the bride chose an aquamarine colored suit with white accessories. Her corsage was white gladioli.

The bride was graduated from Crater High school in 1962. Mr. Henney also attended Crater High school, and is now an airman apprentice in the United States Navy.

Marriage Announced

Miss Linda Vierkandt, New York City, and Derwin Lee Large, Staten Island, N.Y., were married August 1 in Governor Island, N.Y.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Vierkandt, Iowa Falls, Iowa, and Mr. Large's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Large, 1000 Shafer lane, Medford.

Chaplain A. C. Anderson performed the ceremony in St. Cornelius chapel, Fort Jay, N.Y., at 11 o'clock in the morning.

The bride chose a ballerina length dress of Chantilly lace fashioned with long sleeves and pearls trimming the neckline. Her fingertip length veil was held by a crown of pearls, and she carried a nosegay of white carnations. She was given in marriage by Captain Richard B. Heydt.

Miss Barbara L. Harper, New York, attended the bride. Michael R. Goodson, New York, was best man.

The newlyweds couple will live in Staten Island, New York, where the bridegroom is a recruiter for the United States Army.

The bride attended Iowa Falls, Iowa, school, and the bridegroom attended Medford High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Derwin Lee Large

Travel Group To View Slides Taken In Europe

The Arm Chair Travel group of the Senior Activity center will view colored slides of a vacation trip through Scotland, England and the Swiss Alps taken by Mr. and Mrs. George B. Breece, Rogue Valley Manor, when the club meets Monday, August 27, at 1 p.m.

If time permits, the couple will tell of some of their experiences in the Kentucky hill country where they spent two years after their retirement, teaching in a mission school in the Appalachian mountains. They will also play records of the music of that region.

Monday morning from 10 a.m. till noon, a member of the Senior Craftsman committee will be in the center both to return and to receive craft articles to be placed in the branch shop of the Senior Craftsman of Oregon in the Ashland Art Gallery, 31 Water street. This retail outlet for local craftsmen will remain open through September in Ashland, and a request has been made to keep it until after the holiday season.

The group names are taken from active missionaries from this district.

The groups no longer are called circles to comply with state and international regulations of the church.

Tuesday, August 28, the oil painting class will start working on paintings to show at the Phoenix Garden club fall festival on Sunday, September 9. Mrs. Wanda Williams teaches the class.

Several members of the class have been accepted as members of the Southern Oregon Association of Artists and have won awards in exhibits this summer.

The copper tooling class scheduled for Wednesday mornings at 10 a.m. will convene Wednesday, August 29, if transportation for the teacher, Mrs. Ethel Byers, can be arranged. Those interested may call 772-7933.

The Senior Activity center orchestra met on Thursday, August 23, at the center to reorganize and to decide on a memorial for their late leader, Edward S. Root. John Gribble conducted the meeting, after which the orchestra held a practice period. William Pickell, first violinist, accepted the directorship of the orchestra; Mrs. Maud Arnold will be assistant director and pianist; Mrs. William Bolger, music counselor; Mrs. Pearl Spackman, secretary, and in charge of outside engagements. She may be called at 899-1637. John Gribble is to be treasurer.

A suitable plaque in memory of service given by Mr. Root to the orchestra and to the community was suggested to be hung in the center. This suggestion will be acted upon by the executive board of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging at the next meeting.

The orchestra will continue to practice on Thursday mornings from 10 a.m. to noon until the fall program at the center is started. The first fall public concert is to be at the Phoenix Garden club fall festival. Two violins and a cello which have been given to the orchestra are available for new members who wish to join the group.

Robert H. W. Worrall, Rogue River, is a new member of the orchestra.

Temple Women To Sew Monday

Medford sewing group of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, will meet at 10 a.m. Monday, August 27, at the home of the chairman, Mrs. D. R. Allred, 463 DeBarr avenue.

Portable sewing machines will be needed by the members, and those attending are asked to take a sack lunch.

The group is continuing its project of toys and garments for children in the Shriners hospitals for crippled children.

Cousins Meet After 30 Years

O'Brien—Mr. and Mrs. Norman Plimmons, Indio, Calif., were guests of Mrs. Plimmons' cousin, Mrs. Hubert Peninger at the Peninger home earlier this week. It had been 30 years since the cousins had seen each other. Mr. Plimmons is a mail carrier in Indio. They are now making a tour through Washington.

WANTED

EXPERIENCED
SALES LADY

Coat... Suit and Dress Dept.

PICK'S
APPAREL

112 East Main St.

Auxiliary Begins Annual Project

Ashland—Christmas is coming early for the American Legion auxiliary. On Tuesday members of the unit met at the home of Mrs. Guy Applewhite, 112 Nob Hill street, to begin the annual toy repair.

Stuffed animals and dolls in need of rejuvenation were given attention and in the months to come other toy repair workshops will be held so that there will be enough to fill every stocking when distribution time comes next December.

Assisting in the all-day project were the Mesdames Clarence Mathes, Elden Corthell, Larkin Deer, Lynne O'Toole, Margaret Wolff and E. E. McLaughlin.

Visitor Arrives

Hornbrook—Miss Hope Dasef of Stanton, Mich., arrived Friday by plane in Medford where she was met by her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adams, with whom she plans a two weeks' visit. Miss Dasef last visited in Hornbrook six years ago.

Dickinsons Leave For California; Party Is Given

Hornbrook—Mr. and Mrs. James Dickinson, and children, Shirley, Karen, and Billy left Saturday to make their home in Marysville, Calif. The Dickinsons have lived in Hornbrook about two years, while Mr. Dickinson has been employed in the construction of the Iron Gate dam and power house. He will do similar work in the Marysville area.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson have been active in the Parent's club and other school activities, and in Cub scouts and Little league. He was Cub master and she a den mother, and he was a league coach.

Karen and Shirley Dickinson have sung in the choir of the Methodist church, and have participated in its youth activities.

On Thursday evening, Shirley Dickinson, a sophomore at Yreka High school, was given a farewell party by a group of her young friends. Attending were the Misses Michelle Lamkins, Joan Kutzkey, Jennifer Cummins, and Marsha Farnsworth; Doug Bennett, Steve Farmer, Jerry Copeland, Mike Turnbow, and Loren Howard Cummins. The honored guest was presented a gift by her schoolmates.

Members Honored By Benefit Club

Mrs. Enos Naffziger, Mrs. John Birchfield, and Mrs. Edward McCracken were honored Wednesday at the birthday table of the Security Benefit club. Cakes were baked by Mrs. Eva Wright, Mrs. McCracken, Mrs. Julia Vokac, Mrs. Susie Johnsonburg, and Mrs. Walter Scott.

A social meeting will be held Wednesday, August 29, J. P. Graham is in charge of the program.

Robert Hotchkiss recently returned from a visit to Sacramento.

Security Benefit club meets each Wednesday at the Knights of Pythias hall from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Arriving Monday to visit Mrs. George Coddling, 1015 Queen Anne avenue, will be Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pouth, Henderson, Nev. Mr. and Mrs. Pouth are returning from Seattle.

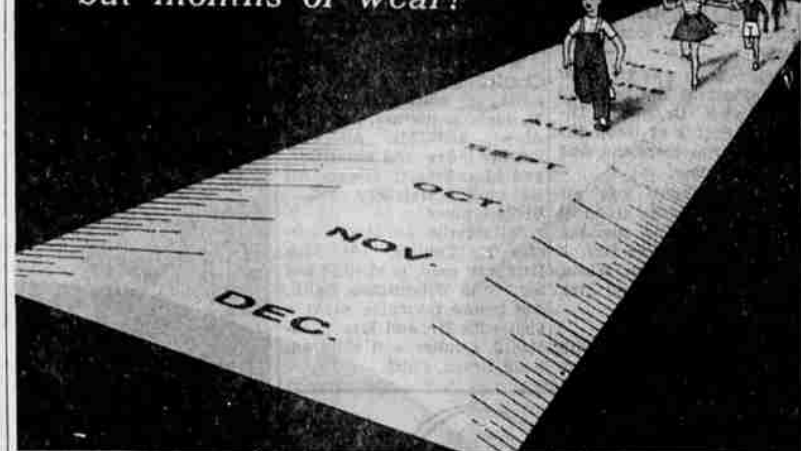

BRUSHED LEATHER

Leather sneakers with posture foundation construction now come in a brushed leather. Fall colors include clove, red, gold and black. All are trimmed with white.

When embarking on a special cleaning project, place a piece of plastic under pails of furniture polish to prevent damage from accidental spills or drippings.

Parents:

the real measurement of children's shoe value is not price per pair—but months of wear!

You actually buy fewer pairs of shoes when you buy Edwards because your children are still wearing them after shoes of poorer quality have been replaced. The extra months of wear Edwards builds into shoes save you money. Quality materials, expert craftsmanship and careful fit also protect your youngsters' feet. Put those feet in Edwards shoes now during these important growth years... and save money, too. You'll find our selection of sizes and styles complete for children of all ages.

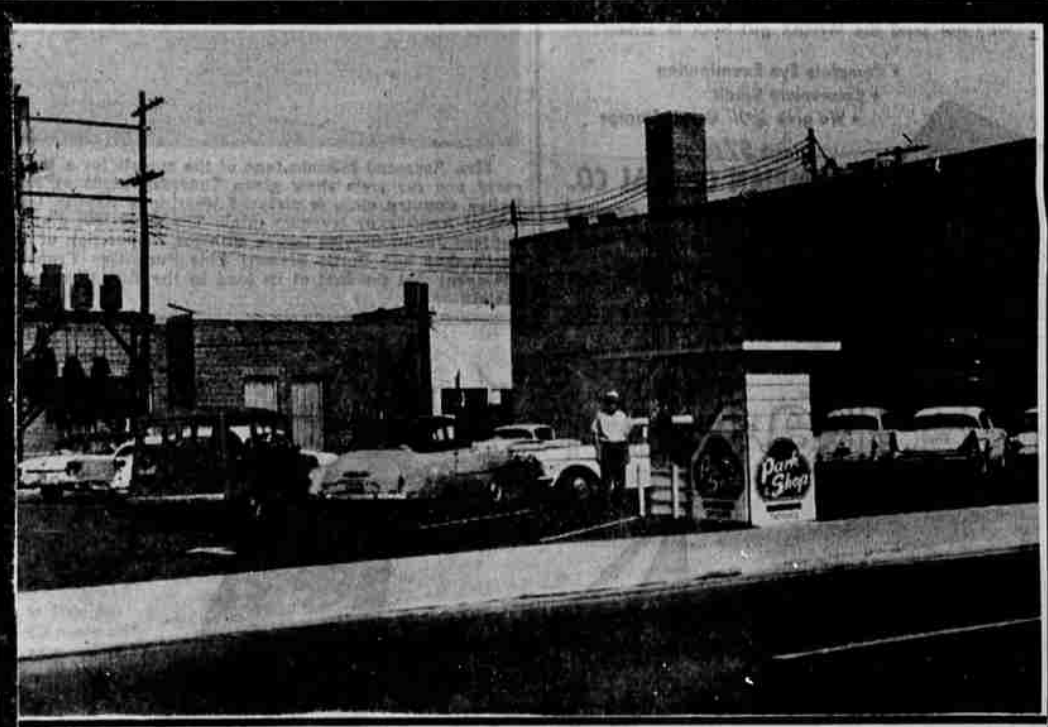

FIT—QUALITY—SERVICE

Johnston & Stewart
JUNIOR BOOT SHOP
211 East Main

Edwards
The Shoe for Children

Open Friday
Nites 7-9 p.m.

Park Shop

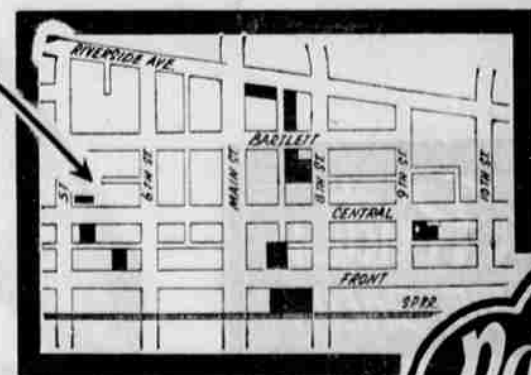

PRESENTING... A DOUBLE DEBUT!

PARK & SHOP'S
NEWEST LOT!

PARK & SHOP'S
NEWEST MEMBER

Strategically located at 5th and Central this spacious 38-car parking lot adds immeasurably to your shopping convenience in the North Central area. Try this lot—you'll like it.

Correlated with this newest parking lot is the newest member in the Park and Shop family—the great J. C. Penney Store at 6th and Central. Both lot and store are there to serve you! Both are among the best!

The management of Park and Shop realizes that lack of easy parking in the growing community of today has serious effects on its economy! Therefore Park and Shop points with pride to this latest parking facility as another important step in the modernization of our city Medford.

9 lots for your car with plenty of space. Just drive on the lot and leave your cars with the attendant.

park & Shop

Park & Shop Provides
FREE PARKING With
Your $2.00 Minimum
Purchase

OPEN ARM PLATFORM ROCKER Re-upholstered

SPECIAL $29.95 Complete

On Approved Credit—
$10 Dn.—$10 Mo. till paid

Includes Material (Fabric
Regularly Retail from $6.00
to $10.00 a yard) and Labor.

PHONE
773-6461

Dale's Upholstery

Dale Mauck,
Owner

1920 Table Rock Road — Across from Big Y Super Market
Medford's Volume Upholstery Fabric Dealer