Never-Really-Worried Yankees Win, End Six-Game Losing Streak

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Great strategist, that Ralph Houk.

"I figured we'd win one sometime," he said knowingly, working a cigar around the corners of his mouth so as to conceal the tongue in his cheek.

The never-really-worried Yankees finally did win one Monday night, thus ending a six-game losing streak as well as some diverse conjecture that they might be going to pot.

"I wasn't as concerned as most people," Houk said, after Ralph Terry won his 19th with a three-hit 5-0 triumph over the Cleveland Indians that increased the Yankees' lead to 3½ games in the American league.

"I realized our pitching was a bit thin when we went into Baltimore," Houk added, referring to the five straight losses at the hands of the Orioles. "But we're squared away now."

Terry, the Yanks' No. 1 "stopper" all season long, took care of that.

Struck Out Nine

The skinny, 26-year-old boyish-looking right-hander struck out nine, didn't walk a man and pitched perfect ball for five innings en route to his third shutout of the season.

The only hits off Terry were singles, one by Bubba Phillips in the sixth, one by Tito Francona in the seventh and an infield safety by Al Luplow in the ninth.

Rookie Sam McDowell suffered his sixth defeat in eight decisions, giving up two runs in the second inning before being kayoed during a three-run rally in the eighth when Mickey Mantle drove in the final run with his fourth hit of the game.

Only two other games were played in the American league, with the Washington Senators beating the Baltimore Orioles, 7-0, and the Boston Red Sox defeating the Detroit Tigers, 7-4.

All National league teams were idle.

Winning Streak Snapped

Tom Cheney snapped the Orioles' five-game winning streak with a four-hitter. The Washington righthander has won only five games this season while losing eight, but three of his victories have been shutouts.

Harry Bright collected three of the Senators' nine hits and drove in two runs. Left hander Billy Hoeft was tagged with his seventh setback compared with four victories.

Lu Clinton's 17th homer of the year and seventh in the last 13 days led the Red Sox to their victory over the Tigers.

Clinton's two-run blast in the sixth inning offset first inning homers by Bill Bruton and Al Kaline. The Boston outfielder also drove in another run with a third inning double off loser Hank Aguirre, whose record is 12-6.

Gene Conley went 6⅓ innings for his 13th victory against 11 losses. Rookie Dick Radatz came to Conley's aid in the seventh when the Tigers scored their last two runs and allowed only one hit the remainder of the way.

Teen-Agers Share 2nd Round Billing

By MARTIN GLEASON

Rochester, N.Y.—(UPI)—Two teen-age graduates of the junior ranks shared the billing with the defending champion and three former titleholders today in the second round of the women's National Amateur golf championship.

The youngsters are two 17-year-old Southerners, Ann Baker of Maryville, Tenn., and Brenda High of Glasgow, Ky.

Miss Baker upset veteran American Curtis cup player Ann Casey Johnstone of Mason City, Iowa, 7 and 5. At about the same time, Miss High scored a 2 and 1 victory over 19-year-old Jean Roberts, the current English Amateur champion and a British Curtis Cup stalwart. Rain fell periodically throughout the day and made the course slow.

Anne Quast Decker, the 24-year-old Marysville, Wash., school teacher, who won this tournament in 1958 and last year, had little trouble beating Helen Reynolds, Mansfield Center, Conn., 8 and 7, in her opening 18-hole match. Today she plays Marjorie Burns, Greensboro, N.C., a 6 and 4 winner over Carla Jean Glasgow, Whittier, Calif.

Joanne Gunderson, of Kirkland, Wash., the 1957 and 1960 Women's Amateur Queen, 1959 winner Barbara McIntire of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Grace Lenczyk Cronin, who wore the crown in 1948, came through as expected.

Blonde, 23-year-old Joanne racked up a 7 and 5 victory over Nancy Gunther, Troy, N.Y.; the 27-year-old Miss McIntire downed Gail Harvey, Willowdale, Ont., 4 and 3, and Mrs. Cronin, from Hartford, Conn., overpowered Judith Ann Taylor, Indianapolis, Ind., 5 and 4.

Althea Gibson, the 34-year-old former tennis star who has been playing golf seriously for three years, defeated Jeanie Butler, Harlingen, Tex., 2 and 1, and faced Mrs. Paul Dye, Jr., Indianapolis, Ind., 6 and 5 winner over Mrs. John B. Whitacre Jr., Wayneburg, Ohio.

In addition to the Decker-Gunderson-McIntire triumvirate, three of the other six Curtis Cup players entered in this match-play tourney were successful Monday. Judy Bell, another Colorado Springs resident, ousted Mary Ann Doctor, Glen Cove, N.Y., 2-up; Phyllis Preuss, Pompano Beach, Fla., stopped young Sherry Taylor, Oklahoma City, Okla., 6 and 5; and experienced Polly Ann Riley, Ft. Worth, Tex., beat Mrs. Maurice Glick, Baltimore, Md., 5 and 3.

Rochester, N.Y.—(UPI)—Sue Jennett of Lake Oswego, Ore., was extended to 19 holes Monday before defeating Mrs. William Warren, Rochester, in the first round of the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf championship.

Another Oregon golfer, Joan Edwards of Portland, lost 1-up to Anne Trainor of Rochester.

Denver Team Dumps League Leader 10-7

By United Press International

Denver dumped league-leading Indianapolis, 10-7, on a seven-run second inning last night with Rocky Nelson hitting two homers and driving in five runs.

Runnerup Omaha edged cellar-dwelling Dallas-Fort Worth, 5-4, and Louisville made 11 hits good for a 5-4 win over Oklahoma City.

Tonight Oklahoma City is at Louisville, Indianapolis at Denver and Dallas-Fort Worth at Omaha.

Holiday Racing Set At Jantzen Beach

Portland – Three big holiday auto racing events have been set for Jantzen arena with two jalopy derbies and the late model stock cars holding their northwest championships for the one quarter mile oval.

On Saturday evening, Sept. 1, a field of over 100 junkers will hold the first big jalopy destruction derby.

Sunday, in a twilight carding, a field of over 20 late model stock cars will race.

Stock cars, featuring 1960 through 1962 models, will battle in the marathon 100 lap feature. An added feature will be a Daredevil stunt show.

Monday, Labor Day, the jalopies will round out the racing events with another 100 car destruction derby.

THOMAS OFF FORM

Uddeballa, Sweden – (UPI) – John Thomas of Boston university is still winning high jump events but at what used to be practice heights for him before Valeri Brumel of Russia. Monday, Thomas won his specialty with a jump of 6 feet, 4½ inches, far under the regular 7-feet jumps he was making two years ago, during a dual meet with Sweden. Paul Drayton of Villanova won both the 100 and 200 meter sprints-in 10.9 and 21.6-over a heavy track.

Portland Crime Increase Noted

Washington – (UPI) – The FBI said today crime in Portland increased in all major classifications during the first half of this year compared to 1961.

Property crimes also showed a slight increase.

The Portland figures reflected a six per cent crime jump for the Western states, compared to four per cent for the Northeastern states, two for the Southern states, and a one per cent decrease for the North Central states.

The FBI said murders in Portland were up from six in the first half of 1961 to 11 for the same period in 1962. Forcible rape increased from 17 to 21; robbery from 211 to 252; and aggravated assault from 80 to 83.

In property crimes, burglary dropped from 1,264 to 1,245; larceny dropped from 1,263 to 1,254; but auto theft increased from 544 to 601.

A DIRTY TRICK

Chicago – (UPI) – A trail of dirt led police Sgt. Edward Nelson from a landscaping project on Sunday to a Northwestern University dormitory room. Two students, confronted with the evidence, confessed to stealing a bush and agreed to pay for the damages.

Little Change in Attack Of Strong Houston Oilers

(This is another in a series on the pre-season prospects of professional football teams for 1962.)

By TRAVIS HUGHS

Houston, Tex. – (UPI) – The Houston Oilers have had a big turnover in head coaches but there has been little change in the devastating attack that won two straight American Football league championships.

Frank (Pop) Ivy is the Oilers' third head coach in as many seasons. He replaces Wally Lemm, who moved into Ivy's vacated post with the St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football league in an unusual man-for-man shift.

Ivy may find it hard to match the record compiled by Lemm, who once was Pop's assistant with the Cardinals. Lemm came out of retirement after the Oilers floundered last season and guided them to 10 consecutive victories and the league championship.

However, Ivy has inherited a wealth of talent.

Veteran quarterback George Blanda and his young understudy, Jacky Lee, teamed to break football's 4000-yard passing barrier last season. They riddled opponents' defenses for 4,545 yards.

Blanda, 34, is starting his 13th pro season. He was the league's player of the year in 1961. He completed 52 per cent of his passes for 3,330 yards and kicked 64 of 65 extra points and 16 field goals, the longest of which was a record 55 yards.

Frazier Has Chance

Charles Frazier may have the best chance of the rookies trying to break into the Oilers' offense. The sprinter from Texas Southern ran on the U.S. 400-meter relay team that set the world record in 1961 at Moscow. He tried out for split end and flanking back and caught an 82-yard scoring pass from Lee in an August exhibition game against the New York Titans.

First-stringers on the other end of the deep passes are split end Bill Groman and flanker Charlie Hennigan. Groman caught a record-tying 17 touchdown passes last year and Henningan gained 1,746 yards receiving, a new high for pro football.

Dividing the duties at right end are Bob McLeod, Willard Dewveall and John White. Halfback Billy Cannon rounds out the pass-receiving offense. He led the league's running backs in receiving, with nine touchdown catches, and in rushing.

Tolar Mans Fullback

Charley Tolar holds down fullback and Dave Smith relieves both Cannon and Tolar. Rookie Sammy Oates, a linebacker candidate, also may be used as a swingman for the running backs.

Al Jamison leads the offensive line that is at its best on pass protection. The insertion of fast rookies Walt Suggs of Mississippi State and John Frongillo of Baylor may help on running plays.

Eight-year pro tackle Ed Husmann runs the defensive line.

Rookie hopefuls here are many and Ivy was still stuffling them as the final cutdown approaches.

Outstanding rookies were Ray Jacobs, the Oilers' No. 1 draft choice from Howard Payne; Ray Pinion of TCU and Tom Goode of Mississippi State. Goode may get a shot at linebacker, a position weakened by serious injuries to regulars Mike Dukes and Doug Cline.

Don Fuell of Mississippi and Bobby Jancik of Lamar Tech seemed the best bet to stick in the defensive backfield. Regulars Tony Banfield, Mark Johnson, Gary Norton and Freddie Glick are back. That quartet tied San Diego for leadership in interceptions last year.

Giants in Pennant Race Again, Recover After 6-6 Road Trip

By HAL WOOD
UPI Sports Writer

San Francisco – (UPI) – The hobbling San Francisco Giants, counted out of the National league race 10 days ago, are right back in there today –ready, able and eager to tangle with all comers.

"We play Milwaukee, Cincinnati and Los Angeles during the next 10 days," said Manager Alvin Dark as he rested at his home after a strenuous 6-6 road trip. "But we are going to take them one at a time.

"Against Milwaukee we'll pitch Juan Marichal, Billy O'Dell and Jack Sanford."

The mound staff looks strong these days, but there are holes in the rest of the lineup. Willie McCovey still is limping; and the return of Jimmy Davenport to third base is a question mark.

"I used Willie for a couple of innings in the Sunday game at Philadelphia," said Dark. "But he's still limping. I don't know.

"And I don't know yet when Davenport will be able to return to third base. We'll have to see."

Willie Mays was given a rest Sunday to see if he can get his batting swing back in the groove. Earlier in the week, second baseman Chuck Hiller was given a rest after running into a series of errors.

"I'm sure the rest will do them both good," said Dark. "They'll both play better starting tomorrow."

Dark had nothing but praise for Orlando Cepeda, his baby-bull first baseman. Orlando was in a slump and Dark fined him two weeks ago for failing to run out a grounder. But in the last six games he has batted an even .500 with 13 hits in 26 trips to the plate, with six homers, three doubles and 11 runs batted in.

"He was phenomenal in that Philadelphia series," said Dark. "He was a one-man wrecking crew. I never saw anything like it. I've never seen one man carry a ball club the way he did."

The catching situation has boiled down to two youngsters, Tom Haller, a left-handed swinger; and John Orsino, who hits right-handed.

"I'll alternate them, depending upon the pitcher," said Dark. "And I'll use Ed Bailey on occasion."

The fine work of the two youths mostly has relegated Bailey to the bench for pinch-hitting duties.

The Giants go into the Milwaukee series trailing Los Angeles by two and one-half games and leading Cincinnati by two.

Meanwhile, ticket business at Candlestick park was booming. The Giants already have drawn 1,240,000 this season.

"We expect about 40,000 to 50,000 for the three-game series with Milwaukee," said ticket manager Pete Hoffman. "And for the week end series with the Reds there'll be another 90,000-95,000."

With an unusual hot wave hitting the Bay area, it is possible that Hoffman is being a bit conservative with his figures.

And the attendance for the Red series, of course, depends a lot on how the Giants do with Milwaukee. The last time they met, the Braves won three out of four.

San Francisco currently is working on a four-game win streak-fashioned against the New York Mets and the Phils, which is a slightly different league.

Trailer License Change Proposed

Salem – (UPI) – Purchasers of used house trailers won't have to pay license fees of previous owners if a bill recommended by the Oregon Motor Vehicles Department is approved.

The recommendation was made to the Legislative Highway Interim Committee.

At present, trailers can be sold and their titles transferred even though not all back fees are paid. New owners must pay up.

The department recommended that title changes be made only after all fees are paid.

Also recommended was a change in the licensing of used car lot dealers. The proposed bill would require that every lot operated under a different name have a seperate license. Now a dealer can get free licenses for supplemental lots after he has one license.

The department asked for legal authority to seek complete driving records of new drivers license applicants who were formerly licensed in other states.

The Traffic Safety Commission recommended that no changes be made in laws relating to minors found with liquor in their cars. Edward Warmoth, safety commission executive secretary, said present legislation is adequate.

CENTURY 21 TRIUMPHS

Detroit – (UPI) – Century 21 Sunday continued its unlimited hydroplane racing mastery by winning the Spirit of Detroit Cup race to take top prize money of $2,900. Singer Jane Morgan Takes Pill Overdose

New York–(UPI)–Singer Jane Morgan was rushed to a hospital early today in serious condition caused by an overdose of sleeping pills.

"I did it, I did it, I took an overdose."

The friend, Dick Horton, told police he was admitted to the apartment by a maid who was unaware of Miss Morgan's condition.

The blonde singer was reported depressed in recent weeks because of her mother's death, police said.
