MANTLE RESPONDS FOR YANKS

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer
Mickey Mantle is flexing his $70,000 muscles so it looks like all's well with the New York Yankees again.

Remember the great debate over whether Mickey could prove himself a leader in the brilliant Yankee tradition of Babe Ruth and Joe Dimaggio? Well, it appears the argument is over along with the chance that the Yankees may have hit a slump that would cost them the American league pennant.

The Yankees, rebounding from a six-game losing streak that put their AL lead in jeopardy, made it two straight victories with a 2-1 win over the Cleveland Indians Tuesday night and once again it was Mantle who showed the way. Mickey, who went 4-for-5 in the Yankees' streak-ending Monday night triumph, accounted for both their runs Tuesday night.

Mantle thus has responded to the Yankees' "time of troubles" with five hits in his last seven at bats, enabling them to retain their 3½-game lead over the challenging Los Angeles Angels and Minnesota Twins. His homer Tuesday night was the 399th of his career and gave Bill Stafford his 11th win of the season in a game cut to 4½ innings by rain.

The Angels whipped the Kansas City Athletics, 10-5, the Twins downed the Chicago White Sox, 2-0, and the Washington Senators scored a 4-0 victory over the Baltimore Orioles in other American league games.

The Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the Cincinnati Reds, 8-1, and retained their 2½-game lead over the San Francisco Giants, who scored a 4-3 victory over the Milwaukee Braves. The Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Chicago Cubs, 7-6, the Houston Colts defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2, and the Philadelphia Phillies took a 10-1 decision after losing to the New York Mets, 2-0, in the first game of their twin-nighter.

Leon Wagner hit his 31st and 32nd homers and Dean Chance went 6 2/3 innings for his 12th win as the Angels kept pace with the Yankees. Lee Thomas, Bob Rodgers and Felix Torres also homered in the 15-hit Angel assault that tagged Moe Drabowsky with the loss.

Jim Kaat scattered nine hits and won his 14th game of the season when Zolo Versalles' fifth-inning single drove in both Minnesota runs. Early Wynn, trying for the 299th victory of his career, suffered his 11th defeat, compared with six wins.

Extended Shutout String
Don Tudipich pitched a six-hitter for the Senators to extend his string of shutout innings to 26. Harry Bright hit a two-run homer and Bob Johnson had three hits and scored two runs to lead the Senators. The loss squared Jack Fisher's season record at 6-6.

Home runs by Tommy Davis and Duke Snider and Johnny Podres' eight-hit pitching gave the Dodgers their victory over the Reds in the opener of a key three-game series. Twenty-game winner Bob Purkey, lapped for seven hits and four runs in four innings, suffered his fifth defeat. Maury Wills stole his 73rd base-seven short of the NL record for one season.

Willie Mays hit his 39th homer and made a brilliant lead-saving catch of an eighth-inning drive by Eddie Mathews to enable Juan Marichal to win his 17th game for the Giants. Juan pitched a sturdy six-hitter—marked only by Del Crandall's three-run seventh-inning homer that cut the Braves' deficit to one run. Marichal and Harvey Kuenn had two hits each for Frisco.

Olivo Won Fifth
Bill Mazeroski's eighth-inning homer gave the Pirates' 42-year-old Diomedes Olivo his fifth win of the season and tagged Don Elston with his eighth loss for the Cubs. Bill Virard also homered for the Pirates while Don Landrum hit a three-run homer for the Cubs.

Roman Mejias' two-run double and Bob Lillis' run-producing single gave the Colts three runs in the fifth inning and paved the way for Bob Bruce to win his eighth game. Carl Warwick homered for the Colts.

Al Jackson pitched a three-hitter for his fourth shutout of the season for the Mets but the Phillies came back with a 13-hit attack behind the six hit pitching of Dennis Bennett to take the night-cap. Billy Klaus led the Phillies' second-game attack with three hits.

U.S. Tennis Tournament Under Way

Forest Hills, N.Y. — Like the athletic branch of the United Nations today for the opening of the U.S. tennis championships with a series of qualifying matches.

An Israeli and the first Russian in history were down for center court appearances and by Saturday approximately 110 foreign players from 30 nations will be in action.

The big names were Rod Laver and Margaret Smith of Australia, top-seeded and strong favorites to grab the two titles, but the field was so jam-packed they won't even lift a racquet until Saturday.

8 Survive In Pro Golf

Lake Oswego — Several former champions and pre-tournament favorites fell by the wayside Tuesday in the first day of the Oregon Professional Golfers Association match play tournament at Oswego Lake Country club.

The survivors at the end of the day were Harvey Hixson, Cottage Grove; Bob Duden, Portland; Glen Spry, Portland; Boots Fortfield, Grants Pass; Marlow Quick, Astoria; Jerry Mowlds, Portland; Buck McKendrick, Lake Oswego, and Jim Peterson, Vancouver, Wash.

Medalist Al Cross of Salem beat Nick Locke, Portland, in 21 holes in the morning round Tuesday, but bowed to Hixson on the 21st in the afternoon. Quick had to go 25 holes to beat Jerry Cloninger of Prineville in the morning, and another 19 to beat Bunny Mason, Portland, in the afternoon.

Former champions beaten Tuesday included Mason, Bob McKendrick, Larry Lambert, Sr., and Harold West.

682 Entered In Kennel Club Show

The 14th annual Dog Show and Obedience Trial of the Southern Oregon Kennel club on Sunday, Sept. 2, has the largest entry of dogs since the beginning of the club.

Entry totals 682 dogs from 21 states and Canada. They will be shown at the senior high school football field. Seventy-three different breeds of dogs will be represented.

Myrtlewood trophies make in Grants Pass by Myrtlecraft Studio will be presented to winners.

Food will be served all day by the Ladies of the Moose. Judging will start at 9:30 a.m.

No wonder the English keep so cool!

(mix Gordon's Gin in a tall, iced drink—and you will, too!)

The English are not easily fazed, even by summer heat. This national talent was given a cheerful accompaniment in 1769, when Alexander Gordon introduced his remarkable gin. The Gordon's you drink today harks back to his original formula, because one does not tamper with gin of such distinctive dryness and flavour. Try it soon in a tangy Gin & Tonic or Tom Collins. You'll see why, summer and winter, Gordon's Gin is the biggest seller in England, America, and indeed—the world!

Distilled London Dry Gin. 100% Neutral Spirits Distilled from Grain. 50 Proof. Gordon's Dry Gin Co. Ltd., London, N.1. Product of U.S.A.
