

Police Patrol Car Involved in Mishap

A Medford city police car was struck in the rear by another car about 1:55 Wednesday, according to police reports.

The car, driven by Officer Donald Marvin Claypool, 26, of 28 North Keeneyway dr., was struck by a vehicle operated by LeRoy Johnston, 49, of 120 Jeanette st., on West Main st. between Columbus ave. and Chestnut st., officers said.

Johnston was cited by police for driving under the influence of intoxicating beverages.

About 11:40 a.m. Tuesday cars driven by Arthur Wayne Klatt, 51, of 204 Medford Heights, and Charles Wesley Koyl, 75, of 1639 Jackson rd., Ashland, collided near Sixth st. and Riverside ave. No injuries were reported, and no citations were issued.

Also investigated by police Tuesday was an accident on Jackson st. between Hawthorne and Genesee sts. Cars operated by Denise Cornelius Armstrong, 18, of 507 Marie st., and Enid Mary Rankin, 72, of 18 Richmond ave., were involved. No citations were given, and neither driver reported injuries.

A Washington man was involved in a collision Tuesday at about 4 p.m. in front of 701 North Central ave. David Gary Steiner, 24, of Spokane, Wash., and Theodore Dean Mathews, 35, of 283 Berrydale ave., were drivers of cars involved in the accident. No citations were issued.

Kansas Professor Visits in Medford

Dr. and Mrs. Henry S. Fitch, and their children, Lawrence, Kansas, have been visiting recently with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fitch, route 4, box 467, Medford.

Dr. Fitch, professor of ecology at the University of Kansas, and a well known herpetologist, Monday presented a paper on the ecology of the common blue racer at Corvallis, where the joint meeting of the American Institute of Biological Sciences and the western division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science is now in session.

RETAINS PARKING SPACE

Washington (UPI) — William T. Heffelfinger, who retired from the Treasury Department this year after 45 years of service, has taken a fringe benefit with him. Heffelfinger, who now works for the American Bankers Association, has been given permission by Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon to continue to use the department's parking lot.
