

1957 Award of Merit Winner

CHURCH NEWS

National Religious Publicity Council

Educator To Speak To Local Teachers

Miss Mary Alice Jones, director of the department of education of children with the Methodist board of education, will be at First Methodist church here Wednesday, September 5.

Miss Jones, an author, will speak at 2:30 p.m. to teachers of all denominations. At 7:45 p.m., she will speak on Methodist curriculum to church school teachers and parents.

The Rev. Gerald C. Nelson, associate pastor, will preach on "We Are Climbing..." at both worship services. The Youth choir will sing "This Is My Father's World" at the early service and Miss Sharon Smith will sing "In All I Do Today" at the 11 a.m. service.

The Senior high Methodist Youth fellowship will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m. The College Age fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m., also at the church, and then go to the Nelson home.

The Youth choir will practice at 7 p.m. Wednesday. The first Chancel choir rehearsal for the fall season will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

The Women's Bible class will hold their monthly meeting on Thursday at 1 p.m. in the library room of the church.

Congregationalists Tell Weekly Plans

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the Congregational church, will return to the pulpit this Sunday. Mr. Tull's Sunday sermon is entitled "Out from under the Curse."

QUEST MISSIONARY—Miss Fairy Chism, missionary and evangelist, will conduct a series of meetings Sept. 2 through Sept. 16 at the Mt. Pitt Avenue Church of the Nazarene. The meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m. every evening except Saturdays. Miss Chism has served in the African field as a missionary.

Question Posed in Sermon for Sunday

The Sunday morning sermon at the Church of Christ, 1701 West Main st., will ask the question, "God Is Able—Is God Willing?" It will be delivered at the 10:45 a.m. service by Lloyd Bridges, pastor.

For the Bible classes for all ages that meet at 9:45 a.m., Sunday marks the final lesson in each class. The Bible school will close for the year. Next Sunday will be promotion day in the school and all students will begin new courses of study.

Evening worship service Sunday will be at 7 p.m. Mr. Bridges will deliver a sermon entitled "Borrowing Bread At Midnight." The Wednesday evening service will be held at 7:30 p.m.

The young people will have their final major activity before the beginning of school when they travel to the coast Monday.

Guest Speaker Set At Trinity Baptist

The Rev. Kenneth Raymond of Trinity Baptist church, Griffin Creek and South Stage rds., will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service on the subject "The Possibility of Perfect Love." Mrs. Loreta Nordquist will sing and Dwight Morrill will play the organ.

At 7:30 p.m. Mr. Raymond will lead a class in theology for laymen. Youth and children's groups will also meet at this time.

At 8:15 p.m. Pastor Bruce O. Rogers will continue a series of studies in the Gospel of Mark "A Solemn Warning from the Lips of Christ" taken from Mark 9:43-50.

'God's Labor Day' Is Title of Sermon

Gold Hill—"God's Labor Day" will be the title of the sermon given by Miss Jean Cunningham, minister of Gold Hill Christian church Sunday at 11 a.m.

Kenneth Curry, member of the high school class, will serve as Bible school superintendent in the absence of Leonard Andrews. Miss Joanne Hilkey will assist with the singing.

Ceremony To Begin New First Baptist Building

Ground breaking ceremonies will be held Sunday at the site of the new First Baptist church, to be located at Crater Lake ave. and Stephens st. Construction of the new building is to begin next week, with Frank Fairweather as contractor. The new building was designed by Edson and Pappas, architects.

Pastor Bernard E. Andrews will speak Sunday on the subject, "Jewels in the Mud" at the 11 a.m. service. The congregation is meeting temporarily in the Wilson school auditorium, Grand and Corona sts. Maynard Hadley will be soloist and a mixed trio will also sing.

A family hour will be held at 6:30 p.m. At 7:30 p.m. Mr. Andrews will speak on "Will a Political Explosion in the Middle East Thrust the Anti-Christ Upon Us?" There will also be a Bible question time when the pastor will answer the question, "How Can I Find the Will of God?"

A family Bible camp will be conducted at the church's Union-Rogue Baptist camp ground near Prospect beginning at 3 p.m. Sunday and closing Monday afternoon.

The Rev. Doug Stave, missionary to India, will be principal speaker for the camp.

The Rev. Jack L. Willcuts will preach his first sermon at the Medford Friends church, corner of Merrin rd. and DeBarre ave., Sunday.

The morning topic will be "There is a Future in the Church," and the evening topic is "Faith for the Future."

Mr. Willcuts and his family moved to Medford this week from Newberg, Ore. He was pastor of the West Chehalis Friends church there for four years.

A graduate of George Fox college in Newberg, Mr. Willcuts has taken graduate work at the College of Puget Sound and the University of Oregon, in journalism and sociology.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

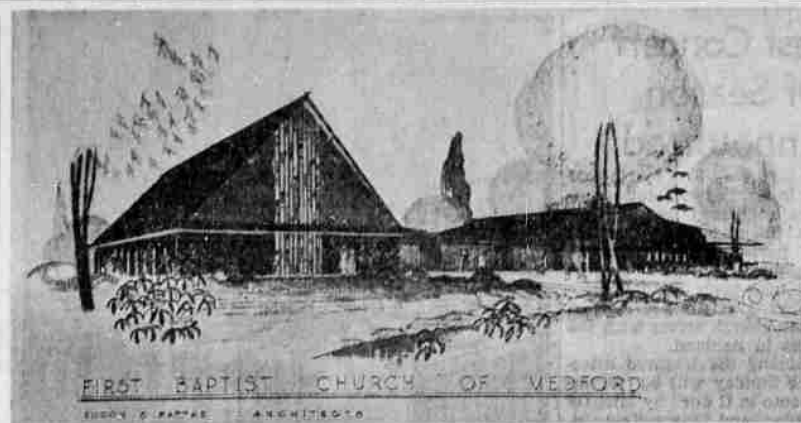

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

NEW BUILDING—Construction is expected to begin next week on the new church building of the First Baptist church, to be located at Crater Lake ave. and Stephens st. The building was designed by Edson and Pappas, architects, and will be built by Frank Fairweather, contractor. The congregation of the church is worshipping temporarily in the auditorium of Wilson school.

Nazarenes Plan Labor Day Picnic

The third annual Sunday school picnic for the First Church of the Nazarene will be held this Labor day beginning at 11 a.m. at Hawthorne park.

The picnic is sponsored by the Sunday school of the church, and the constituency is invited. Lisle Young, Sunday school superintendent, is in charge. The Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the church, will continue his sermon series at the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services. The morning sermon theme is "Expositions from Ephesians" with special reference to the Labor day theme. At 7 p.m. his subject will be, "Aspects of True Holiness." Music for the 11 a.m. service will be a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Perry Christiansen and a solo by Mrs. Rod Newman. At the evening service music will be furnished by Mrs. Fred Cave and Mr. and Mrs. John Finkbeiner.

The first fall Church school worker's conference will be held Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Robert Allen from the Grants Pass Church of the Nazarene is the guest speaker for this conference.

The Rev. Jack L. Willcuts will preach his first sermon at the Medford Friends church, corner of Merrin rd. and DeBarre ave., Sunday.

The morning topic will be "There is a Future in the Church," and the evening topic is "Faith for the Future."

Mr. Willcuts and his family moved to Medford this week from Newberg, Ore. He was pastor of the West Chehalis Friends church there for four years.

A graduate of George Fox college in Newberg, Mr. Willcuts has taken graduate work at the College of Puget Sound and the University of Oregon, in journalism and sociology.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

Pastor Arrives To Serve Local Friends Church

The Rev. Jack L. Willcuts will preach his first sermon at the Medford Friends church, corner of Merrin rd. and DeBarre ave., Sunday.

The morning topic will be "There is a Future in the Church," and the evening topic is "Faith for the Future."

Mr. Willcuts and his family moved to Medford this week from Newberg, Ore. He was pastor of the West Chehalis Friends church there for four years.

A graduate of George Fox college in Newberg, Mr. Willcuts has taken graduate work at the College of Puget Sound and the University of Oregon, in journalism and sociology.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

The Willcuts began two terms of service with the Friends church mission in Bolivia, South America, soon after their marriage in 1945. Their two older children, Stuart, 13, and Susan, 12, were born there. They have another daughter, Janell, 9.

During the period in Bolivia the pastor served as secretary of evangelism, and for two years was chairman of the Bolivian Inter-mission fellowship.

At this time he is editor of the "Northwest Friend," monthly church publication. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Board of Evangelism of the Friends church, and is a member of the executive committee of the Friendsview Manor board, sponsor of a retirement home in Newberg. In addition, he belongs to the Friends church board of Publications of the Northwest.

Student, Speaker To Participate In Local Services

Dr. D. Kirkland West will preach on "Life's Inevitable Choice" at the First Presbyterian church Sunday. Services are at 9:30 and 11 a.m. A quartet of Mrs. Charles Champlin, Miss Diana Hunter, Paul Moore and Lynn Sjolund will sing, "Create in Me a Clean Heart" and Mrs. Charles Champlin and Paul Moore will sing, "Children Pray This Love to Cherish" as a duet. Dick Corum, who has been working at Cameron House, San Francisco, during the summer will take part in the services.

Junior High fellowship will meet at the church Tuesday at 7 and Senior High fellowship will hold its Wednesday meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, 1656 Spring st. Swimming will begin at 4:30 p.m. with dinner at 6. A discussion will be led by the Rev. David Brown at 6:30 p.m.

The Wednesday evening adult Bible study will be led by Dr. West at the church at 7:30 p.m. This will be the first of a series of studies entitled, "God's Word of Help for Today's Problems." This week the discussion will cover the Beatitudes.

Westminster—Dr. Robert Boyd Munger, pastor of the University Presbyterian church, Seattle, Wash., will be the guest speaker at Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service. His subject will be "The Opportunities of the Ordinary." Dr. Munger recently completed a 17-year pastorate at the First Presbyterian church, Berkeley, Calif.

Dr. Munger has led Religious Emphasis week programs at University of Washington; Columbia university, New York; Duquesne university, Iowa; and the University of British Columbia. In 1954 he was invited by the United Church of South India to conduct a special preaching mission for two months, and in 1956 he was invited to Beirut, Lebanon, for a city-wide preaching mission and ministry to seminary students and pastors.

During his pastorate at Berkeley, over 200 young people entered into church-related service.

During the service Miss Julie Gandt will sing. Nursery care for pre-school children will be provided during worship.

Church School classes for all ages will meet at 9:45 a.m. The adult class, led by the pastor, will begin a new study "By the Mercies of God..." from the book of Romans.

The Midweek Study fellowship for adults will meet at the church Wednesday at 8 p.m. to conclude the study of the Book of Acts. The church choir will commence rehearsals for the fall Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood drive between Barnburg and Grove-land avenues.

Ashland—The Rev. Paul E. Otte will begin his duties as minister of the First Congregational church in Ashland Sunday. He comes from St. Paul's United church, Waldorf, Minn.

Mr. Otte is a graduate of Morningside college, Sioux City, Iowa, and of Eden Theological Seminary, Webster Groves, Mo. He has served churches in Iowa, North Dakota and Minnesota, and until accepting the Ashland pastorate was youth leader for Fairbault county, Minn., council of churches. Mrs. Otte is a registered nurse, and the couple have a daughter, Denise, 5, and a son, David, Paul.

Mr. Otte succeeds the Rev. Edward F. Wolfekuehler, who resigned in June to return to service as an Army chaplain.

SUBJECT GIVEN—The Rev. William Wash will deliver the message entitled "One Thing Many Lives Lack," at the morning service of Church of the Brethren Sunday. Mrs. Wash will tell the children's story, "Someone On The Outlook." The Brethren Girls' Trio will sing. Members of the trio are Mary Music, Terry Birman and Barbara Ristity.

Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave., will meet Sunday for Bible study at 9:45 a.m. The worship hour at 11 a.m. will include the weekly observance of the Lord's Supper. John V. Heberlein, minister, will speak on the theme "Rest for the People of God."

At the 7:30 p.m. evening service there will be three short talks. Mrs. Hester Culbertson will share some of the inspiration of the recent "Women's Watch" at Cottage Grove, Carl Hoyer and John Bigham will each speak on a major thought from the Cottage Grove "Men's Meet." Both these Cottage Grove gatherings were held in late August.

Sunday school and church services are being held every Sunday at 9:45 and 11 a.m. with Pastor Arthur Drews in charge until a pastor has been assigned.

Watchtower Topic Is Told by Witnesses

A public talk will be given at 4 p.m. Sunday at Kingdom hall, 2402 Jacksonville highway, for the Jehovah's Witnesses.

This will be followed by a discussion from the Watchtower magazine on "The Deceptive Power of Wealth." The theme for the meeting scheduled for Friday will be "Speak the Pure Language," taken from Zephaniah 3:9.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main

Subject, "Christ Jesus"

Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.

You Are Always Welcome

Listen to "The Bible Speaks To You"

Station K-SHA • SUNDAYS—9:00 A.M.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main

Subject, "Christ Jesus"

Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.

You Are Always Welcome

Listen to "The Bible Speaks To You"

Station K-SHA • SUNDAYS—9:00 A.M.

MEDFORD CHURCH DIRECTORY

"O give thanks to the God of heaven, for his steadfast love endures for ever." Psalm 136:26.

ADVENT CHRISTIAN CHURCH
West Jackson and Welch sts., near Holly st.
Fred O. Sapp Jr., minister
Sunday
9:45 a.m.—Sunday school
11 a.m.—Worship service
11:30 a.m.—Junior church
6:30 p.m.—Doctrinal class
7:30 p.m.—Song service
Wednesday
7:30 p.m.—Prayer meeting

APOSTOLIC FAITH CHURCH
North Central ave. at Third st.
Loyce C. Carver, pastor
Sunday
9:45 a.m.—Sunday school
11 a.m.—Morning worship
11:30 a.m.—Family hour
7:30 p.m.—Evangelistic service
Tuesday and Friday
8 p.m.—Evangelistic services

ASCENSION LUTHERAN CHURCH
2501 Barnett rd.
Vernon Hanson, pastor
Sunday
9:45 a.m.—Worship service
11 a.m.—Worship service
7:30 p.m.—Worship service

BETHEL ASSEMBLY OF GOD
1225 E. McAndrews rd.
L. D. Krause, pastor
Sunday
9:45 a.m.—Sunday school
11 a.m.—Worship service
11:30 a.m.—Worship service
7:30 p.m.—Bible and prayer hour