

Davies Subdues Robinson in SO Golf Championships; Schroeder, Schmidt Triumph in First Round

One defending champion triumphed by an overwhelming margin, another slipped by his foe in extra holes and a third was pushed out of titular contention yesterday in the first round matches of the Southern Oregon Golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club.

Stew Schroeder, the 1961 victor in the men's division, playing one-under par, thumped Jim Crow 7 and 6 in a tangle between home course players. Carl Schmidt, Medford, who nabbed the senior men's mantle last year, required three extra greens to advance to quarterfinals. He nicked Marvin Clark, Grants Pass, the 1957 and 1958 winner, on the 21st.

Mrs. Helen Davies, Medford, pulled off the surprise of the day. The seven times women's champ, who has not held the crown since 1953, tripped the 1961 title taker, Miss June Robinson. Score was 2 and 1. This was termed a scrambling match with neither lady playing well. Mrs. Davies was reported around seven over par and Miss Robinson, Oregon coast champ, nine.

Medalists moved ahead in both the men's and ladies' titular brackets. They faltered in the senior play.

Don Krieger, Columbia-Edgewater, and DeRoss Kinrade, Cottage Grove, men's low qualifiers with 71s, defeated a pair of Laurelwood, Eugene divoters, Tim Berg and Fred Wilhelm, respectively. Counts were 2 and 1 in each tilt.

Mrs. Shirley Mitchell, Chico, Calif., ladies medalist, stroked about five over par. But, it was sufficient for the 1960 SO champion to turn back Mrs. S. A. Fetters, Medford, 5 and 4.

George Parsons, Seattle, and Karl Bennett, Grants Pass, who took the diadem in 1959, were the medalist heaters in the senior scuffles. Parsons subdued Ray Isaacs, Columbia-Edgewater, 1 up. Bennett won from fellow townman, Jess Bradley, Grants Pass. This official score was not reported. Larry Butler, Medford, who gained the senior toga in 1960, advanced yesterday with a 2 and 1 verdict over Bayard Getchell, also Medford.

Past Champs Victors

All champions of past years in the men's top flight were victorious in their Thursday bouts. Bob Atkinson, Portland, three times state and Southern Oregon winner, defeated Rodney Harpster, Arcadia, Calif. 4 and 3, with one above par play. Eddie Simmons, who has taken the Rogue Valley tourney diadem six times and the state mantle once, downed Duane Roisen, Illabe, Salem, 3 and 1. Simmons was three over par and once held a 4 up lead.

Dom Provost Jr., Ashland, a home course representative who won the tourney in 1954, whipped William Cairns, Bellevue, Wash., 7 and 6. But for one double bogey Provost would have been three under par.

Krieger, a former Oregon champ, was reported around six over par yesterday. His putts were not dropping. Schroeder dropped in three birds. He hit 11 of the greens on the 12 holes he played.

Even After 15

In the Davies-Robinson match the two were even after 15 holes. Helen had been 2 up at the turn. Miss Robinson missed the green on 16 and Mrs. Davies took the hole with a par for 1 up. On 17 June missed a one-foot putt which would have given her a par while the Medford player parred with a four-footer.

Three men's championship flight encounters went extra holes. Dodd Fisher, Eugene, tripped James Ellington, Lodi, Calif., in 20. Nineteen holes were Ed Kovacovich, Eugene, Calif., over Jerry Anderson, Medford, and Bob Smith, Fort Ord, Calif., over Jim Buccello, Napa, Calif. Anderson three down after 15 holes, took the next three to tie Kovacovich, who is a perennial contender in this Labor day holiday links classic. Kovacovich hit up for a short birdie putt to nab the extra hole.

Among the highlight shots of the day was an 85-foot birdie putt on No. 6 by Roy Morgan, Royal Oaks, Vancouver, Wash. He won 4 and 3 from Lee Flink, formerly of Medford and new club champ at Reames course at Klamath Falls.

Among the home club players who took opening tangles were Craig Miller, Harvey

In the men's championship second round today Schroeder ran into Richard L. Hunt, Eugene. Krieger met Tom Shaw, Columbia-Edgewater and star for University of Oregon last spring. Shaw beat Dennis McManus, Eureka, Calif. 6 and 5, with one below par play. Kinrade opposed Atkinson today. Simmons' foe was Grant Lawton, Portland, who played even par in a 4 and 3 win over Bruce Cadwell, Seattle. Provost encountered Jack Volstedt, Billings, Mont. Volstedt nipped Alan Holmes, one of the top Medford linkers, 1 up in one of the hottest matches yesterday. He was two under par and Holmes one under.

Players in the women's and senior men's title flights did not contend today. They engage in Saturday quarterfinals. Among the ladies it will be Mrs. Mitchell versus Mrs. Shirley Teutsch, Medford; Miss Pam Stacey, Medford, against Miss Pat Dwyer, Waverley, Portland; Mrs. Davies against Mrs. Arletta Templeton, Medford, and Mrs. Corrine Miller, Medford, opposing Mrs. Glen Scharback, Oswego.

Senior quarters will have Parsons taking on Dr. Frederick Tucker, Seattle; Karl Bennett playing Ben Hampton, Sonoma, Calif.; Schmidt facing Charles Bennett, Monrovia, Calif., and Butler going against Andy Hoyly, Red Bluff, Calif.

Finals in the tournament will be on Monday Sept. 3, Labor day. Semifinals in championship flights of all three divisions will be on Sunday. Men's title and first flights have afternoon semis after morning quarterfinals.

Tournament galleries are open to the public free of charge.

SD Charger Offense Has Long Way To Travel To Catch Up With Defense

(This is the 12th in a series on the pre-season prospects of professional football teams for 1962.)

By RAYMOND C. MEANS

San Diego, Calif. (UPI)—If the San Diego Chargers could build up their spotty offense to the high standards of their defense, they would have little difficulty winning their third consecutive Western division title in the American Football League.

That, however, is a big "if." The Chargers' defense has been rated tops in the AFL and the offense has a long way to go in order to catch up with it.

It didn't help coach Sid Gillman's plans any, either, when halfback Paul Lowe, the league's fourth leading ground-gainer last season, broke his arm. Lowe should be out for eight weeks and Gillman must find a speedy to replace him in the starting backfield.

The defensive forward wall of Ron Nery, Earl Hudson, Ernie Ladd and Earl Faison is the biggest in football, and barring injury, should be better than last year. Ladd and Faison now have a year's experience.

Defensive Backfield Strong

The defensive backfield is another strong point. The club set a professional football record for pass interceptions last year, and everyone had a hand in the achievement. Although safetyman Bob Zeman was traded to Denver, head coach Sid Gillman considers his replacement, Keith Lincoln, the best all-around player on the team.

Gillman feels the linebacking corps of Chuck Allen in the middle flanked by Emil Karas and either of two rookies, Bob Mittinger of Penn State or Frank Bumcon of Southern California, ranks with the best in the league. Punter Paul Maguire is a capable reserve.

Much of the offensive weakness is attributed to the line, which has been reinforced by rookie Dick Hudson of Memphis State at tackle and rookie Wayne Frazier of Auburn battling Don Rogers for the starting center berth. Ron Mix has been shifted to guard, and Gillman feels the former All-League tackle is the club's offensive leader.

Loaded With Receivers

The Chargers are loaded with pass receivers. Rookies Lance Alworth of Arkansas and Jerry Robinson of Grambling have speed and complicit the good hands and moves of experienced Don Norton and Dave Kocourek. Reg Carolan, a six-foot-six, high jumper from Idaho University adds depth.

Gillman had high hopes for Rookie halfback Bert Coan of Kansas as a possible starter. But Coan suffered a broken leg in the spring of 1961 and has seen little contact work since. He is the only other halfback on the roster and will get first call.

If Coan fails, the sensation of the camp, Jacques MacKinnon, a converted lineman, probably will be transferred from fullback.

MacKinnon has been the Chargers' leading ground-gainer in exhibitions and showed his speed on a 97-yard scoring pass-run play against Denver.

If MacKinnon moves to half, rookie Bob Jackson of New Mexico State will get a shot at the fullback job. Veteran Jack Kemp is COMEBACK HOPES—Hopes of Mrs. Helen Davies, above, for a comeback in the Southern Oregon golf tournament rose yesterday when she edged Miss June Robinson, Albany, the defending champion, 2 and 1 in the opening round of the women's championship flight at Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. Davies, Medford, seven times Southern Oregon champ, won her last title here in 1953. Since then she has been in the finals twice and in the semifinals on two occasions. She has been in the quarterfinals three times. Last year she lost her homeing round match and went on to win the first flight.

Newspaper Advertising Hits the Mark with a Large and Constant Audience

There's nothing hit-or-miss about the newspaper audience—it's a constant audience that varies little throughout the year. That's because newspaper circulation remains constant with little variation from month to month. There is no summer slump in newspaper reading habits. Furthermore, readers can pick their own time—day or night—to enjoy the paper. And they do—over 107,000,000 of them every day in the U. S. For sure-fire results, advertise consistently in the daily newspaper.
