

Late Senator's Widow, Governor Defeated in New Hampshire Voting

By United Press International
The defeat of a veteran governor and a senator's widow have marked primaries in nine states, the last big batch of preliminaries to the November elections.
Tuesday's primaries were highlighted by New Hampshire, where Republican Gov. Wesley Powell failed in his bid for an unprecedented third term. Powell lost to John Pillsbury, majority leader of the state legislature.
Also in New Hampshire, Rep. Perkins Bass won by a thousand votes in the GOP primary for senator over Mrs. Doloris Bridges, widow of Sen. Styles Bridges.
Other primaries were held in Vermont, Arizona, Colorado, Minnesota, Rhode Island, Utah, Washington and Wisconsin. The results:
Vermont: Political novice W. Robert Johnson upset former Rep. William H. Meyer for the Democratic nomination to face Sen. George D. Aiken in the November senatorial election.
Arizona: Carl Hayden, the Senate's senior Democrat, won re-election handily. In November, he will run against State Sen. Evan Mecham, who beat Stephen Shadegg by 10,000 votes. Shadegg was Sen. Barry Goldwater's campaign manager.
Colorado: John A. Love, making his first political fort, defeated veteran politician David Hamill in the GOP gubernatorial primary. William B. Chenoweth, 41, son of GOP Rep. J. Edgar Chenoweth, won a Republican nomination for Congress. His father was unopposed.

Minnesota: Rep. H. Carl Andersen, looking for his 12th term, lost in his GOP primary battle against car dealer Robert J. Odegard. Andersen's stock deal with Billie Sol Estes cost him the party's endorsement. Lt. Gov. Karl Rolvaag won the Democratic nomination for governor. He will face incumbent Gov. Elmer L. Anderson. Rep. Walter H. Judd (R-Minn.) easily defeated his opponent in the GOP congressional primary.
Rhode Island: Democratic Gov. John A. Notte came from behind to win re-election over Woonsocket Mayor Kevin K. Coleman.
Utah: Sen. Wallace Bennett won the GOP renomination easily over Salt Lake City Mayor J. Bracken Lee. Rep. David King ran away with the Democratic nomination to face Bennett.
Washington: Sen. Warren G. Magnuson had no trouble winning the Democratic renomination over bearded eccentric John Patric. He will run against Lutheran Minister Richard G. Christensen in November.
Wisconsin: Alexander

Lane County Gets Grant for Rural Juvenile Study

Washington—UPI—The government today authorized the first federal grant to a rural area to help solve basic social ills that threaten farm youths with "the double dangers of unemployment and delinquency."
Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Anthony J. Celebrezze announced award of a $129,579 grant from the President's Committee on Juvenile Delinquency to support a coordinated program in Lane County, Oregon.
"Much attention has been given to delinquency in large cities," Celebrezze said. "But we know too little about the causes of rural delinquency or what can be done to meet them."
Celebrezze said rural delinquency was a growing problem and that cases nearly doubled between 1955 and 1959.
The funds will be used by the Lane County Youth Study Board which will develop a county-wide approach with coordinated programs in such fields as education, employment, recreation, law enforcement and social services.
The Rev. Wesley G. Nicholson, president of the group, said the first phase of the program was designed to gather information on the extent of delinquency in rural and small city areas of the county.
The county has a population of about 160,000 distributed over 4,573 square miles, an area about the size of the state of Connecticut.

Growth Issues Feature Firm Stock Market

New York—UPI—Growth stocks, electronics and finance shares today featured a firm stock market.
Xerox and Polaroid, two recent favorites, added about 1 apiece. Among the electronics, Beckman and IBM rose 2 or more followed by Schullumberger, up about 1 1/2. In the strong finance section, First Charter and United Financial added at least 1 apiece.
Parmer Transportation rose roughly a point in an otherwise narrowly mixed auto group. Chemicals were irregularly higher and Continental slipped nearly 1 in an erratic steel sector.
Oils were narrowly mixed but some utilities, oils and aircrafts moved higher. A few

Southern Negroes Declared Arming; Leader Fears 'Retaliatory Violence'

Atlanta—UPI—Negro leader Martin Luther King Jr. warned President Kennedy Tuesday night that many Negroes are arming themselves and may turn to "retaliatory violence" unless the federal government acts to stop a "reign of terror" in the South.
"I will continue to urge my people to be nonviolent in the face of opposition, but I feel my counsel will fall on deaf ears if the federal government does not take decisive action," King said in a telegram to the President.
The Baptist minister who heads the integrationist Southern Christian Leadership Conference said he was "gravely disturbed by the rash of inhuman developments across the South."

He referred to the wounding of two Negro girls active in Negro voter registration at Ruleville, Miss., Monday night, the burning of three Negro churches in Lee and Terrell Counties, Ga., and the "armed attack on Negro homes" in Leesburg and Leslie, Ga. King said these acts are "evidence of a pattern of un-American resistance to the Negro's efforts to register and vote."

Senate-House Conferees Near Agreement on Key Part of Farm Bill
Washington—UPI—A Senate-House conference committee was near agreement today on a compromise that would salvage a key part of President Kennedy's farm bill.
The proposal being revived would establish a permanent new program for controlling wheat, beginning in 1964. Under the new program, wheat surplus would be marketed by growers at a lower price for livestock feed.
Kennedy's program was killed by the House earlier this year. Republican farm leaders vowed an all-out fight.

Negro Judge Gets Senate Approval

Washington—UPI—The Senate Tuesday approved, 54-16, the judgeship nomination of Negro leader Thurgood Marshall, 54.
The Senate had to wait almost a year to confirm the nomination of the former general counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.
Marshall has been serving under a recess appointment to the 2nd Circuit Court of Appeals in New York.
Sens. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.), Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.), Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.) and John C. Stennis (D-Miss.) made a vain attempt to block Senate floor action.
Eastland and Thurmond denounced Marshall for his former membership in the National Lawyers Guild and the International Juridical Association, both cited as Communist fronts.
Marshall's supporters charged he was the victim of racial discrimination and had been "subjected to all the harassment and humiliation which prejudice and pettiness can inflict."

MISSING—John Barnes, an Englishman working for Newsweek Magazine, is one of four foreign correspondents listed as "missing" after leaving Havana to visit near-by North Coast Soviet encampments. Barnes, along with another Britisher and two Cubans, left Havana during the past week end and has not been heard from since. In the past such "disappearances" have meant arrest and detention by Cuban intelligence agents. (UPI)

Probe of Soblen Case Demanded

London—UPI—Several British newspapers and members of Parliament today demanded a thorough investigation, by Parliament, if necessary, into the handling of the case of fugitive spy Dr. Robert A. Soblen, 61.
The Lithuanian-born psychiatrist died in a London hospital Tuesday, possibly without knowing that his brother and fellow espionage agent, Jack Soblen, had been released from a U. S. federal prison 11 days before.
Soblen, the chief government witness at Soblen's trial, was let out of the Federal Correctional Institute at Danbury, Conn., Aug. 31 after serving five years of a seven-year term for conspiring to steal defense secrets for Russia.
The Justice Department made the disclosure in Washington Tuesday night when newsmen asked about him following Soblen's death here.
There was no indication whether anyone had told Soblen about his brother in the seven days between the release and the time Soblen took a massive overdose of barbiturates last Thursday.
Soblen had been sentenced to life imprisonment for his part in the spy conspiracy and it was his desperate attempts to escape this that led to his death.
