Tea Honors Recent Bride

Mrs. William Thomas Hamlin, the former Carol Jean Lindbloom of Roseburg, was honored at a tea given Thursday afternoon by her husband's mother, Mrs. Warren Hamlin, and Mrs. E. A. Littrell at the Littrell home on Greenway circle. The Hamlin-Lindbloom marriage ceremony took place in mid-August in Roseburg, and the newlyweds have been living in Medford.

About October 10 Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin will leave for Newport, R. I., where he will report to Officer Candidate school of the United States Navy.

The honored guest's mother came down from Roseburg for the tea. Pouring were Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, Mrs. Warren Olson, Mrs. Jack Walker and Mrs. Joe Hearin. The tea table was centered with an arrangement of pink petunias in a silver container.

About 85 guests attended the event.

Candlelight Ceremony Marries Medford Couple

A candlelight ceremony was held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon when Hazel E. Graten, 1411 Euclid avenue, became the bride of Allyn Adair Monroe, 344 North Central avenue. The bride is a daughter of Clarence M. Dunham, Oakland, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. F. Adair Monroe, New Orleans, La., are the bridegroom's parents.

The ceremony was held in Meeker Memorial chapel of the First Methodist church here on Saturday, September 8. The Rev. Robert Maxson, pastor of Hope Presbyterian church in Rogue River, read the double ring rites before 100 guests.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums with bronze accents decorated the chapel. Miss Jan Boardman was at the organ.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her son, Fred D. Graten. She wore an eggshell colored brocade sheath gown with overdress of bronze beige hat of ostrich feather tips held a short veil, and she wore a gold cross and earrings, gifts of the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and bronze-throated cymbidium orchids on a white Bible.

Daughter Is Attendant

Mrs. Donald Lowell Camp attended her mother. Her frock was of blue brocade with matching accessories, and she carried a bouquet of yellow spider chrysanthemums.

C. H. Barrell was best man, and Allen C. Hooker and Mr. Camp, the bride's son-in-law, seated the guests.

Following the wedding a champagne reception was held for the bridal party and close friends and family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Neeley, 111 Portland avenue. The party then attended a wedding supper at Mon Desir.

Miss Bonnie Goehring, Westlake, Ore., was in charge of the guest book, and Miss Christa Baker and Miss Ganene Tracey prepared and distributed satin-trimmed rice bags.

The wedding cake was prepared by Mrs. Robert Duff, the bride's sister, and Mrs. Donna Harvey, Portland, and brought from that city.

Sunday, September 2, Mr. and Mrs. Camp were hosts for a rehearsal dinner at their home, 813 Broad street.

For the wedding trip to California, the bride wore an eggshell colored two-piece sheath ensemble, with matching accessories. The newlyweds are living at 1411 Euclid avenue.

The bride attended Lincoln High school and St. Helen's Hall Junior college in Portland, and is employed by Foster's Pharmacy. Mr. Monroe attended Woodbury Forrest school in Orange, Va., and Boeing School of Aeronautics in Oakland, Calif. He is manager and chief pilot of Valley Aviation, Inc.

Out of town guests included Miss Maxine Harvey and Mrs. Ruby Dixon, Portland.
