Court Plans Two Events This Week

Two events are on calendar this week for members of Roxy Ann court, Order of Amaranth, according to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mayfield, royal matron and patron.

The court will hold a stated meeting Thursday, September 20, with the Mayfields presiding. The meeting is to be followed by a dance, with Mrs. Jessie Staggs in charge. With the assistance of an instructor from the Arthur Murray dance studios, Mrs. Staggs will give demonstrations and instructions in the latest dances.

Saturday, September 22, is Friendship night for Roxy Ann court and the evening will begin with a no-host dinner at the Masonic temple at 6:30 o'clock. Opening of court will be conducted by honorary members of Roxy Ann coming from all parts of the state. Among the guests expected are Mrs. William Aplanalp, Portland, grand royal matron, and Gerald Laurens, also Portland, grand royal patron, of Oregon. After the meeting refreshments will be served in an atmosphere of hula skirts and swaying palms. Mrs. Raymond Reter is decorations chairman.

A reception in Portland September 8 honoring Mr. Laurens was attended by the Mayfields and their daughter Marsha. They report that the supreme royal patron, Otis Truex, made a surprise visit to this meeting and opened a supreme council session to install six Oregon members as supreme officers.

Another meeting attended by local members was the official visit of the grand royal matron and patron to Friendship court in Klamath Falls September 15. Those attending from Medford were Mrs. Lawrence Messal, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jacques and Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield.

Chapter Honors Newlywed Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Allyn A. Monroe were honored at the last meeting of the Medford chapter, Oregon Pilot's association. Mrs. Monroe is the former Hazel Graten, and the couple's wedding was a recent event.

Members of the association presented the newlyweds a gift, and a decorated wedding cake was served.

Present were C. H. Barrell, Austin King, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford, George Lovenborg, Forrest Bigger, Earl Knight, Jay McCann, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Burrill, Don Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Deford, who planned the party. The Defords are president and secretary-treasurer of the chapter.

Californians Visit Ashland

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Short, Santa Cruz, Calif., have been guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndel W. Newberry, Valley View, having accompanied Mrs. Newberry and her son Ron back to Ashland after their visit. The Shorts formerly owned the East Side Pharmacy and were residents of Ashland for many years.

The interesting Fagan sisters, members of a well-known Portland family, left for Portland shortly after the luncheon and show closed. Miss Jean Fagan is chief anesthetist for a Portland hospital, Miss Mary Fagan is known for her work as a Washington lawyer and the third sister is Jane Allen, fashion editor and art critic for the Portland Oregonian. Also at the Monday were Mrs. Paul Haviland, Mrs. Vincent Nicoletti, Mrs. Lowry and Mrs. R. R. Parsons. (Knackstedt photo)

Shower Honors Miss McKillop; Wedding Held

Prospect—A bridal shower honoring Miss Sally McKillop was given September 13 at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKillop. Hostesses were Miss Suzanne Rogers and Miss Jill Hedegren.

The wedding of Miss McKillop to Larry Parrish, Lebanon, Ore., was held at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Prospect September 15.

Attending the party were the guest of honor, Mrs. L. O. Rogers, Mrs. C. G. Hedegren, Mrs. Robert Kalkin, Mrs. Lee Williams, Miss Marilyn Valentine, Miss Celeste Burrill, Miss Mary Ann Hubbard, Mrs. George Hubbard, Miss Kathie Snyder, all of Prospect; Mrs. Lester Namitz, sister of the bride from Lebanon; Mrs. Steven Parrish, Medford, a cousin of the bride; Mrs. Everett Shafer, an aunt, and Mrs. Alice Conger, the bride's grandmother.

Mrs. Namitz and her small daughter, Tracy Gay, remained in Prospect to attend the wedding.

James Lattie Visits Parents

James E. Lattie left Saturday for his home in Portland after a two-week vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Lattie, Phoenix road.

While here he made a trip to San Francisco and also drove with his aunt, Miss Frances Lattie of Washington, D.C., to Crater Lake, Klamath Falls, and the Oregon coast. Miss Lattie has been a houseguest of the Melvin Latties for several weeks.

Guest

Mrs. Helen Everett, Arcata, Calif., was a week end guest at the home of her cousin, Mrs. H. B. Strang, and Mr. Strang, 2802 Oakridge avenue. Mrs. Everett is head librarian at the Arcata Public library.

Quarter-Million Spent Annually on Fancy Food

By JEANNE LEBEM
New York—Americans spend more than a quarter-billion dollars a year for fancy foods and confections, says a trade magazine survey.

We buy everything from old-fashioned hard candies to Irish whiskey chocolate.

Bottled bacon bits are fine crumbled crisp bacon, suitable for salads or anything else that calls for bacon flavor. A growing taste for curry is reflected in soup, rice and relish products. Canned Senegalese soup is a cream of chicken blend with curry powder. Rice mixes include curry, herb, Spanish and Creole flavors. New onion-orange relish is packed in curry sauce. Another orange relish is flavored with burgundy wine.

Other new soups—dehydrated watercress and cheddar, and soup base paste in chicken and beef flavors. The paste, in 1-pound jars, can be stored without refrigeration after opening, said the manufacturer.

South African delicacies include dried banana fingers, without added sugar. Each is about the size of a ball-point pen.

A new gift package contains 14 basic ingredients for a Chinese dinner, including such hard-to-find items as powdered five spices, black bean spice and bean thread—often called cellophane noodles because that's what it looks like.

Two-inch-square cups molded of dark chocolate are designed to hold ice cream. Cordial cups, about one-inch in diameter, also are made of dark chocolate. Hickory, onion and garlic seasonings are available in unbreakable spray-top jars; tenderizer is packaged the same way.

New spreads include liver with bacon, beef with anchovy, veal with ham, sardine with anchovy, anchovy with olive and kippers snack. Sugar-free bottled tonic concentrate added to club soda gives the flavor of quinine water for gin and tonic.

A new muffin mix combines five grains—rye, rice, oats, whole wheat and corn meal. New canned fruits include kumquats in light syrup and tropical mixed nuts—pineapple, papaya and bananas.

New English cheese crackers are paper-thin rounds with the texture of fine pastry. The cheddar crackers come plain or with caraway seeds.

Medford Traveler Returns After Tour of Europe

Miss Rosanne Legas returned to Medford earlier this month after spending the summer abroad. Miss Legas is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Legas, 220 North Barneburg road.

Miss Legas reports that one of her most interesting experiences was being in Kandersteg, Switzerland, on August 1, celebrated as the nation's "birthday." Instead of closing, banks, stores and postoffice remain open, but all stores used a special wrap for purchases in recognition of the national holiday, she said.

In the evening a program was given at the railroad station, there were fireworks and the celebration ended with a candlelight parade through the town. The parade was led by a band, she states, and among those marching were city officials in robes, children and adults in costumes. In some cities, there is night-long street dancing.

Tour Musical Is Scheduled At University

Eugene—The University theatre's 1962-63 season will open at the University of Oregon September 28 with "Little Mary Sunshine," the musical scheduled to go on a USO tour of the Orient next month.

The musical, a satire on old-fashioned musicals, is set in the old west. The plot deals with the trials of Mary Sunshine, proprietress of the "Colorado Inn" and her fascinating friends and guests: an opera singer; retired general; naughty maid; Kadota Indian friends; and the lovely young ladies from the East Chester Finishing school.

The book, music and lyrics of "Little Mary Sunshine" were written by Rick Besoyan. The musical opened in New York in the fall of 1959 and had a successful three year run. Special permission was granted the University theatre to take this show on the tour of the Pacific Command Area.

Tickets will be on sale at the University theatre box office beginning September 24. Box office hours are 1 to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday. For this production no priority seating will be offered.

"Little Mary Sunshine" will continue September 29 and October 3, 4, 5 and 6. The 17 cast members plus Director Horace Robinson will leave October 12 on the seven week tour.

The touring group will visit Japan, Okinawa, the Philippines, Guam, Korea and Hawaii. A member of the cast is Miss Mikell Thurston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Thurston, 1641 Ridgeway drive, Medford.

At Linfield

Miss Karen Mocabee, daughter of Mrs. Audrey Mocabee, 856 Murphy road, has left for Linfield college, McMinnville, where she will be a sophomore student. Miss Mocabee, who is majoring in teacher education, attended Southern Oregon college last year and also attended the summer session there.

but in Kandersteg, the dances were held in hotels.

The town is a mecca for hikers from all over the world, and it is a favorite with Boy Scouts.

Miss Legas also was in Evolene, which is reached over a narrow, twisting road, and in Lucerne, considered one of the most picturesque of Swiss cities.

At Hiking Center

The traveler was in St. Anton, Austria, a hiking center in summer and a famous ski resort in the winter, and in Salzburg, noted for its historical association with the composer, Mozart. Miss Legas noted that a most every square in this large city has a statue of the composer.

The traveler reported that she was fortunate to be in Paris on Bastille day, July 14, the celebration marking the start of the French revolution. The day was marked with the traditional large military parade, and street dancing continued all night. She also visited Roc-Ama-dour, a small town in the southwestern part of France built into the side of a cliff and boasting of a castle lighted at night, on top the cliff.

Miss Legas also visited Lascaux where he famous caves with ancient primitive paintings are to be seen.

The Medford resident spent considerable time in Germany, traveling to Berchtesgaden where Hitler's "tea house" known as the Eagle's Nest, is located. Here are also located the famous salt mines.

Shady Cove Group Slates Meeting

Shady Cove—A meeting for members of Bethel 56, International Order of Job's Daughters, will be held Thursday, September 20 at 7:30 p.m. All persons of proper Masonic relationship are invited.

At the first fall meeting of the Bethel held recently reports of summer activities were given. Included were a grand session at Coos Bay, a picnic, a boating and camping trip and two rummage sales.

The meeting was held in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall when the honored queen, Miss Marcia Ackerman, presided.

Plans for initiation and inspection were made for the first meeting in October.

She also visited Rothenburg and Schomberg, living for two weeks in the latter city with a German family.

Visit Amsterdam

Miss Legas and her group also spent some time in Amsterdam, known for its many canals, for being the home of Rembrandt and for the fact that everyone rides bicycles. The travelers were told that Amsterdam boasts of one bicycle for every two persons.

While in Edinburgh, Scotland, Miss Legas saw Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip arrive for a stay at Holyroodhouse place, and attended a

A program of dances was given, with each section of the country being represented. Miss Legas reports that she also enjoyed Clovelly, a small fishing village where no cars or bicycles are allowed.

Returning home, the traveler noted that there was already a coating of snow on sections of Greenland which had been green on the trip over. She was met by her family at Vancouver, B.C., airport, and states that now she is doubly enjoying Oregon fruit, milk and hamburgers.
