Stocks Drift Lower With Du Pont Gaining Around 2

New York - (UPI) - Stocks drifted a bit lower today. Among the blue chips Du Pont gained around 2 as chemicals held firm. Motors were static and international oils and steels a bit easier along with the metal sector in which International Nickel gave up a point.

American Telephone was active and up a fraction on its plans for a $250 million debt offering.

High priced glamor issues shuffled around nervously after developing losses of 1 to 5 points.

Lodge Will Be Republican Foe In November

Boston - (UPI) - Ted Kennedy predicted confidently today he would move into the Senate seat his brother vacated to become president of the United States. His Republican opponent in November will be George Cabot Lodge.

The election battle will be a renewal of a feud between two political dynasties that has stretched over almost five decades.

The youngest member of the Kennedy clan, taking his first plunge into national politics at the age of 30, set in motion a tidal wave of votes that swamped Edward J. McCormack, his opponent for the Democratic senatorial nomination. The tide was running so strongly against McCormack that he conceded defeat Tuesday night when returns were in from only one-fifth of the state's 1,988 precincts. The crusher came when Teddy carried Eddie's own home ward in Boston.

A few moments later Kennedy, in a voice that sounds remarkably like that of the President of the United States, paid a neat tribute to McCormack and then predicted: "We will carry the battle forward to victory in November."

Lodge, son of Henry Cabot Lodge, defeated Congressman Laurence Curtis for the Republican senatorial nomination.

Complete returns gave Kennedy, 556,208; McCormack, 246,542; Lodge, 226,414; Curtis, 184,181.

The Kennedys and the Lodges have been tangling at the polls since 1916. Lodge's great-grandfather defeated Ted's grandfather, John F. Fitzgerald, for the Senate. President Kennedy defeated Lodge's father, Henry Cabot Lodge, for the U.S. Senate in 1952. The President won another victory over the same Lodge, who ran for vice president on the Republican ticket in 1960.

The issue of youth and inexperience also is dead. Lodge is 35 years old and his experience consists of being an assistant secretary of labor in the Eisenhower administration. Kennedy's experience consists of being an assistant district attorney of Suffolk County, Mass. Both of them are over six feet tall with movie star profiles, and many women in Massachusetts are going to have cardiac flutters when faced with the cruel decision between them in November.

Lodge had an uphill road to victory. He fell behind Curtis early in the evening, then went 100 votes ahead and around midnight began to pull steadily in front.

Morse Assured Trade Bill Not To Hurt Lumber Efforts

Washington - (UPI) - Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) was assured Tuesday that President Kennedy's trade bill would not significantly affect the U.S. lumber industry's efforts to gain relief from Canadian competition.

Morse gained the assurance on the Senate floor during questioning of Senate Finance Committee Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.).

Byrd agreed it "would be unfair to change the rules significantly" while the lumber industry's appeal to the U.S. Tariff Commission is pending.

Morse said representatives of the West Coast lumber industry have asked the Tariff Commission for relief from the "disastrous" impact of increasing imports of Canadian softwood lumber.

Byrd assured him that the trade bill would make no changes in present law regarding the economic factors to be considered by the Tariff Commission in determining the extent to which the U.S. lumber industry was being hurt by Canadian exports.

Morse said the Tariff Commission had asked lumber companies to supply needed economic information by Sept. 28.

Spokesmen for the hard-pressed West Coast lumber industry have long complained that they cannot compete with British Columbia producers in the marketing of lumber on U.S. East Coast markets.

Vancouver, B.C. - (UPI) - Members of the International Woodworkers of America on both sides of the border were urged Tuesday to fight against the proposed reduction of Canadian lumber sales to the United States.

The call came from Jack Moore, president of the Western Canada region of the IWA at the opening of four days of union talks.

Moore told 200 delegates, "We can't afford to sit on our fannies while powerful interlocking lumber corporations rig the market to get higher prices and bigger profits at the expense of our jobs."

He said British Columbia lumber workers would be the main victims if the United States curbed lumber imports from Canada.

Moore said IWA members in the United States should back the Canadian union. He said curbs against Canada would weaken the union and cut employment in Canada while failing to increase jobs in the United States. He said increasing mechanization in the Pacific Northwest rules out any chance that more production would mean more jobs.

Moore said talks on quotas against Canadian lumber were being supported in Washington, D.C., by a powerful U.S. lumber lobby.

"Since the United States is our best customer," he added, "we well know what will happen to our jobs if lumber exports are cut back."

Local Lawyers To Attend Meeting

Several lawyers from this area plan to be in Coos Bay-North Bend-Coquille area Wednesday for the 28th annual meeting of the Oregon State Bar.

Guest speakers will be James R. Browning, judge of the United States court of appeals for the ninth circuit, and Felix F. Stumpf, administrator, continuing education of the bar for California.

William M. Dale Jr., Portland, vice president of the group, will preside for the first business meeting with G. W. Kellington, Medford, acting as his parliamentarian.

Friday's meetings are under the leadership of Edward N. Fadel, Eugene, and Glenn R. Jack, Oregon City, with John R. Dellenback, Medford, and Clarence A. Barton, Coquille, parliamentarians.

The annual golf tournament will be held in the Coos Country club in Coos Bay. Activities for wives include a fashion show Thursday and bridge Friday, and an open house Saturday on one of the ships in harbor. A beach breakfast Sunday morning will conclude the session.

Woman Who Bore Stigmata Dies

Waldassen, Germany - (UPI) - Therese Neumann, 64, who was said to bear the stigmata of Christ each year on Good Friday, died Tuesday.

It was during Holy Week 36 years ago that blood first oozed from wounds in the palms, feet, forehead and side of Miss Neumann, the Roman Catholic daughter of a poor Bavarian tailor.

Every year since then, the wounds reappeared. Thousands of pilgrims filing past her bedside reported they saw the frail woman lying in a trance with blood coming from the wounds and occasionally from her eyes.

While the church never has taken a formal position on her mysterious wounds, a Vatican source said in 1956 that her case was being examined "benevolently."

FEW GERMANS SAID SEEKING DIVORCE
Wiesbaden, Germany - (UPI) - The West German federal statistics office said today German couples married 35 years seldom seek divorce.

The office said 15 per cent of German couples were wed 35 years ago. Only seven-tenths of one per cent of them—statistically speaking—are seeking divorce, the office explained.

UNEMPLOYED COAL MINERS BECOMING MAILMEN
Tokyo - (UPI) - Coal-miners are being turned into mailmen in Japan.

The postal service ministry announced that 44 unemployed miners are now delivering letters and 60 more are scheduled to become postmen shortly.

More than 70,000 miners have been dismissed since 1959 and many more are likely to be idled because of the continuing slump in the coal industry, officials said.

MASTER AUTO KEYS MISSING IN LONDON
London - (UPI) - London police have lost the master keys that open and start almost every car in the British Isles, they reported today.

Officers placed the 651 keys and their metal box on a curb while they dealt with a parked car blocking traffic in the Soho district Monday night. When they looked again the box was gone.

"They would be a gift from heaven to a professional car thief," a detective said.
