Grange News
Eagle Point Grange
Final plans have been completed for the ham dinner to be served at the Eagle Point Grange hall Sunday, Sept. 23. HEC Chairman Mrs. Ida Kent, announced.

She also reported that the next HEC meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Laura McFall Wednesday, Sept. 26, instead of at Mrs. Gertrude Stanley's as originally planned. The report was made at a recent meeting of the Eagle Point Grange.

Agricultural Chairman Ed Kunkel reported that livestock prices were still holding good at the local auction yards, he said there were 14 per cent more cattle in feed lots in Oregon this year than there were last year. There will be a feeder sale Oct. 10 at the Phoenix Auction.

A needy family with 13 children was reported to the relief chairman, Goldie Chamberlain. There is a need for food and clothing for the boys in the family, and anyone who would like to contribute either of the articles should contact Mrs. Chamberlain.

Robert Bitterling reported on the Jackson county booth at the State Fair, which is sponsored by the Pomona Grange. He said in the land products division, at least 30 first prizes were won by local participants.

A report on the Jackson County Death Benefit Plan was made. The plan is now ready to accept membership and any Grange member who is interested should contact one of the directors or secretary of the plan.

Election of officers will be held the second regular meeting of the Eagle Point Grange in October rather than the first meeting in November.

Phoenix Grange
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sipka received the first and second degree obligation at the recent meeting of Phoenix Grange. The degrees were conferred by Roscoe Roberts, a visiting guest from Roxy Ann Grange.

An insurance report was made later by Roberts. He is overseer of Oregon State Grange.

Charles Hockersmith reported on agricultural interests and said that the alfalfa seed crop is poor this season. He stated that the Bartlett pear harvest is almost completed and that local cattle prices are still good.

Mrs. Hockersmith reported for the Home Economics club. Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mr. and Mrs. Olin Poe and Mrs. Jesse Sanders.

The idea for our modern Mother's day observance originated in 1907 when Miss Anna Jarvis conducted a memorial service for her mother in Grafton, W. Va.

School Consolidation Election Said Valid

The Dalles - (UPI) - Circuit Judge Malcolm Wilkinson has ruled that an election approving consolidation of the Chenoweth, Rowena and Mosier school districts was valid.

The districts are west of The Dalles. The election was held last May 7.

Judge Wilkinson ruled against seven taxpayers who claimed the election should be declared void because of irregularities in procedure. A new high school is planned in the Chenoweth area.
