

Long Count Rule Established for Ring Title Bout

Chicago (UPI)—Chairman Joseph Triner of the Illinois state athletic commission announced a "long count" today for the Floyd Patterson-Sonny Liston heavyweight title fight Tuesday night.

And that tricky count could be the cause of a hassle reminiscent of the historic Gene Tunney-Jack Dempsey "long-count" controversy, which exploded in Chicago 35 years ago Saturday night-Sept. 22, 1927.

Triner's announcement dealt with what happens if either champion Patterson or challenger Liston is belted out of the ring and off the ring-apron into the press seats.

The fact that the ousted fighter must climb back into the ring within 20 seconds or be counted out is not exactly new. But the following commission edict is brand new.

If the ousted boxer climbs back into the ring before the count reaches 18, he must take a mandatory count on his feet until the count does reach 18.

"We're going to be in for a terrific game to open up the stadium, win, lose or draw," declared Head Coach Fred Spiegelberg of the Medford High school football Black Tornado.

He spoke of tonight's activity here at the senior high school stadium. The Black Tornado takes on its non-league arch rival the Marshfield high Pirates of Coos Bay. This will be the home opener of 1962 for the Medford team. This big prestige skirmish will be preceded by dedication ceremonies for the magnificent 4,000-seat west side grandstand valued at $100,000. Brief ceremonies presenting the stand to the high school and then to the school district are set for 8 p.m.

"We're in good shape," said Spiegelberg of his Tornado team. "We're ready. We're up for them. The boys are anxious. Just wish us luck."

Hard Hitting
 Medford will encounter a hard hitting, powerful running Buccaneer team which in its opener last week featured the running of Doyle Gamble and Bud Walsh and the passing of Butch Smith and John Briggs and the catching of Pete Tully and Jim Girt.

Medford will have the quarterbacking and throwing of Dan Miles and Mike Neathamer, the running of Jack Lowery, Mike Barnes, Frank Van Pelt and others. And Lloyd Hammons and Gibb Mitchell could be on the receiving end of aerial tries.

Medford, which has beaten Marshfield on every outing since 1957, will try for its seventh straight victory over the Pirates from the coast. The Tornado also will aim for its 20th win in 32 games with the Coos Bay school. While Medford has taken 19 of the 31 past contests, Marshfield has nabbed 10. Two games have been tied.

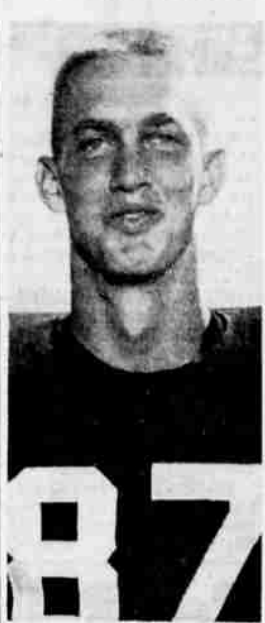

Medford nosed the Bucs by 13 to 7 last fall. Tonight's encounter brings together two of Oregon's top rated A-1 preps. And, Marshfield is the favorite, going by the polls. The Bucs have been rated No. 2 and tied for No. 1. Voting has put Medford, victor at The Dalles last week, at No. 3 and No. 5.

 Dick Fishback in his Coos Bay World "Flashbacks column said, "... the Marshfield-Medford clash shapes up as a hard-nosed, power football struggle." He added a sentence the Tornado could take for a warning: "Don't forget that improved Pirate passing attack, though."
 Student cheering sections tonight, for the first time at Medford high games, will be in the east side grandstand built in 1947.

Grade school youngsters will sit in a section at the north end of the old stand. Next to them will be an area for junior high boys and girls. Then there is the Medford high school section. South of it will be space for the visiting students. A general admission section is on the extreme south end of the old stand.

General admission sections are at each end of the new grandstand.

McLoughlin Bills Trip To Klamath

McLoughlin Junior High school Bulldogs open their ninth grade football season on Saturday with a journey to Klamath Falls.

The hassle is set for 1:30 p.m. Head Coach Bob Radcliff reported his Bulldogs small in size this season with the line running 130 to 135 pounds. He said that practice has been slow at times with spiriting seeming to be picking up in the last few days.

Both offensive and defensive phases, naturally for the first game have been getting attention. Offensively the Mac gang has worked on timing and team unit functioning.

Battling

Bruins Face Redmond

Ashland - Ashland high's Grizzlies engage the Redmond football team here tonight and Coach Marsh Jones feels that, "if the kids get in and knock people down, they have a chance."

However, the Bruins may have their hands full. Redmond, which tied Parkrose 6 to 6 last week is figured to be a better team than Shasta high of Redding, Calif., which whipped Ashland 42 to 7.

Jones after the one-sided game at Redding has put his club through heavy drills this week. The Grizzlies have worked much on defense. Missed tackling assignments along with missed blocks proved damaging to Ashlanders in California.

Redmond is said to have good speed and to hit hard. They have the advantage in experience and in backfield weight over the Bruins. Weights are about even in the line.

 MEDFORD, OREGON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1962

OSU Duels Iowa State

Portland—(UPI)—An individual duel between Oregon State's Terry Baker and Iowa State's Dave Hoppman shaped up today as the two schools prepared to meet for the first time on the football field.

A crowd of possibly 30,000 was expected for the Saturday night 8 p.m. (PDT) game in Multnomah Stadium.

Harris Upsets Links Favorite

Pinehurst, N.C. (UPI)—Swift-swinging lumberman Billy Joe Patton squared off against a youngster just half his age in the semifinals of the U.S. Amateur.

The wiry veteran collided with bespectacled Labron Harris Jr., 20-year-old son of a Stillwater, Okla. pro. Harris pulled the biggest quarterfinal upset with a 2 and 1 win over Homero Blancas, the swarthy Mexican from Houston, Tex.

The other match pits Charley Coody, 25-year-old Air Force lieutenant from Fort Worth, Tex., against Downing Gray, 24, of Pensacola, Fla.

WINS PLAYOFF

Denver (UPI)—Chi Chi Olivo hurled Louisville to the American Association playoff title last night with a 1-0 victory over Denver. The Colonels will now go against the International League winner in the Junior World series.

BEES JOIN CLUB
 Salt Lake City (UPI)—The Pacific Coast league have broken off their farm club tie with the Cleveland Indians and have joined the Chicago Cubs system.

ROOKIE OF YEAR
 New York (UPI)—Bob Bailey, a 19-year-old third baseman who received a reported $175,000 bonus to sign with Pittsburgh, has been named the 1962 "Rookie of the Year" in the International league.
