

Youth To Review Summer Activities

Dedication of the church school teachers for the coming year will be held at both morning services at the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

Dr. D. Kirkland West will use as his sermon topic "The Goal of the Teachers and Parents" and Mrs. D. G. MacDougall, soprano, will sing the prayer by St. Francis of Assisi, "Eternal Life." The chancel choir will sing for both the 9:30 and the 11 a.m. services.

At Senior High Fellowship Sunday at 7 p.m. Miss Ruth Milligan will show slides of the work project she took part in in San Francisco this summer. Fireside will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris, 707 South Oakdale ave.

The Senior High Fellowship will meet Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. for Bible Study followed by a potluck dinner and choir practice.

Junior High Fellowship meets each Tuesday after school for study and recreation. Dinner is served at 6 p.m. followed by fellowship in the upstairs chapel.

All parents of children attending the First Presbyterian Church school are asked to attend the re-registration and curriculum preview to be held at the church Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Sept. 25 and 26 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. They may attend either night. Plans for the new permanent and temporary roll will be explained by the Rev. David Brown, minister of Christian education. A curriculum preview will follow in each department.

HARLEY F. BAILEY
Bible Meditation Official

Guest Speaker Is Listed In Talent

Talent - Harley F. Bailey, Oregon representative of the Bible Meditation league, will be the speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. service at Talent Friends church.

The league is an agency that prints and distributes gospel literature to missionaries in 111 countries and in 100 languages.

He will speak at the Ashland Free Methodist church during the Sunday school hour.

Roland S. Hartley, who has been assistant pastor of the Talent church for the past five years, is moving to Seattle where he will attend the University of Seattle for the next two years. While there he will serve as assistant in Christian education to Paul Gains of the Memorial Friends church.

Methodists List Soloists, Music, Sunday Topics

Dr. George Roseberry, minister, will preach on "The Church Ministry" at both services Sunday at First Methodist church.

Soloist for the 8:30 a.m. worship service will be Miss Linda Johnson, singing "Love-ly Appear." The youth choir will sing "The Christian Battle." J. C. Kaylor will sing "The Lord's Prayer" at the 11 a.m. service and the chancel choir will sing "O Re-joice, Ye Christians Loudly."

September is Loyalty month throughout Methodism.

There will be no meeting of the Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship as they are on a week end retreat at Indian Springs camp. The Senior High MYF and College Age Fellowships will meet at the church Sunday at 6:30 p.m. The College Age Fellowship will have a snack supper and council meeting in the Youth center Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.

The first of six church membership classes will start Sunday at 9:30 a.m. Anyone interested in joining First Methodist church is invited to attend. Mrs. Anne Gorby will conduct the first one on church history.

Saturday, Sept. 29, at 7:30 p.m. there will be a reception in the church parlors in honor of all new members who will join the church Sunday, Sept. 30. The congregation and any new members who have joined in the last few months are also invited to attend this reception.

P. SIDNEY NELSON
Assumes Duties

Associate Pastor Appointed in Area

A new associate district pastor has been appointed for the Rogue River Valley by the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

P. Sidney Nelson, 2345 Stearns Way, Medford, recently arrived from Andrews university, Berrien Springs, Mich., where he completed his graduate work, to assume his new duties. Pastor Nelson is a graduate of Walla Walla college, College Place, Wash. His wife, Holly, also is a graduate of Walla Walla college. They have one son, Paul Sidney, three months.

Pastor Nelson taught high school in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, before entering the gospel ministry. His father, Dr. Philip S. Nelson, is a medical missionary in New Delhi, India. He was physician in the Giffard Memorial hospital, Muzir, India, before going to New Delhi to build a new hospital.

Pastor Nelson spent his boyhood near Seattle, Wash.

First Baptists Announce Events

Services at the First Baptist church Sunday will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Bernard E. Andrews. The church is meeting temporarily at the Wilson school, Grand and Corona aves.

Mr. Andrews' subject at the 11 a.m. service will be "Prayer Problems." Mrs. Albert Grand will be soloist. A ladies' trio will also sing for the service. It includes Mrs. Clarence Wagner, Miss Linda Scott and Miss Virginia Gandy.

Sunday is Family day for the Sunday School meeting at 9:40 a.m. Several family groups will provide music for the opening worship period. The goal is to have as many complete families as possible in Sunday school.

A set of color slides of the church's mission work on the continent of Africa will be shown at the 7:30 p.m. service. Mr. Andrews will speak on the subject, "Should a Christian Ever Go to the Fortune Teller?"

Cottage prayer meetings are being held in the members' homes this month on Monday evenings as a part of the month's emphasis on prayer.

Tuesday evening the Men's Fellowship of the church will meet at the Don Minear residence, 1996 Griffin Creek rd. for their monthly potluck supper and program. Monroe McGonagle is chairman.

The Sunday school teachers and officers of the church will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Doyle Franklin, 401 King st., to plan for the Sunday school fall program.

Mr. Andrews will attend a pastor's seminary, beginning Monday, at the Western Baptist Theological seminary, Portland. The Seminar is an annual affair conducted for the 150 pastors of Conservative Baptist churches in Oregon and provides specialized studies in current theological subjects.

'Parables For Life' To Be Sunday Tonic

"Parables For Life" will be the 11 a.m. message by the Rev. Fred O. Sapp Jr., pastor of the First Advent Christian church, Sunday at 11:30 a.m. The children will go to their Junior church chapel for their own service. They will be led by Miss Carol Clark and Mrs. Howard Watkins.

Sunday school classes will report on their progress in the Chapter A Day club.

Sunday at 6:30 p.m. a discussion period will be held, covering the questions which arise from the reading of the Bible during the week in the Chapter A Day club. A song service will follow at 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday prayer meeting and bible study will be held at the parsonage at 7:30 p.m. The 17th chapter of Ezekiel will be studied.

Klomhauses To Leave For Nigeria; Commissioning Set

Dr. A. P. Klomhaus, Rogue River, a member of St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., Medford, will be formally commissioned as medical missionary in charge of the Lutheran Mission hospital, Eket, Nigeria, West Africa, in the 11 a.m. service Sunday.

The Rev. John E. Simon, pastor of the church, will read the rite of commissioning. The Rev. Carl F. Nitz, executive secretary of stewardship and Christian education of the Northwest district of the Lutheran church - Missouri Synod, will preach the sermon.

Acting as the liturgist will be the Rev. Rollin Schaleger, Veneta, Ore., son-in-law of Dr. Klomhaus. Also participating and representing the Lutheran Medical Mission association will be Dr. Leonard Ritzmann, Portland, chief cardiologist at the Veterans Administration hospital.

Dr. Klomhaus, a graduate of the University of Illinois Medical school, practiced in Aurora, Ill., from 1932 to 1948. In 1948 Dr. and Mrs. Klomhaus and their two children moved to Rogue River, living on the Evans Creek rd. The children are Gretchen, a registered nurse, and Gilbert, a student of theology at Concordia seminary, Springfield, Ill., who, with his wife, Donna, is spending the present school year as an intern at Pilgrim Lutheran church, Wausau, Wis.

In 1957 Dr. and Mrs. Klomhaus left for New Guinea, where they were active in the medical mission work among the natives.

After returning from New Guinea in 1960, Dr. and Mrs. Klomhaus were active in publicizing the work done by the Lutheran missionaries in the remote mountain areas. They have given 338 lectures throughout the Northwest.

The couple will leave for Nigeria via Chicago and London on Oct. 28. In Nigeria they will join a number of fellow Oregonians, including doctors and nurses, who have in the past volunteered for mission work. So many Oregonians have served the Lutheran church in this African country that the road to the Eket hospital has been nicknamed "The Oregon Trail."

Present among the worshippers at the commissioning service Sunday will be Dr. Klomhaus' mother and sister, Mrs. Fred Klomhaus and Miss Ella Klomhaus, Plainfield, Ill.; Mrs. Schaleger and daughter, Veneta; Dr. Dorothy Ritzmann and three daughters, Portland; Ed E. Iruen, native Nigerian and student at Concordia college, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brandon and family, Salem, who plan to leave soon for New Guinea, where Brandon will serve as the business manager of the mission where the Klomhauses served.

The public is invited to attend the service and the coffee hour, honoring the Dr. and Mrs. Klomhaus after the service. The 8:15 a.m. service at St. Peter's will be held as usual with Pastor Simon in charge.

Brethren Activities Are Announced

The Rev. William Wash, minister of the Brethren Church of the Brethren, 345 Mary st., will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship hour on "Christian Joy." The choir will sing.

Mrs. Wash will tell the story "Opportunity To Do Good" for the children.

The booster class of the church will hold a farewell party for the Felix Sessler family. The Sesslers have lived in the Medford area for a year and are from Indonesia. They will leave the valley this week end. The party will be at the Floyd Evernden home.

The Rev. R. Robert Crawford, Portland, overseer of the Apostolic Faith organization, will speak at the local church at 8 o'clock tonight. Mrs. Crawford is with him, as also are the Rev. and Mrs. Audrey Wallace. Mr. Wallace was assistant minister of the Medford church in 1949 and Mrs. Wallace was organist. She is now organist at the Apostolic Faith tabernacle, Portland.

BETHEL ASSEMBLY - "The Indwelling Power of Pentecost" is the sermon subject at Bethel Assembly of God's 11 a.m. worship service Sunday. The church is located at 1225 East Andrews rd. The subject of the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic service is to be "Jesus Christ, Mighty To Save." The pastor, the Rev. L. D. Krause will speak at both services.

DR. AND MRS. A. P. KLOMHAUS
Couple To Leave Area Oct. 28

1957 Award of Merit Winner

National Religious Publicity Council

Two Missionaries To Talk At Community Church

Butte Falls - Two missionaries, both under the auspices of the Oriental Missionary society, will speak this week end at Reese Creek Community church, one mile east of Crater Lake highway on Butte Falls rd.

The missionaries are the Rev. Joe Rogers, who recently returned from Latin America, and is now serving as Northwest Regional secretary, and the Rev. and Mrs. Wesley L. Wildermuth, who have been teaching in Tokyo.

They will speak and illustrate their talks with colored slides of the fields in which they have been teaching.

The meetings will be held Saturday, Sept. 22, at 7 p.m. and Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services. Following the Saturday service a get-together time will be held. A potluck dinner will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. at which time both Japanese and Spanish foods will be served. Mr. Wildermuth will prepare a sukiyaki dinner. It was announced.

Eastwood Baptists Schedule Events

Sunday at the morning service at Eastwood Baptist church, corner of Keene Way and Ridgeway dr. Pastor Clifford Young will share the formula for a successful Christian life as he speaks on, "Starting the New Life," based on II Peter 3:18. The chancel choir will sing, "Trust in the Lord."

Sunday is Rally and Promotion day at the Sunday school, according to Superintendent Dean Anderson. There will be a program in the sanctuary for all who attend the Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. The day has been designated as "Break All Records" Sunday, and the church school is expected to set a new attendance record.

At 6:30 p.m. the Junior-Junior High Baptist Youth fellowship will launch its fall program with the Dale Maucks and the Mel Rennicks as sponsors. The Senior High BYF will also meet at this hour with Stuart Young in charge of the program.

At the 7:30 p.m. service, the pastor will speak on "Can We Find God in Outer Space?" Tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. the Fellowship class will have a covered dish dinner at the church.

A work night for the men of the church is scheduled for Monday, Sept. 24. Work on the exterior of the present unit has been completed with the placing of the finishing coats of stucco and the repainting of the building.

ST. LUKE'S TOPIC - "Witnesses of the Spirit Through Participation" will be the topic of the sermon service at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou Blvd. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor, will speak.

Miss Cunningham To Leave Gold Hill Christian Church

Gold Hill-Miss Jean Cunningham who has served as minister of the Gold Hill Christian church the past four years will be honored at a potluck luncheon after the worship hour Sunday. Miss Cunningham will present the sermon message on that date, which will be the last time that she will serve the church as minister.

Miss Cunningham has moved to Prospect where she is teaching English in the high school. She had resided in Gold Hill the past two years.

New Building To Be Discussed At Sunday Meeting

"The Meaning of Baptism" is the sermon topic that the Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will use at both services Sunday morning at the First Christian church. There will be baptismal services at the second service.

At the 8:30 a.m. service the youth choir will sing "Fair-est Lord Jesus." The carillon choir, made up of ninth and tenth graders, will sing "Under His Wings" at the second service. Mrs. E. P. Greer and Mrs. George Swinney will host the coffee hour.

A congregational business meeting to consider matters pertaining to the new church building has been scheduled following the 10:55 a.m. service.

Both the Chi Rho and Middles Fellowship will meet at 8 p.m. Mrs. Ralph Cook, chairman of the church worship department, will visit the Chi Rho Fellowship and show them how to set up worship centers and how to prepare worship services from materials available to the group. Suzanne Brooks will lead the discussion on "These Parents of Ours." Sarah Matthews will give the devotions.

The Christian Youth Fellowship meets at 6:30 p.m. for a study on personal devotions lead by Norman Campbell. Cathy Moore has charge of the worship period.

Tomorrow evening the Chi Rho Fellowship will have a hard time party at the Bradford Wynter home, 1919 Orchard Home dr.

The Christian Youth Fellowship is sponsoring a car wash all day tomorrow at Jerry's Union Service station. The proceeds will go to the fund to purchase pews in the new church.

Walther League To Hold State Meeting

Ashland - Walther League members of Grace Lutheran church, Frances lane, Ashland, have been busy the last few weeks in preparation for the Oregon district of the Walther League fall convention to be held in Ashland, Sept. 28 to 30.

Karen Hinrichs is general chairman of the convention. Wes Nickodemus, registration chairman, reported that 120 registrations have been received, mostly from the Portland area. About 200 young people are expected to attend.

To house such a large group the young people are not only asking the assistance of all members of Grace Lutheran church, but are also receiving the help from the Walther League of St. Peter's Lutheran church, Medford.

ST. LUKE'S TOPIC - "Witnesses of the Spirit Through Participation" will be the topic of the sermon service at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou Blvd. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor, will speak.

ST. LUKE'S TOPIC - "Witnesses of the Spirit Through Participation" will be the topic of the sermon service at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou Blvd. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor, will speak.

ST. LUKE'S TOPIC - "Witnesses of the Spirit Through Participation" will be the topic of the sermon service at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou Blvd. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor, will speak.

United Thank Offering Set Sunday; Reception To Be In Honor of McDougalls

Sunday at the 11 a.m. service, St. Mark's Episcopal church will join Episcopal churchwomen throughout the world in presenting their Fall United Thank offering. The Rev. Leon R. McDougall, curate at Grace Memorial church, Portland, will be guest preacher.

This marks the 73rd year in which coins have been dropped day by day into little blue boxes as an expression of thankfulness of women everywhere for the blessings and good things of life.

The several million dollars which are given triennially in the United Thank offering are used to train young women

The J. A. McDougall family, Portland, for many years residents of Medford, will be guests of honor at a reception following the 11 a.m. service Sunday at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Mr. McDougall has served the church as treasurer for a period of 16 years, in addition to appointments as vestryman, senior warden, and delegate to convention. Mrs. McDougall organized the acolyte guild. The guild has a current membership of approximately 115 boys.

For the occasion the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, has invited their younger son, the Rev. Leon R. McDougall to be the guest preacher at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services. He is assistant at Grace Memorial Episcopal church, Portland.

Also participating in the services will be Jerome McDougall, Medford resident, and an active lay leader in the parish.

All friends and associates of the family are invited to attend the various functions.

for church work, to provide specialized training in social services, medicine, and in rural work, helps repair old church buildings and pay for new ones and provides retirement pensions for women workers in the church.

Series Continues At First Nazarene

The Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., continues his series of messages in both the morning and evening services Sunday. His 11 a.m. message theme is "Expositions in Ephesians" and for the 7 p.m. "Aspects of True Holiness."

Music for the morning service will be the sanctuary choir singing "What My Soul Seeks" and a soprano solo by Mrs. Rod Newman. Organ prelude and offertory music will be furnished by Mrs. Arnold Kornstad.

During the 7 p.m. service, music will include a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Horton and a vocal solo by Mrs. Perry Christiansen. Judy Arnold will present a clarinet solo and Mrs. Bill Brewster will play the organ prelude.

The Senior High youth will start tonight the Fifth Quarter parties after the Medford High school football game. This will be held in the activity building where games and refreshments will be provided.

The Men's Fellowship will begin their fall program Tuesday in the activity building at 6:30 p.m. Rod Newman is president of the fellowship. Speaker for the evening will be Gordon Olsen, Eugene businessman.

Mrs. Harold Gilbert, UTO custodian for St. Mark's, has asked all women participating in Sunday's offering to transfer the contents of their blue boxes to envelopes provided at the church, and to retain the blue box for further use. Classes of instruction in religion and the basic tenants of the Christian faith, designed for adults, will start at St. Mark's, Thursday, Sept. 27, at 8 p.m. in the parish hall. The course will continue for ten weeks.

The classes which will be conducted by Mr. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's and the Rev. LeRoy E. Cox, assistant, will be open to all who care to attend and will involve no commitment to further association with the church.

Subjects to be covered will include church history, doctrine, worship and practice, the Christian sacraments, Holy Bible, Book of Common Prayer, organization of the church, meaning and purpose of confirmation, and a concluding class on personal religion. The classes will be informal and questions and discussion will be included.

For those who so desire, these classes may lead to a communicant membership in the Church.

Zion Lutherans List Activities

Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Zion Lutheran church, the Rev. Harvey C. Covert, pastor, will speak on "Handicapped Christians".

New members will be received into the church during the worship service. The senior choir will sing, "Praise the Name of the Lord".

Mr. Covert, and Leon Evans, vice president of the council of the church, will attend a meeting of the Synodical Constituting convention of the Lutheran Church in America, in Seattle on Wednesday and Thursday. They are the delegates from the church.

Two classes of instruction in the catechism for young people desiring to become members of the church will start Saturday, Sept. 29. All youth who will be entering the seventh grade or higher are eligible to join the first year catechetical class, which will meet in the Fireside room every Saturday at 9:30 a.m.

The second year catechetical class will meet at 10:45 a.m. every Saturday, and is open to all who have finished one year of catechetical instruction.

First Baptist Church

Conservative-Fundamental
Now at Wilson School

B. E. Andrews, Pastor
Byron Evans, Youth Dir.

Meeting Temporarily at
WILSON SCHOOL
Grand & Corona

SUNDAY, SEPT. 23rd
9:40 A.M.
Sunday School for All

11:00 A.M.
"Prayer Problems"

7:30 P.M.
"Should A Believer Ever Go To A Fortune Teller?"

Wednesday-7:30 P.M.
Missionary Program

STOP!

What Do You Really Know About Religion?

What Do You Really Know About the Church?

Why Not Find Out

THE TRUTH?

Come To The Adult Instruction Class

Starting Thursday
September 27, 8 P.M.

St. Mark's Episcopal Church

FIFTH and OAKDALE

No Commitments Whatsoever

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, Rector
The Rev. LeRoy E. Cox, Assistant

First Presbyterian Church

Eighth and Holly • Phone 772-2830

Sermon: "Goal of the Teachers and Parents"

Dr. D. Kirkland West

Worship Services 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Church School 9:30 a.m.

Junior and Senior High Classes 11:00 a.m.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main

Subject, "Matter"

Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.

Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.

You Are Always Welcome

Listen to: "The Bible Speaks To You"

Station K-SHA • SUNDAYS-9:00 A.M.

UNITY

Corner Holly and Haven Streets

Affiliated With Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.

REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister

Worship Hour-11:15 a.m.

"Judgment and Justice" John 7:24

Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m.

Office open daily Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
995 S. Oakdale Ave. - Phone 772-6902
EVERYONE IS WELCOME

TO PREACH TONIGHT

Rev. R. Robert Crawford

OVERSEER

The Apostolic Faith
World-Wide Organization of Churches

AT

APOSTOLIC FAITH

3rd and Central

772-2757

Loyce C. Carver, Pastor