

Scalpers Do Booming Business With Patterson-Liston Ducats

By JACK CUDDY
Chicago (AP)—Ticket scalpers were doing a booming business today in preferred seats for the $6 million Floyd Patterson-Sonny Liston heavyweight title fight.

The scalpers were demanding and getting $150 a seat for tickets in the first five rows, as champion Liston prepared to break camp tonight and motor into the city for their scheduled 15-round bout Tuesday night.

Meanwhile, a brigade of workmen began installing the ring and field seats at Comiskey Park.

Tickets for the live closed circuit television showing of the Floyd Patterson-Sonny Liston heavyweight title bout are "going very rapidly," Robert Corbin, Oregon-California theaters manager here, said this morning. The fight will be shown at 6:30 p.m. (PST) Tuesday at the Craterian theatre.

Corbin reported that there are a number of tickets left. He stated that he had received a number of telephone requests for tickets this morning but that reservations are not being taken by telephone.

A box-office man for Championship Sports, Inc., the promoters, declared angrily, "I don't know what we can do about the scalpers. We positively refused to do any business with ticket brokers on this fight. But some of them apparently sent a lot of stooges around early and bought choice tickets. Now the demand for them is terrific."

Rain or Shine
The demand was stepped up by promoter Al Bolan's announcement that the fight will be staged Tuesday night "rain or shine." The weather outlook for the bout is cloudy and cool, but dry. Bolan issued his rain-or-shine edict because of threatening skies today.

"Three weeks ago architect Lionel Levy of New York, who laid out the ring set-up and the seating plan, arranged for a large tarpaulin to be placed on rollers above the ring to protect the fighters in case of rain," Bolan explained.

He added with a grin: "How can we have a postponement—with more than 35,000 people expected at the park and with more than 750,000 expected at close-circuit theaters throughout this country and Canada?"

Bolan disclosed that the advance sale for Comiskey Park had passed the $500,000 mark. That indicates an ultimate live gate of more than $600,000, he said.

Millions From TV
Graft, Reiner and Smith, Inc., who own the closed-circuit television rights—reporting that the sale of about 750,000 seats for at least $4,500,000 was indicated from theaters and other locations in the United States and Canada. And the returns from movies, radio, foreign kinescope, etc., will total another $640,000, they said.

Liston, who expects to make about $400,000 out of the fight, was still favored at 8-5 today although an early poll of 104 American and foreign writers favored Patterson to win over Liston, 62-42. Floyd hopes for an all-time record purse of $1,700,000.

Both fighters were slated to motor into Chicago tonight in order to sleep here before going to the weigh-in Tuesday at 11:30 a.m. EDT, in the Hotel Sheraton. Patterson planned to weigh about 190 pounds, 25 less than Liston's target of 215.

Medford radio station KMED will broadcast the Patterson-Liston titanic boxing bout.

Red Raiders Whip Chico State 28-0

Ashland—Junior quarterback Doug Olsen led his fired-up Southern Oregon squad to a 28-0 rout over the Chico State Wildcats here last Saturday evening.

The key factor in the opening collegiate football win for the Raiders was the ability of the defense to contain the Chico offense. Defensive captain John Buck seemed to know just where the Wildcats would be and when they would be there. Al Atkins, head coach, praised the pursuit on the quarterback used by defensive end Jess Munyon and a host of other Raiders.

Al Allison, senior quarterback for the 'Cats, carried the ball four times and wound up with a -5-1 yards per carry. Atkins also singled out the defensive performance of Doyle Branson, senior halfback and defensive safety. Branson, a tremendously fast offensive back, is sacrificing his offensive prowess to help the defensive secondary.

Olsen to Hughes
Southern Oregon's first score came with 2:26 left in the first period on an eight yard pass from Olsen to Dave Hughes. Chico State was forced to punt and the Redmen took over on their own fifteen yard line. Kerm Bennett, on a quick opener, scooted 15 yards to the Southern Oregon 30 and another Raider first down. Then an Olsen to Howard Hartman pass netted 16 yards and the Raiders had another first down on their own 46.

With the ball on the Chico 47, and a fourth and eight situation, freshman fullback Denny Ellis faked a punt and ran around left end for 23 yards and a first down. Three plays later the Raiders scored, capping a drive of 85 yards in 10 plays.

Early in the second period, Chico punter George Calkins netted only 15 yards on a punt and the Raiders took over on the 'Cat 35. An Olsen to Hartman pass netted 10 yards and a first down. Mike Grimes, on a quick opener picked up four to the 21 yard stripe. Then the Olsen to Hughes combination hit again, this time for 21 yards and a touchdown. Olsen again kicked the point after and SOC went ahead 14-0 with 10:47 left in the half.

Bennett Scores
On a fourth down play, Calkins punted from his own 25 to the Raider 45 where Branson received the ball and ran it back for 10 yards to the Chico 45. Seven plays later, Bennett went over from the one yard stripe. Olsen again kicked the point after and the Raiders had a 21-0 lead at the half.

Southern Oregon's last score came on a ten yard pass from Olsen to Hartman. The drive started on the Raider 24 yard stripe. The Olsen to Hartman combination netted 38 yards on three pass plays in the drive.

Coach George Maderos' out-classed squad only threatened once in the encounter. The 'Cats were never inside the Raider 30 yard line. The only threat came on an Olsen to

GAME POSTPONED
Jacksonville, Fla. (AP)—It will be young Ron Taylor of the Jacksonville Suns against Ray Sadecki or Johnny Kucks of the Atlanta Crackers in the seventh and final game of the International league playoff series today. Sunday night's game was postponed because of wet grounds, leaving the series even at three games each after Atlanta had edged the Suns, 2-1, in a contest called after six innings because of rain Saturday.

GOING WRONG WAY
Watertown, N. Y. (AP)—Raymond Shaw told police he wrecked his car Sunday when heavy fog caused him to drift out of the right-hand lane on Route 11 and he hit a signpost. The sign said: "Keep right."

Reynolds Defeats Crater High 33-21

Central Point — Reynolds High school's Lancers, gaining well on off-tackle and reverse plays and controlling the ball, overcame the Crater Comets of Central Point on Saturday night in a non-league football game played at Troutdale.

Crater held a 14 to 13 lead with 40 seconds left in the second quarter but the Lancers were on top by halftime at 20 to 14. Third quarter score was 26 to 14. In the first period the clubs battled to a 7-each knot.

Mike Glines, who missed the Crater season opener because of illness, threw passes for all three Comet touchdowns. He hit Paul Branson for 27 yards, Joe McCalvey for 14 yards and to Darryl Summerfield for 23 and the scores. Glines ran two extra points and passed to Branson for another.

Whitehead Scores
Whitehead ran 17 yards for the first Reynolds touchdown and Ron Dappen tied the first of three conversion points. Crater responded with the Glines to Branson TD throw.

Kitchen went the last yard for the second Lancer TD to cap a 66 yard drive that gave his club a 13 to 7 edge. The Comets came back again after Gary Wald recovered a Reynolds fumble. The Glines to McCalvey pass paid off and Glines ran his second bonus for the Crater lead.

Reynolds capitalized on a Summerfield fumble on the Crater 23-yard line to go ahead for good. Gary Thompson cracked over from the one.

75-Yard Drive
The Troutdale club widened the gap on a 75-yard drive. It pushed to midfield on the ground then opened through the air. A 35-yard pass play put the ball on the 15 stripe.

Dappen passed to Lewton for the score. Larry Sliger ran 43 yards for the final Reynolds touchdown. An 18-yard run and an 18-yard pass play set up the last Comet TD, the Glines to Summerfield leave. Crater moved the ball when it had it, led by the passing of Glines and running of Summerfield, but had troubles in the defensive line. Ross Burd turned in good work at defensive end and Ray White and Denny Ryerson in backing up the line.

Reynolds led in first downs 18 to seven and in net yardage from scrimmage 365 to 183. The Comets had an 88 to 57 passing margin.
