

Garrett Named To Arbitrate Dispute In Railroad Strike

Washington—UPI—Sylvester Garrett, a veteran Pittsburgh arbitrator, was appointed by President Kennedy Saturday to be the neutral member of a three-man panel that will arbitrate the job security dispute on the Chicago and Northwestern railway.

The panel will start meeting in Washington Tuesday and will submit its decision by Monday, Oct. 8. The other two panel members are Ben W. Heineman, railway board chairman representing the company, and president G. E. Leighty of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers.

The telegraphers ended their 30-day strike Friday night when the union and the railroad agreed to submit four unresolved issues to binding arbitration. The railroad hoped to start commuter service in the Chicago area tomorrow morning.

Garrett, 50, has been chairman of the arbitration board for the U. S. Steel company and the United Steelworkers

Western Union To Continue Service To Yreka Area

Yreka—This city will continue to be served by Western Union, representatives of the agency assured the Siskiyou County Board of Supervisors Friday.

Two Western Union officials explained to supervisors that they merely plan to change the method of operation in Yreka, not terminate service altogether.

The supervisors and many county residents had earlier been led to believe that Western Union service here would be terminated soon. Acting as a result of this misunderstanding, the board had sent a letter of protest to the Federal Communications Commission.

Western Union will close its Yreka office, the board was told Friday, but a representative will be maintained here to send and receive messages. He will be paid by the unit instead of on a salary basis, however.

After hearing the explanation of what Western Union plans to do, the supervisors agreed to withdraw their protest.

In other action, the board approved a request by the Happy Camp Library board to be allowed to remodel the inside of the old jail building at Happy Camp, which the county has given the library board permission to use.

Construction of a new downtown parking lot at Butte st. and Broadway, across from the county courthouse, was authorized. The lot will be used principally by county employees.

A committee appointed Sept. 13 to study possible redistricting of the county's

Donovan Predicts Prisoner Release

Villanova, Pa. —UPI—Attorney James B. Donovan of Brooklyn, who has been meeting with Cuban Premier Fidel Castro for the release of Cuban captives, said Friday night he hopes to "sail out of Havana harbor" with 1,113 of the prisoners in two weeks.

Donovan, who also negotiated with the Soviet Union for the release of U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, told the Villanova university law school forum that the ransom for the men captured in the Bay of Pigs invasion in April, 1961, will not be paid in cash.

"On a humanitarian basis of the American people helping the Cuban people, we will provide foodstuffs and medicine to help the Cuban children, sick and elderly," he said.

The attorney, a Democratic candidate opposing the reelection bid of U. S. Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York, said he hopes to leave for another meeting with Castro immediately after he receives definite commitments from various groups to help raise the ransom.
