San Francisco—UPI—A band of slumping Dodgers with an old score to settle and a gang of never-say-die Giants with precedent on their side met today in the fourth pennant play-off in National league history.

The betting was even money that the Dodgers would atone for the historic defeat they suffered on Bobby Thomson's ninth-inning home run 11 years ago and 3,000 miles away.

However, the Giants, with momentum on their side, were 13-10 favorites to win the first game in this two-out-of-

Los Angeles Ready To Bust Loose

By ALEX KAHN

Los Angeles—UPI—A quiet but determined band of Los Angeles Dodgers headed for San Francisco today for the National league play-offs after blowing a four-game lead in the past week.

And as manager Walt Alton shepherded his players aboard a plane at the airport he fervently expressed the hope that the Dodgers were about ready to break out of their slump.

The flight was made necessary by the fact that the regular season final game of the regular season, 1-0, to the St. Louis Cardinals to end in a tie with the Giants.

"We're about ready to break loose and it might as well be in the play-off," Alton said. "That would be a good time to come out of a slump."

Can't Back In

And team captain Duke Snider said the Dodgers realize they no longer can back into the pennant and have to win it on their own efforts.

The Dodgers backed into at least a tie for the pennant as a result of Houston's 4-2 victory over the Giants in the second game of a doubleheader Saturday but the Dodgers that night lost 2-0 to the Cardinals.

Inept base running by the Dodgers kept them from getting a man beyond second base. In the second inning Lee Walls tried to stretch a Texas league single into a double and was thrown out at second.

And in the next inning Willie Davis was doubled off first when he took too long a lead as Podres fouled out to the first baseman, Tommy Davis, the league's leading hitter with a .347 average, was trapped in a rundown in the seventh after getting a single for his only hit of the game.

Lewis and Clark is looking more and more as the team to beat in the Northwest football conference.

Mickey Hergert sparked three touchdowns to a 20-7 victory over defending Oregon Collegiate conference champion Southern Oregon Saturday.

Linfield, defending NWC titleholder which finished second in the NAIA grid play-offs last season, defeated Oregon College of Education 38-20.

In other small college action, Whitman rolled past Eastern Oregon 19-0, Portland State edged British Columbia 14-13, Chico State won over Pacific 19-13, Weber of Utah stopped Oregon Tech 29-13 and Humboldt State topped Willamette 21-13.

The NWC opens next week end with Whitman at Lewis and Clark, College of Idaho at Linfield and Willamette at Pacific.

The OCC also opens and finds Oregon College of Education at Portland State and Eastern Oregon at Oregon Tech. Southern Oregon plays host to Sacramento State in a non-conference game.

North Trips Ashland In 8th Grade Game

Ashland—North Grants Pass scored on an off-tackle play in the second quarter to edge Ashland 6 to 0 Saturday in an eighth grade football game. Ashland, however, netted 131 yards from scrimmage to 31 for North and led in first downs three to one. Gene Willis topped the Ashland ground gaining.

INDIANS FIRE VEGGIALES

Cleveland, Ohio—UPI—The Cleveland Indians were in the market for still another new manager today following the firing of manager pilot Mel McGaha. McGaha, the fifth Tribe manager in six years, was fired during the week end by general manager Gabe Paul.

San Francisco—UPI—The left-handed slants of Billy Pierce, an American league discard who won 13 games for San Francisco this season.

Pierce was expected to face another southpaw, Sandy Koufax, although manager Walt Alton of the Dodgers did not definitely name his ailing left-hander as his starter.

Injures Finger

Pierce is well rested while Koufax has been a question mark ever since he returned to action 10 days ago after being sidelined for more than two months by a mysterious finger ailment.

"If Sandy goes today, it will be Williams on Tuesday when we return to Los Angeles," said Alton.

Manager Al Dark, who was the shortstop on that famous Giant club of 1961, had his pitching plans for the first two games definite.

"It will be Jack Sanford on Tuesday," he declared.

Alton did not say who his Tuesday pitcher would be if Williams started today, but indicated that he would not call on his big ace right-hander, Don Drysdale, until the third game—if there is a third game. Williams has won 13 games and lost 12.

Koufax was setting strike-out records by the score and had won 14 games when numbness in the index finger on his pitching hand sidelined him on July 17. His record at the time was 14-5.

Returns To Action

He returned to action Sept. 21, lasting only two-thirds of an inning. Two days later he pitched two innings in relief and then started against Houston Thursday night, going five innings before asking to be relieved because he was fatigued. He was leading at the time, but the Dodgers went on to blow the game—just as they have seven of their last eight games.

Last big blowup gave the Giants their chance and they took advantage of it on a dramatic closing day as any baseball season has seen.

For going into the final day of play Sunday, the Dodgers still held a one-game lead, despite a slump which saw them go through their last 21 innings without scoring a run.

The Giants played Houston here while the Dodgers met St. Louis at Los Angeles.

Homers Do It

As the Cardinals went to bat in the top of the seventh inning of what was at that time a scoreless battle with the Dodgers, Willie Mays hit an eighth-inning home run to give the Giants a 2-1 victory over the Colts.

Then, in the Cardinal eighth, Gene Oliver hit a hanging curve ball thrown by Johnny Podres and the Cards went on to beat the Dodgers, 1-0, and throw the National league pennant race into the play-off.

Mays Blow Puts Team In Runoff

By SCOTT BAILLIE

San Francisco—UPI—The San Francisco Giants, who were drooping for just one more crack at the Los Angeles Dodgers, got it today thanks to a dramatic homer by Willie Mays.

The slump-wracked center fielder came to bat in the eighth inning Sunday with the score tied 1-1 and whacked Dick Farrell's second pitch far back into the left field seats to give the Giants a 2-1 win over the Houston Colts and earn the playoff against the Los Angeles Dodgers for the National league crown.

In the riotous dressing room downstairs—and in club president Horace Stoneham's plush office upstairs—there was no doubt that the Giants were ready for their traditional enemies.

"All I was hopin' for was another shot at the Dodgers," said Willie Mays, who delights in teasing off against Don Drysdale. "And now that we've gotten this far, we've just gotta win it."

Angel Situation May Be Worse Before Better

Cleveland—UPI—The Angels' third-place finish this season has led many to believe the club will be fighting for the pennant next year. But will this be the case?

Everything broke right most of the season for Los Angeles, although the Angels tallied off at the end of the year.

In fact, they lost their final three games, including Sunday's doubleheader to the Cleveland Indians, 4-3 in the first game and 6-1 in the second.

Sixth was the highest position allotted the Angels in pre-season forecasts. But on July 4th Los Angeles was alone in first place. And the team did finish third—though it was 10 games behind the champion New York Yankees.

Now many persons say the Angels already have arrived and can't help but improve. However, the situation might grow worse before it gets better.

In 1962 the rookies came through, the old timers had that one last good year and the Angels surprised the baseball world. About the only major setback the Angels' had physically was when they lost league-leading pitcher Ken McBride with an injury.

Now here are the question marks for 1963.

Can McBride return to winning form? Can Leon Wagner have another year in which he hits over 30 home runs and drives in more than a 100 runs? Will Billy Moran hit .280 again and remain an all-star second baseman? Will Dean Chance repeat his rookie season of 14 wins? And will Bob Rodgers have another good year with the bat—or will he suffer the oft-mentioned "sophomore slump"?

Runnels Bat Champ; Pascual, Herbert Winners of 20 Games

By FRED DWYER
UPI Sports Writer

Pete Runnels won his second American league batting crown and Camilo Pascual and Ray Herbert became 20-game winners for the first time in their careers Sunday, but Tommy Davis could yet lose a batting title that a few days ago seemed as secure as a Dodger pennant victory.

Runnels took the AL crown with a .326 average although sidelined by a 101-degree temperature as the Boston Red Sox split 3-1 decisions with the Washington Senators. The spray-hitting first baseman won the 1960 championship with a .320 mark and could only have lost this year's title had Mickey Mantle of the Yankees gone 5-for-5 Sunday. Mickey, however, retired after getting two hits in three tries.

Pascual gained his 20th victory with a three-hitter that enabled the Minnesota Twins to down the Baltimore Orioles 1-0, while Herbert was credited with the Chicago White Sox' 8-4 win over the Yankees. Pascual had never won more than 17 games in a season and Herbert had never won more than 14.

Robinson Is Second

Davis went 1-for-3 in the Dodgers' 1-0 loss to the St. Louis Cardinals to finish the 162-game schedule with a .347 average compared with Frank Robinson's .342. Davis' performances in the pennant play-off series will count toward his season average, however, and he could fall to .341 by going 0-for-11.

The Twins' Harmon Killebrew made off with the AL home run and runs-batted-in championships with totals of 48 and 126 respectively. The NL home run crown went to Willie Mays, whose 47th of the season gave the Giants Sunday's 2-1 triumph over Houston.

The AL pitching crown went to the 12-5 record Stigman with a 2.75 Dick Stigman with a 7.06 percentage and the NL crown went to the Reds' Bob Purkey with a 23-5 mark for .821. No pitcher involved in the Giant-Dodger play-off can overtake Purkey.

Other Games

Jim Bunning won his 19th game with a four-hitter that gave the Detroit Tigers a 6-1 decision over the Kansas City Athletics and the Cleveland Indians swept the Los Angeles Angels, 4-3 and 6-1, under the direction of coach Mel Harder. Subbing for ousted manager Mel McGaha, in other AL games.

In the National league, John Taitouris thwarted Art Mahaffey's fourth bid for his 20th win by pitching the Cincinnati Reds to a 4-0 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. Dick Groat's three-run eighth-inning double gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-3 decision over the Milwaukee Braves, and the Chicago Cubs scored a 5-1 win that dealt the New York Mets their 120th defeat of the season.

Happy Campers Tip Fort Jones

Happy Camp, Calif.—The Happy Camp "C" team still remained in the undefeated ranks and the Fort Jones "D" club took its first beating of the season here in basketball games Friday night.

Happy Camp "C" tripped Fort Jones 27 to 18 with Kenny Stovall scoring 13 points.

The D team with 15 to 11 brought it into a tie with Fort Jones with two wins and one loss each. The Indians were led by Marty Ferguson with six points.

This week Happy Camp will travel to Fort Jones, starting the second round of games. Others in the league are Butte Valley and Etna. The season ends Nov. 3, at which time the varsity and junior varsity teams start their season.

Los Angeles—UPI—Charles Dees, who led the Texas league in batting this year with a .348 average, has been purchased from El Paso by the Los Angeles Angels. The former San Francisco Giants' farmhand will report to the Angels next spring.

Washington—UPI—Washington Redskin tackle Ed Khayat was called up Sunday by the Mississippi National Guard to serve during the college integration crisis.

Beaverton Moves Up To Second

Portland—UPI—Medford was ranked first for the second straight week today in the weekly Journal coaches' football poll for Oregon class A-1 high schools.

Beaverton, Jefferson and South Salem were rated second, third and fourth. The others, in order, were Pendleton, Grants Pass, Roseburg, South Eugene, Millwaukie and Marshfield.

Seaside and Central of Month were ranked first in the class A-2 poll.

Tony Lema Golf Victor

Las Vegas, Nev.—UPI—Young Tony Lema "found it" last Friday. And today he found himself with the first major professional golfing tournament victory of his brief career—the $30,000 Sahara Invitational.

The slender 28-year-old Lema, who turned pro in 1955, took the lead in the third round Sunday morning and then held it through the final 18 holes of the tourney Sunday afternoon for a 72-hole total of 270—and victory by three strokes.

Don January, third after Saturday's second round, finished with rounds of 67 and 70 for a 273 total and the $1,900-second place money.

Second-round co-leader and pre-tourney favorite Bill Casper Jr. of Apple Valley, Calif., climbed to a 72 on the morning 18 Sunday, and even his afternoon score of 69 couldn't bring him lower than a 276 total and third place.
