

Leadership Theme For BPW Week

Ashland — "Leadership — A Dimension in Democracy" is this year's theme for the National Federation of Business and Professional Women. As one of the more than 3,000 clubs, numbering 175,000 members, the Ashland club will observe National Business Women's Week, October 7-13.

Beginning with a 9 o'clock Sunday breakfast at the home of Mrs. Viola Squire, 1167 South Tolman Creek road, followed by morning service at the First Presbyterian church, the members will mark the annual celebration with other activities highlighted by a dinner meeting in the Wesley House October 10.

At the Wednesday evening dinner the name of the 1962 "Beep of the Week" will be announced. The honored member is chosen by secret election each year for her outstanding service to the club and to the community and in the promotion of women in various fields.

Guests at the October 10 banquet are to be past presidents and past "Beeps" as well as prospective club members. Mrs. Alice Arnold is general arrangements chairman and will receive reservations at 482-3369. The meal, which will be served buffet style, is being planned as a covered-dish dinner. Mrs. Eileen Wright is the program chairman and Miss Ruth Bebbler is president.

Women's Program Under Way at 'Y'

Mrs. Lanell Wilkes, women's program director for the Medford YMCA, announced today that the women's evening recreation program is now under way on Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week.

The pool will be available for open swim between the hours of 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., with instruction following. A "slim and trim" program is being conducted in the exercise room at 7 p.m. with Mrs. Bob Spoons instructing. Instruction is also available in paddle ball, volleyball and judo — with other activities being added as the program progresses.

This program is designed primarily for working women and women who cannot participate in the daytime slim and trim classes on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Medford YMCA — 772-6295.

Party Celebrates Seventh Birthday

Montague — The seventh birthday of Brice Martin, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Brice Martin Jr., was celebrated at their ranch home in Little Shasta Sunday afternoon, September 30. After an active afternoon of play, gifts were opened and refreshments served.

The guests were Blair Hart, Scott and Robbie Reynolds, Reginald and Kieth Smith, John, Jess and Rance Martin, all of Little Shasta valley, and Brice's cousins, Corey and Robert Ley, Yreka.

Thespians Plan Play

"Bernadine," written by Mary Chase, will be presented by Thespian Troupe 356 on the evenings of November 13, 16 and 17 at the Medford Senior High school auditorium. Tryouts for this fall production were held recently with approximately 70 students attending. The play includes 10 major male roles, four major female roles, and four minor roles.

Students present at tryouts who were not cast for roles in the play were appointed to various duties on the production crew such as costumes, make-up, properties, lights, publicity, programs, and various managing positions. "Bernadine" is under the direction of Mrs. Lenore Zapell, dramatics teacher at the high school.

Virginians Visit Gold Hill Family

Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kenney, Portsmouth, Va., and Mrs. Nancy Kenney, San Diego, Calif., were guests for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kenney and son, George on Colonial Way road, Gold Hill. Mrs. Nancy Kenney is the mother of the two men.

Rogue River Women To Pack Clothing For Church Service

Rogue River — The members of the Dorcas circle of the Hope Community Presbyterian church will meet Friday, October 5 at 10:30 a.m., in Barnett hall to pack clothing.

Luncheon will be served, and instead of sewing the members will pack warm clothing for the church world service. Anyone who wishes to may leave clothing at the church near door of Barnett hall.

Mrs. Eda Fulton is chairman of the Dorcas circle and Mrs. Oscar Benefiel is chairman of the sewing group. A lesson will be held on the Book of Romans.

Officers elected each November are of three groups of the United Presbyterian Women's association of the three local associations. They are Mrs. Robert Rowland, president; Mrs. Rex Shouler, treasurer; Mrs. Thomas Buntin, secretary and Mrs. Earl Green, vice president. The three groups are the Dorcas circle, Trinity and Vesta, a young group's association.

CowBelles Conduct Installation

Yreka — Election and installation of officers highlighted the Siskiyou County CowBelles fall luncheon meeting at the Shamrock Cafe south of Yreka, September 27.

Mrs. J. D. Kuck, Montague, president, conducted the meeting. Installed as new officers were Mrs. Edwin Hart, president; Mrs. William Valentine, vice president; Mrs. Richard Sanders, secretary; Mrs. Brice Long, treasurer; Mrs. Kuck and Mrs. Hart, state delegates. Mrs. Glen Barnes, outgoing vice-president, presented Mrs. Kuck a gift from the group in gratitude for her leadership for the past year. A round of applause was given Mrs. Gene Selby, secretary.

Mr. Valentine, president of Siskiyou County Cattlemen, spoke briefly in favor of Proposition 4 which will appear on the November ballot.

Committee reports included one on the fair float, headed by Mrs. John McKee. The float won a large trophy. Also on the committee were Mrs. Hess, Miss Dorothy Hewitt, Mrs. Charles Schultz and Mrs. Oscar Plemme.

Mrs. Orlo Davis presented the blue ribbon won on the fair booth "Be Slim — Eat Beef". Her committee was Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Del Reynolds, Mrs. Cyril Cook, Mrs. Betty Hodgen and others. The top prize of $250 had previously been received. The beef promotion committee chairman, Mrs. Valentine, passed around a large roast for everyone to guess the weight of it. Robert Tuttle, a guest, won the roast.

Members were asked to report all activities to Mrs. Edson Foulk, Gazette, state vice president so the book "California Roundup Activities" might be compiled in time for the state convention in Sacramento in early December.

The group voted a donation of $100 toward the work carried out by the California Beef council. Entertainment consisted of a reading by Mrs. G. P. Ashcraft, who was a guest of Mrs. Dennis Mulloy, group chairman.

Student Returns To University For Senior Year

Gold Hill — Richard Hammersley has resumed his studies at the University of Oregon after a trip to Pacific Grove, Calif. and a visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover T. Mulkey, Highway 99 North.

He is beginning his senior year and expects to finish with a degree in psychology; he is also studying Russian language and literature. He plans to attend law school.

The student will also continue with research work during his senior year. He began doing statistical research with the psychology department in his sophomore year, working with the National Science Foundation under foundation grants. He continued in this work during his junior year in undergraduate research in the area of personality inventories. The research work is with Dr. L. Goldberg, assistant professor of psychology at the university. Dr. Goldberg directed research work on Pease corps applicants last summer. Young Hammersley is a graduate of Crater High school where he was student body president. He was a member of the National Honor society and four year student of band chorus. He continued his music in his freshman year at college, playing in the university band, pep band and singing with the university chorus. During his sophomore year he was with the university band, and sang with the university chorus group during his junior year.

The past four summers he has been employed by the Deschutes National forest service, and as a guard station operator at O'Dell and Davis lakes the last three summers.

Kansans Visit In Shasta Valley

Montague — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mort, Hill City, Kan., have returned to their home after a ten-day visit here with Mrs. Mort's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams, at their ranch home in Little Shasta valley. The Mort's and Williams hunted during the first of the California deer season but were unsuccessful in bagging a deer.

While here they visited other relatives and friends including their eldest daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wood, and baby daughter of Hoopa.

Party Observes 25th Anniversary

Shady Cove-Trail — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell were honored with a surprise party at their home on their 25th wedding anniversary September 22.

Hosts for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lacy and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hopkins. Guests present and those sending greetings were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lacy and daughter, Jim Lane, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Wilson and son, Mrs. Ray Briggs, Mrs. Mildred Davis, Mrs. Frances Miller, Mike and Dan Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Don Russell and daughter.

An anniversary cake was served.

Fowlers Visit In Medford Home

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fowler, Ridgecrest, Calif., were recent guests at the home of their cousin, Mrs. C. O. Lack, 2132 Harrison street, Medford. The Fowlers are members of the Roll Along Campers club, which consists of mobile home owners.

The practice of the group is to meet once a month, and discuss the different places each has toured the previous month and to show the slides and pictures taken by the ones interested in photography.

The Fowlers have just returned from a three months tour of Mexico. While there they made many pictures of the historical and scenic points of interest. Mr. Fowler, musician and composer, writes songs for the club. The group met last month in San Jose, Calif.

The group took trips to the Applegate, Grants Pass, Medford, and Ashland, and also made the tour on Sunday with members of the Siskiyou County Historical society through Ager, Beswick, over the Topsy grade to Dorris and return.

Party Editor To Be Speaker

Klamath Falls — Miss Mari-lou O'Connor, program chairman for the Klamath Falls branch, American Association of University Women, announced today that the national authority on parties, Virginia Stanton, party editor of "House Beautiful" magazine, will deliver a lecture, "Holiday Party Decorations and Menus," on Saturday, October 20.

The lecture and dessert, to which all interested women are invited, will be held at the WiNeMa Motor hotel in Klamath Falls at 2 p.m. Since there is limited seating, tickets may be purchased previously, or reservations by name may be made with Miss O'Connor, 133 Grant street, Klamath Falls, Ore.

Get Together Club Luncheon Scheduled

The monthly potluck luncheon for Get Together club members will be held Friday, October 5 at 1 p.m., in the Girls Community club. This will be followed by a business meeting and social hours. Hostesses will be Mrs. Jess Wagoner, Mrs. John Bowdish, Mrs. Frank Parke and Mrs. Alvin Lucas.

Have Guests

Hornbrook — Mr. and Mrs. Leo King had as guests last week Mrs. King's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson of Caldwell, Idaho. Accompanying the Andersons was another sister, Mrs. Rose Reed of Long Beach, Calif., who had been visiting them at their Caldwell home.

DOES MEMORIZING BIBLE VERSES HELP MAKE A CHILD RELIGIOUS?

Was Jesus a deity, or a great ethical leader? Is the Christian religion superior to all others? Should one's religion be judged by what he professes, or how he lives?

Neither positive nor negative answers to these questions are provided by the adult leader in the Unitarian Sunday School. Children are encouraged to explore, to discuss freely, and to form their own opinions. Aided by thought-provoking curriculum, children learn about the many faiths, Christian and other, and about that which people everywhere think is good.

For further information on our approach to religious education call 664-2700 or 773-5545. A welcome is extended to all to meet with us Sunday, 11:00 a.m., Red Cross Building.
