A few of the fine upholstered davenports and chairs in our large selection of fine Early American furnishings. The davenport is made by Empire, the chair and coffee table by Salem House, the handsome rocker (it's a Boston rocker) by Nichols and Stone.

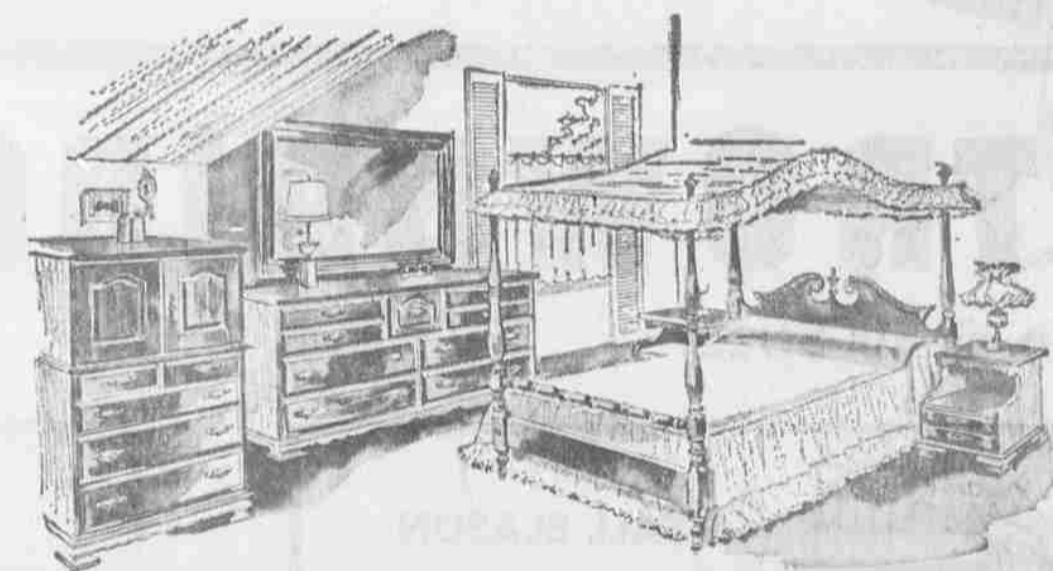

SALEM HOUSE...

The most respected name in Fine Early American Furniture

Made to last for generations

The finest kiln dried northern birch is selected by us and constructed with the loving care of craftsmen who take pride in their work with beautiful woods.

The mellow hand rubbed finish and individual styling is your assurance of a lifetime of proud ownership - truly the choice of discriminating people everywhere.

The Bunker Hill Collection

in beautiful Rockport Maple . . . with durable plastic tops

Nothing warms the heart like dining in the charm of an authentic Early American atmosphere. This colonial collection is created to reflect the fine design and craftsmanship of days gone by. . . beveled mirror, dovetail joints, shaped legs, scalloped bases and a rich lower-board finish that grows more beautiful with age. The damage-resistant, matching plastic tops on tables and benches are a practical modern touch to add longevity and lasting beauty. Enjoy the warm glow of EARLY AMERICAN in your life now . . . and think it for years to come.
