Eagle Point - Two angle wing teams met head on in real old rock 'em, sock 'em football here on Friday night. But, neither profited from the skirmish.

Eagle Point and Phoenix fought to a scoreless Rogue League draw.

The Eagles reached the Phoenix 17-yard line twice in the first and third periods, only to lose the ball on downs. Phoenix got to the EP 15 in the third period and in the fourth the Pirates' Dave Johnson crossed the goal on a 38-yard run only to have a clipping penalty nullify a score.

The Pirates reached the Eagle 25 in the fourth quarter but a Dale Chamberlain pass interception stopped the march and EP got the ball on its 25.

Kickoff Recovered

Eagle Point quick kicking, rather than booting from regular punt formation, and a short kickoff were factors in holding the Pirates down. The Phoenix club could set up no long kick returns. Bob Henderson of EP recovered Bob Bonner's short kickoff at the start of the second half.

Jon Granby, Johnson, Rick Richey and Ron Williams were Phoenix stalwarts in the tough defensive game. For Eagle Point Dale Chamberlain made 12 tackles, John Linder 10 and Mike House nine. Bonner and Charles Pomeroy were bullwarks in stopping Phoenix in the last minutes of the game and Ed Hanscom and Vic Eccleston also were EP steadies on defense.

Phoenix had a scrimmage yardage edge of 149 to 120 with 143 yards on the ground.

Griffith Tops Don Fullmer

New York-Welterweight Champion Emile Griffith out-fumbled middleweight contender Don Fullmer for a unanimous decision last night in their loudly booed and nationally televised non-title 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

The estimated 4,000 fans began booing in the fifth round and kept it up until the final bell because of the futile effort of both men, marred by nearly constant clinching and "bumping."

UCLA Upsets Ohio State, 9 to 7

Army, Georgia Tech Also Beaten

By MARTIN LADER
UPI Sports Writer

Top-ranked Ohio State saw its bid for a second straight undefeated season snapped unexpectedly Saturday when UCLA rallied in the final minutes of play to thwart the Buckeyes, 9-7.

Sophomore quarterback Larry Zeno, who earlier had missed on an extra point attempt, more than atoned for this lapse by kicking a 24-yard field goal with one minute and 35 seconds left to play to provide the Bruins with the most startling upset of the 1962 college football season.

Two other members of the nation's top 10 teams also went down to defeat as fifth-ranked Georgia Tech was upset by Louisiana State, 10-7, and Army fell before Michigan, 14-7.

Southern California, although ranked sixth by the United Press International board of coaches, was a six-point underdog to Iowa but still managed to overcome the Hawkeyes, 7-0; seventh-ranked Mississippi blasted Houston, 40-7; and eighth-ranked Washington routed Kansas State, 41-0.

Michigan took advantage of a bungling Army defense to register its first triumph of the season while handing the Cadets their initial defeat. Halfback Jack Strobel and Dave Rainey tallied touchdowns for the Wolverines and Bob Timberlake added a 25-yard field goal and two extra points.

Southern California could chalk up only 123 yards in the air and on the ground but took advantage of five Iowa fumbles to make a first quarter touchdown stand up for the triumph. The lone score came on a 19-yard run by halfback Ron Heller.

Quarterback Glynn Griffing threw four touchdown passes, including three to halfback Louis Guy, to make Mississippi's job an easy one over the Wolverines and Bob Timberlake added a 25-yard field goal and two extra points.

North GP Victor Over McLoughlin

Charlie Williams touched down three times Friday for North Grants Pass ninth grade in a 25 to 7 victory over McLoughlin of Medford football team on Friday.

The game was played at Grants Pass.

Williams ran 45 yards for one TD and a short distance on an end sweep for a second. He was the receiver and Eddie Mendenhall the thrower on a 45-yard scoring pass play. Tom Blanchard heaved a pass to Mendenhall for 70 yards and the other corner.

Williams ran one extra point.

Smith to Esquivel

A Curt Smith to Sal Esquivel pass in the flat gained 40 yards and the McLoughlin fourth quarter score. Esquivel kicked the extra tally.

Mac bid for another final panted TD when Smith intercepted a Cavekid pass. But a fumble lost the ball with one minute to play.

Ken Curtis stood out for the Bulldogs of Medford as a full-back and linebacker and George Dumais was tough in the defensive line.

While not scoring more than once, the Bulldogs moved the ball well, picking up 272 yards.

Yreka Miners Beat Ashland Grizzlies

Yreka, Calif. - Robin Broice touched down twice on six yard runs here Friday night as the Yreka high miners defeated Ashland, Ore., 21 to 7 in a non-league football tilt.

The Miners took command at the start, driving 62 yards off the opening kick for a counter with Broice getting his first one and Rod Stewart kicking the bonus marker. Tom Laustolat passed to Ed Silva for 26 yards and a second period touchdown and Laustolat ran the conversion for 14 to 0 at the half.

Each team scored in the closing quarter. Yreka hit pay soil off a drive from midfield and Stewart again converted after a Broice TD run.

A Dave Barger to Mike Torreon passing assault carried to the Ashland score. The touchdown pass went for eight yards and came with nine seconds left in the game. The thrust got under way when Barger recovered a Miner fumble at midfield.

Two Ashland touchdown opportunities melted on fumbles at the 14 and six-yard lines.

Slats Gill Will Speak At Hedrick

Amory T. (Slats) Gill, head basketball coach at Oregon State university, will be in Medford on Monday.

He will speak at a forum at Hedrick Junior High school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. This event will be sponsored by the local chapter of the OSU Mothers club. Dads and Thirty Staters also are to attend.

The forum is open to the public.

Gill is expected to give OSU followers and hoop fans a rundown on the 1962-1963 basketball prospects of the Beavers. One of the Beaver standouts is Mel Counts, a 7-footer and ex-Marshfield high player. Jim Jarvis, ex-Coombs and Roseburg star, comes up to the OSU varsity as a sophomore this season.

IV Cougars Overwhelm Lakeview

Cave Junction-Illinois Valley high's Cougars "came to life on defense" and balanced running with their passing game here Friday night to loom as a club yet to be reckoned with in the Rogue league grid campaign.

The Cougars wreaked havoc with title contender ambitions of the Lakeview Honkers to the tune of 40 to 12.

Darryl Gellert and Ron Thornhill spearheaded the IV offensive as the Cougars came through with better blocking than they've had. Gellert completed 10 of 20 passes for 204 yards and Thornhill piled up 163 yards rushing. A net of 10 running yards gave Gellert an overall net of 214 for the night.

Martin Pickle, a tackle, was tremendous on defense for IV. John Baumgardner turned in fine work at lineback and ran for 60 yards as an offensive back.

IV out-yardaged Lakeview 527 to 145 and had the first down edge 15 to five.

The Cougars had quarter leads of 7 to 6, 13 to 6 and 26 to 12.

Thornhill tabulated for the Cave Junction gang on 12 and five-yard sweeps and on a 26-yard off-tackle run. He kicked four extra points.

Gellert scored once on a four-yard roll out run. He tossed passes to Terry McNaught for 54 and 56 yards and touchdowns.

Fred Williams was the Lakeview touchdown man with 16 and 44 yard runs.

It was IV's first win in three league frays and Lakeview's second loss in four.
