

Mrs. Albert Edward Hovey Jr.
(Lind photo)

Lewis-Masterson Rites Held in Meeker Chapel

Meeker Memorial chapel of Medford First Methodist church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Emily Ann Masterson and Clifford Everett Lewis on Saturday, September 22.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Masterson Sr., 235 South Oakdale ave., Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of E. C. Lewis, Everett, Wash., and the late Mrs. Lewis.

Dr. George Roseberry read the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and administered Holy Communion as a part of the rites. Approximately 80 guests attended the wedding. Mrs. Leslie Boardman was at the organ, and Mrs. D. G. MacDougall sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length gown of tissue taffeta fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and close fitting bodice having applied lace around the neckline and down the front of the sheath skirt. An overskirt of tulle and taffeta completed the gown. Her shoulder length veil was held by a tara of seed pearls and lace, and she carried white roses and stephanotis centered with a white Bible given her by Mrs. James A. Cooksey, formerly of Medford and now of Yuma, Ariz.

For the traditional "something borrowed" the bride wore a strand of pearls worn by the women in the family of the honor attendant.

One Attendant
The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Jerry D. Bakke, Portland. Her dress was a two-piece ensemble of gold brocade, with a matching veiled hat. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze spider chrysanthemums.

Myron M. Lewis was best man for his brother, and H. Jay Masterson Jr., brother of the bride, acted as usher.

The chapel and reception room were decorated with large white chrysanthemums and yellow gladioli, and tall candelabra stood on either side of the altar.

A reception given by the bride's parents, assisted by women of the church guild, followed the ceremony in Fellowship hall of the church. Mrs. Myrtle Owens cut and served the wedding cake.

Mrs. R. A. Schmidt poured coffee and Miss Donna Shore served the punch. Mrs. Jack A. Gardner was in charge of the guest book, and Mrs. H. Jay Masterson Jr. presided at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Masterson wore a dress of aquamarine silk with matching, hat and shoes, and her corsage was of white carnations.

The date chosen for the wedding had a double significance, since it is also the birthday of the bride's brother.

When Mr. Lewis and his bride left for a honeymoon on the California coast, the bride was wearing an eggshell white walking suit of wool with black patent accessories. The bride, who attended Medford High school, is employed in the Development office of the Sacred Heart hospital.

The bridegroom, a public accountant and a partner in the Medford firm of Lewis Accounting and Tax Service, is a graduate of Everett High school and Everett Business college.

The bride is a past honored queen of Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters.

Out of town guests included the bridegroom's father and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Lewis, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom; all of Everett, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Jay Masterson Jr., son Michael and daughter Christine of Burns, Ore.

The newlyweds will be at home at 29 Chestnut street, Medford, after October 15.

Officer, Wife Visit Parents
Second Lt. and Mrs. Larry Slessler and infant daughter, Jennifer Lynn, arrived last week and are guests of the couple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal McCay, 3334 Forest avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Slessler, 846 West Thirteenth street.

Mrs. Larry Slessler is the former Miss Kathie McCay. Lt. Slessler is in the Air Force, stationed at Sumter, S.C. He recently completed three months of schooling in Wichita Falls, Tex., at Shepherd Air Force base.

The visitors plan to be here until October 13 when they will leave for Portland to visit other relatives. He is to report at his station in Sumter on October 25 at Shaw Air Force base.

Visit Wonder
Wonder — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gross, Eureka, Calif., were recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs. Mr. Gross is the father of Mrs. Jacobs.

Great grandchildren who attended were Shawn and Gena Wingham, Rosalind France and Dwight and Darrell Peck.

Other guests included Mrs. Paul Yocom of Medford, a longtime friend of the family, and James Gilbreath of Shady Cove.

Woodcraft Circle Announces Meeting
A business and social hour will be conducted by members of Chrysanthemum circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, when they meet Monday, October 8, at 8 p.m., in the Eagles hall.

Mrs. Enos Naffziger will preside in the absence of Mrs. Louise Staats, who is visiting in California.

Refreshments will be served.

man for his brother, and H. Jay Masterson Jr., brother of the bride, acted as usher.

The chapel and reception room were decorated with large white chrysanthemums and yellow gladioli, and tall candelabra stood on either side of the altar.

A reception given by the bride's parents, assisted by women of the church guild, followed the ceremony in Fellowship hall of the church. Mrs. Myrtle Owens cut and served the wedding cake.

Mrs. R. A. Schmidt poured coffee and Miss Donna Shore served the punch. Mrs. Jack A. Gardner was in charge of the guest book, and Mrs. H. Jay Masterson Jr. presided at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Masterson wore a dress of aquamarine silk with matching, hat and shoes, and her corsage was of white carnations.

The date chosen for the wedding had a double significance, since it is also the birthday of the bride's brother.

When Mr. Lewis and his bride left for a honeymoon on the California coast, the bride was wearing an eggshell white walking suit of wool with black patent accessories. The bride, who attended Medford High school, is employed in the Development office of the Sacred Heart hospital.

The bridegroom, a public accountant and a partner in the Medford firm of Lewis Accounting and Tax Service, is a graduate of Everett High school and Everett Business college.

The bride is a past honored queen of Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters.

Out of town guests included the bridegroom's father and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Lewis, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom; all of Everett, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Jay Masterson Jr., son Michael and daughter Christine of Burns, Ore.

The newlyweds will be at home at 29 Chestnut street, Medford, after October 15.

Speaker Slated For NRTA Meet
Frank Bash, president of the Oregon School Board association, will discuss impending legislation on which all voters should be informed during a meeting of the Jackson county Teachers association, Monday, October 8, at 1:30 p.m. The session will be held in the Girls Community club.

Jarl Dyrud, student at Medford High school, will entertain with a group of folk songs, furnishing his own guitar accompaniment.

Year books will be given to members. Refreshments will be served.

When boiling "old potatoes" use a little milk in the water. This keeps them from turning dark.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Everett Lewis
(Landis photo)

Open House Observes Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reinking, longtime Medford residents, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary at open house held recently in their honor by their daughter, Mrs. Ernest Hueners. The event, held at the home of the honored couple at 19 Rose avenue, was attended by about 75 guests who called during the afternoon.

Yellow and white gladioli decorated the rooms, and a golden wedding cake trimmed in white was served.

Mrs. Reinking wore a flowered suit dress with a corsage of white roses tied with a golden ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinking both came to the Rogue valley in 1903. Mr. Reinking was born in Lincoln, Neb., in 1890 and Mrs. Reinking (nee Long) was born in 1891 in Missoula, Mont. Her family came west by covered wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinking were married in 1912 in Jacksonville, then the county seat, by the Rev. Banty in the Jacksonville Presbyterian church. They made their home in Medford.

They left here in 1914 to live in San Francisco and Oakland, Calif., until they returned to Medford in 1930.

The couple operated the Medford Roller rink in the Medford armory until it burned. They also owned and operated the Shilren Trailer park at 604 North Riverside avenue, until 1960 when Mr. Reinking retired and they moved to their present address.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Brinkers, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Reinking, and Mrs. Annie Sirvain, Concord, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. George Burner, Monrovia, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Foster and Mrs. Gary Hueners and son, Wayne, all of Sacramento.

Earlier in the day the Ascension Lutheran church congregation of which they are members had honored the couple after church services when a wedding cake was served.

Shower Honors Prospect Women
Prospect — A layette shower given recently in the home of Mrs. Robert Krell honored Mrs. James Reilly. The event also honored Mrs. B. Maxwell on the occasion of her birthday.

Attending were Mrs. Don Vaughn, Mrs. Gordon Anderson, Mrs. James Lundsford, Mrs. C. E. Clevenburg, Mrs. Ray Maurer, Mrs. John Shalensburger, Mrs. Everett Shafer, Mrs. Vern Haddeland, Mrs. William Farr and the honored guests.

Observance Set
Founders day will be observed by members of the Alpha Phi alumnae group Wednesday, October 10, at 7:30 p.m., when they will meet in the home of Mrs. William Duhaime, 133 White Oak road.

All interested alumnae are invited.

Lodge Officer To Visit Here
Table Rock council, Royal and Select Masters of Medford, will have the official visitation of the most illustrious grand master, Theodore C. Roake, Salem, Ore., of the grand council of Royal and Select Masters of Oregon, on Tuesday, October 9, at their stated assembly.

All Royal and Select Masters are invited to attend.

The organization is one of the three bodies comprising York Rite Masonry and the Table Rock council extends from Roseburg to the California line.

Ross McVay, Grants Pass, is the illustrious master of the Table Rock council.

Women To Attend Democratic Event
Four Jackson county women will be in Eugene Monday for the visit of Mrs. Hickman Price Jr., Washington, D.C., vice chairman and director of women's activities for the National Democratic committee.

Mrs. Ralph Poston, vice chairman of the Jackson county Democratic Central committee, will be one of the hostesses at a luncheon Monday for women of the Fourth Congressional district. Honored at the luncheon will be Robert Duncan, Medford, candidate for the Fourth District post.

Other hostesses will be the vice chairmen of the other Fourth district counties.

Traveling to Eugene with Mrs. Poston will be Mrs. Frank Christian, Talent, president of the Eleanor Roosevelt League; Mrs. Dee Newton, Ashland, and Mrs. William Davidson, Applegate.

Archers Attend World Fair
O'Brien — Mr. and Mrs. Lester Archer, Siskiyou village, were in Seattle last week to attend the World's Fair.

Baby-Sitter Cooperative Considered
Mrs. Donald St. Martin, a newcomer to the valley, is attempting to organize a baby-sitter cooperative in the area.

Mrs. St. Martin, who lives on Pioneer rd., Route 4, Box 412, Medford, assisted in the organizing of such a cooperative in the Santa Rosa, Calif., area prior to moving here.

She explained that no money is involved, but couples with children who join the cooperative baby - sit on an hours exchange basis.

Mrs. St. Martin is particularly interested in contacting couples with children in the southwestern Medford area, but couples outside of the area are also welcome. For information contact Mrs. St. Martin at 773-4194.

An article about such a baby-sitter cooperative was written up in the September 30 Sunday supplement of the Mail Tribune.

Patricia Ritterspach Wed To Albert Hovey Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edward Hovey Jr., whose marriage was an event of September 29, made their wedding trip to San Francisco where the bridegroom is stationed with the Navy on Treasure island. They will live in the Bay area.

The bride, the former Miss Patricia Irene Ritterspach, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van L. Ritterspach, 687 Gilman road, Medford. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edward Hovey, live at 1627 Biddle road.

The single ring ceremony was read at 7 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Ernest Rolls of the Assembly of God church in the Country church. About 150 guests attended.

The bride's sister, Miss Linda May Ritterspach, was honor attendant, and her aunt, Miss Jean Ann Montgomery; the bridegroom's sister, Miss Lenia Hovey and Miss Shirlene Giese, were the bridesmaids. Rene Crumm was flower girl.

Lighting the candles were Gary Montgomery and Brent Dey.

Earl Stonbreaker, also of the Navy, was the best man and seating the guests were Ronnie Hovey, a brother of the bridegroom, and Richard Giese.

Mr. Ritterspach gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's floor length gown of Alencon lace and tulle over taffeta was designed with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Lace inserts with lace roses and sequins and seed pearls decorated the gown. The front of the skirt was made with lace inserts over tulle ruffles and the back was fashioned with lace ruffles. Her elbow length illusion veil was held from a crown of Alencon lace with aurora borealis beads and seed pearls. She carried white carnations with pink rosebuds and stephanotis. Her single strand of pearls was borrowed from Mrs. Louis Patterson.

The attendants' gowns in ballerina length were in pastel shades and their bouquets were of pink and white carnations.

The church was decorated with pink gladioli and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Robert Martin, accompanied by Miss Sandra Myers, sang the wedding songs.

The reception given by the bride's parents, was attended by about 100 guests and was held at the church.

Cutting and serving the wedding cake was Mrs. Artis Crumm, and pouring punch was Mrs. Philip Johnson. Coffee was poured by Miss Sandy Malot and in charge of gifts were Mrs. Raymond Dey and Mrs. Lynn Creel. Mrs. Patterson traveled the guests.

For traveling to San Francisco the bride wore an off-white wool suit with white mink collar and her accessories were in burnt orange.

The bride attended Medford High school and the bridegroom was graduated from the same school last June.

Dinner Party In Trail Home Honors Woman

Trail — The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sanderson of Trail recently was the scene of a dinner which honored Mr. Sanderson's mother, Mrs. C. C. (Agnes) Sanderson on her 75th birthday.

The birthday cake was made and decorated to honor Mrs. Sanderson's entire family, and depicted her six children, 21 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Other relatives who attended were her husband and her sons, Milton Sanderson and Lloyd Sanderson and their wives, and a daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Beers.

Also there were her grandchildren, Jerry, Debbie, Mike, Lee, Deloris, Vicki, Judy, Karon, Joyce and Robbie Sanderson; Patricia Wingham, Mrs. Richard (Mary) France and Mr. France, and Mrs. Jack (Beverly) Peck, and Mr. Peck.

Great grandchildren who attended were Shawn and Gena Wingham, Rosalind France and Dwight and Darrell Peck.

Other guests included Mrs. Paul Yocom of Medford, a longtime friend of the family, and James Gilbreath of Shady Cove.

Woodcraft Circle Announces Meeting
A business and social hour will be conducted by members of Chrysanthemum circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, when they meet Monday, October 8, at 8 p.m., in the Eagles hall.

Mrs. Enos Naffziger will preside in the absence of Mrs. Louise Staats, who is visiting in California.

Refreshments will be served.

NOW you can build your own patio cover or carport!

NAVACO
Rigid-Vinyl Panels

- Wide selection of translucent and opaque colors
- Lightweight, easily handled, and set with conventional hand tools
- Ideal for carports, greenhouses, utility buildings in a world of trouble
- Made of B. F. Goodrich Gove.

VALLEY SHADE COMPANY

"Everything for the Window but the View" 2034 Barnett • 773-4620

RUNLESS STOCKINGS

It's true. It's here. The seamless hose you've been waiting for! It's sheer, it's lovely, it can't run — you have our word for it. They're not indestructible but they will outwear ordinary dress sheers weeks and even months, and they are more beautiful on your leg than you ever could expect!

Better than Gold

Box of
3 pair $3<sup>75</sup>

La Pointe's

IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE