Newlyweds Make Home In Phoenix After Trip

Phoenix — Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rex Bushnell are living at 206 Fourth street, in Phoenix, Ore., following their wedding trip to Bandon on the coast.

The bride is the former Miss Marilyn Rae Wadler, of Redwood City, Calif. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wadler of the same city. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bushnell, Route 1, Box 562, Talent, Ore.

The couple was married September 23 at 5:30 o'clock in the evening in the Caesar room of the Mark Antony hotel in Ashland. The Rev. William Martin of the First Church of God performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of about 85 guests.

The bride, given in marriage by Devereil B. Pugmire, Medford, wore a peau de soie ballerina length gown with quarter length sleeves. A circular crown held her short veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

Miss Linda Bushnell, a sister of the bridegroom, was the honor attendant. Her pink satin ballerina length gown was designed with cap sleeves and her bouquet was of red roses.

Gladioli in pink and white shades decorated the room. Mrs. Wayne E. Horton was soloist, and Mrs. Ray A. Powers furnished the organ music.

The reception, given by the bridegroom's parents, also was held in the Caesar room. Assisting were Mrs. H. Bud Plankenhorn, and Mrs. Anna Plankenhorn, both of Ashland.

For the wedding trip the bride wore an olive green suit.

Emery Lanham and Bride Making Home in Gold Hill

Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. Emery Noel Lanham are now residing at Route 1, Box 388 E, Gold Hill, following their wedding trip to coastal points. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Lanham was Miss Mary Beth Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert E. Bailey, Maple lane, Gold Hill. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Lanham, Birdseye creek.

James W. Lehmann, minister of Kingdom hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, officiated at the double-ring wedding ceremony held Saturday, September 1 at 7 o'clock in the evening ceremony, in the Gold Hill hall. About 100 relatives and friends attended. Baskets of lavender, purple and white asters decorated the hall.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white brocade satin fashioned with long sleeves, fitted bodice and ballerina skirt. Her fingertip lace-trimmed veil was held in place by a small hat fashioned of net. She wore a string of white pearls and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and chrysanthemums. Richard Genaw escorted the bride.

Sister Is Attendant
Miss Sharon Ann Bailey was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a lavender chiffon gown with skirt set off by a cummerbund and carried white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Judith Whaley, Medford, wore a lavender silk sheath and carried white and lavender chrysanthemums and carnations.

Mrs. Lanham, the bridegroom's mother, played the wedding music.

Best man was Robert Lanham, brother of the bridegroom and ushers were Grant Blake and Jesse Netherland.

Reception Given
A reception was given for the couple at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Lanham at their home on Birdseye creek. The garden was lighted for the occasion. The gift table was attended by Miss Judi Force and Miss Donna Hill. The interior of the Lanham home was decorated with wedding bells. Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Noel Lanham (Mary Beth Bailey) are making their home in Gold Hill following their wedding September 1 in Gold Hill.

Joseph Russo took charge of all decorations. Miss Melba Williams was in charge of the guest book.

Sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Ted Yost and Mrs. Joe Russo, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Richard Genaw presided at the punch bowl.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Bailey selected a gold jersey sheath with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise wool sheath with white accessories.

For traveling the bride wore a two-piece turquoise suit with white accessories accented with a small blue and green feather hat. Her corsage was of white carnations and chrysanthemums.

Guests from out of town were Francis Fohl, uncle of the bride from Fort Ord, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Donavon Lanham and son, Red Bluff, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Russo and sons, Woodland Hills, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lanham, also Red Bluff.

The bridegroom's family are long time residents of this area and the bride's family has resided in Gold Hill eight years. He is a graduate of Rogue River High school and is employed at Cascade Mill Works. The bride is a graduate of Crater High school.
