FOOD BILLS

EUGENE (To the Editor) — Since the lady wrote to you regarding a "fake" ham, I've gained courage to tell my tale of woe also.

Our recent return to our home in Eugene has been greatly marred by an important fact: Our grocery bill is running almost 10 per cent more than it did the entire year we lived in Medford, and my mode of buying is the same! In many instances, we are doing without.

Why? Certainly, this city can offer more competitive food prices.

We feed (or try to) four youngsters — two are male teenagers!
