Southern Oregon Collegians Defeats Sacramento State

Ashland — Southern Oregon college's Red Raiders of the Rogue were opportunistic footballers here on Saturday night. They made the breaks pay off in touchdowns and they defeated a big Sacramento State college aggregation 21 to 7. Three of four Hornet fumbles opened the way for Southern Oregon counters. The Raiders touchdown on a sneak by Doug Olsen, on his pass to Howard Hartman and on a dive by Kermit Bennett. They scored once each in the first three quarters. Olsen thumped the extra point each time. Sacramento look to the air in the final quarter and, with 42 seconds left to play, a Mike Flock to Gary Quattram throw paid off. Vince Zalsky made the conversion kick. Coach Al Akins, happy with his Raiders' triumph, declared, "I was real pleased with the boys. They met a good team and played well." Of the Hornets he remarked, "It was a good team and awfully big and fast. . . . Those were big people."

Medford Retains Top Rating; St. Mary's Sixth in A-2 Poll

Portland —(UPI)— Medford's Black Tornado ranked in first place today among Oregon's A-1 high school football teams in the weekly Journal coaches' poll. South Eugene, Grants Pass, Grant, South Salem and Roseburg tied for 8th, and Corvallis. In Class A-2 Sesside was first followed in order by Central, Yamhill-Carlton, Bandon, Vale, St. Mary's, Elmira, Phoenix, Philomath and Myrtle Point.

Hawks Say $1,000,000 Deal Made

Chicago —(UPI)— As far as the Chicago Black Hawks are concerned, the biggest one-player transaction in professional sports history is still on. The Hawks insist that their agreement to pay $1 million for left wing Frank Mahovlich of the Toronto Maple Leafs was made in good faith. Hawks manager Tommy Ivan said Sunday night, "We made a deal Friday night for the purchase of Mahovlich for the sum of $1 million and the check was delivered the next morning."

St. Mary's Downs Sacred Heart 45-13

St. Mary's of Medford, with eight players getting into the scoring act, whipped the young Sacred Heart of Klamath Falls team 45 to 13 here Saturday night in a Rogue league, Class A-2 high school, football game. The Crusaders had 19 to 0, 38 to 0 and 38 to 6 quarter gaps as they rolled to their third conference verdict against no losses. It was the fourth defeat for the Trojans who are still seeking their first win. Seventy-seven and 68-yard off tackle runs for touchdowns by Jim Webb were highlights of the overwhelming St. Mary's offense. Jim Calhoun touchdown on a 22-yard bootleg run and John Batzer on 1-yard jaunt over tackle. Jeff Raupch cracked the end zone on a 1-yard sneak and Don Valentine on a 15-yard end sweep. Pete Naumes, an end playing halfback, dove two yards for the last TD. Davis Scores Calhoun kicked an extra point and Tim and Tom Darland each ran one. Marv Davis tallied on an off tackle run for three yards for Sacred Heart and Don Milani smashed one yard for the second touchdown. Davis ran an extra point. Forty-two Crusaders got into action. First team players saw duty in the first quarter and second unit men in the second. Third and fourth team gridders got into action in the second half. Linemen were given opportunity to pack the ball at halfback in the closing minutes of the fray. St. Mary's rolled up 371 yards, 24 of it passing. Sacred Heart had 70 rushing and 40 passing for 110 net. First downs were nine to four for the Medford team.

Alabamans, Texans Ready To Battle for Top Rank

Alabama and Texas, vaulting over defeated Ohio State, are ready to battle it out for the nation's top college football ranking and the schedule favors the defending champion Crimson Tide. The Alabama crew aims for its 15th straight victory next Saturday against Houston, a 4-7 loser to Mississippi, while Texas faces a tough target in the Oklahoma Sooners. Coach Paul Bryant's Alabama team has at least one other breather in Tulsa. But Texas has no relief in sight. The Longhorns have only Southwest Conference foes remaining and any one of its next six opponents could muster the potential to knock over arch-enemy Texas. Ohio State, ranked No. 1 last week, stumbled against UCLA and bowed, 9-7, on a 24-yard field goal by Larry Zeno with 95 seconds left to play. Twenty Straight Second-ranked Alabama defeated a stubborn Vanderbilt team, 17-7, to go through its 20th straight game without a loss. Touchdown passes from sophomore quarterback Joe Namath to Dick Williamson and Butch Henry spelled the difference. Texas, rated third by the United Press International Board of Coaches, made winless Tulane its third straight victim, 35-8, while Dave Hayes led fourth-ranked Penn State to an 18-7 triumph over Rice with three touchdowns. Sixth-ranked Southern California enhanced its position with a 7-0 surprise win.

Green Bay Noses Detroit 9-7 On Paul Hornung Field Goals

By NORMAN MILLER UPI Sports Writer It matters little to the Green Bay Packers that Paul Hornung is a man of many talents and Herb Adderley specializes in only a few. To their rivals, though, it demonstrates vividly how each man according to his own skills contributes to the "million ways the Packers can beat you."

Hornung kicked his third field goal with only 36 seconds left to play Sunday to give the Packers a 9-7 victory over the Detroit Lions in the National Football League's top game of the week end. Hornung's winning 21-yard boot was set up by Adderley's 40-yard with an intercepted pass. And so Green Bay won its biggest game of the year thus far without scoring a touchdown. While dishing out praise, coach Vince Lombardi had plenty, too, for his defensive line, which smothered a Detroit offense that had scored more points than any club in the NFL in four games. The Packers now have yielded exactly 14 points.

Only Perfect Record The victory before a sellout crowd of 38,669 at Green Bay left the Packers the only perfect-record (4-0) team in the league. But they are not the only undefeated team. Those amazing Washington Redskins beat the Los Angeles Rams, 20-14, to remain on top of the Eastern division with a record of three wins and one tie. In other Sunday games, the San Francisco Forty Niners sprang the biggest upset of the day by defeating the Baltimore Colts, 21-13; the New York Giants spoiled the St. Louis Cardinals home-opener, 31-14; the Chicago Bears blanked the Minnesota Vikings, 13-0, and the Cleveland Browns topped the Dallas Cowboys, 19-10.

On Saturday night, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 13-7. Packers Stop Plum Just when many people around the NFL were beginning to wonder how Milt Plum and the Lions could be stopped, the Packers showed 'em how. Hornung kicked the first of two 15-yard field goals in the first period and then the Lions went ahead, 7-3, after defensive tackle Alex Karras recovered a fumble on the Green Bay 34. A 15-yard run by Plum brought the ball to the six, from where Danny Lewis went over for the TD. Hornung booted his second field goal in the third period and when he missed a try from 47 yards with six minutes to go, it looked like Detroit might win this meetin' of the unbeaten.

But in the final minute, Adderley intercepted a Plum pass on the Green Bay 42 and ran it back 40 yards to the Lions' 18. After two running plays gained five yards, Hornung made his game-winning 21-yard kick. His league-leading scoring total now is 55 points. Adderley has made four of Green Bay's 13 pass interceptions.

The child labor law in agriculture prohibits the employment of youngsters under 16 years of age during school hours, said Frank B. Reeder of Portland, field office supervisor with wage and hour public contracts divisions. The Fair Labor Standards act, which includes child-labor provisions, applies to employment in interstate commerce or the production of goods for interstate commerce. Reeder said that children should obtain the maximum amount of education in this age of rapid technological change. Persons hiring 14 and 15-year-olds, he said, should set up working hours that do not interfere with schooling.

Forty Niner Club Upsets Baltimore

San Francisco —(UPI)— The San Francisco Forty Niners were home from Maryland today with a 2-2 record for the season, a respectable count that looked diametrically far away a few weeks ago. The Forty Niners combined the talents of John Brodie, J. D. Smith and Bill Kilmer to down the Baltimore Colts 21-13 Sunday. Charley Krueger, Leo Nomellini, Clark Miller and Dan Colchico led a San Francisco defense that shook up Baltimore's Johnny Unitas. The star signal caller completed only eight of 15 passes for a total of 82 yards with no touchdowns. The Forty Niners suffered early season defeats to Chicago and Detroit and their victory over the Minnesota Vikings a week ago was no smash hit. But San Francisco combined a solid ground game with passing to upset the favored Colts and leave Baltimore with a 2-2 record in the National Football League. Tight spots came for the Californians when they handed the Colts the ball three times through fumbles. One bobble was by Kilmer at the goal line. The Forty Niners scored in the first quarter with Kilmer's five-yard run after an 80-yard drive in a dozen plays. The second tally came in the third quarter on a seven-play drive for 27 yards, culminated by a four-yard pass from Brodie to Monte Stickles. The Colts scored in the fourth when Alex Hawkins plunged one yard after a 41-yard drive in 11 plays. Hawkins scored Baltimore's second touchdown on a two-yard plunge. Kilmer made a one-yard plunge for the Forty Niners' third tally after a 63-yard drive in 15 plays. Unitas was the spark plug for the Colts' second touchdown as he hit on five passes to set up Hawkins' plunge. But the Forty Niners put out some of the spark by blocking the conversion. A crowd of 54,158, watched the game.

San Diego Chargers Down Dallas Texans

United Press International It looks like the San Diego Chargers have found a new winning formula with rookie quarterback John Hadl, but if George Blanda doesn't recover the old one for the Houston Oilers the American Football League champs could have trouble. Hadl passed for two touchdowns and ran for another Sunday as the Chargers handed the Dallas Texans their first defeat of the season, 32-28. The Oilers won, too, but it required a last-minute touchdown pass by Blanda to beat the winless Buffalo Bills, 17-14. Blanda finally came through after one of his poorest professional performances. On Saturday night, the Boston Patriots drubbed the New York Titans, 43-14, while on Friday the Denver Broncos clobbered the Oakland Raiders, 44-7. The weekend results left Houston and Boston tied for first place in the Eastern division with 3-1 records. There is a wide-open race in the West, however, Denver leading with 4-1, Dallas next with 3-1 and San Diego third with 3-2. Sunday's victory over Dallas was the Chargers' second straight since Hadl took over the first-string quarterback job.

Baker Praised By His Coach

Stanford, Calif. —(UPI)— "Terry Baker is the greatest quarterback who ever played college football." So said Oregon State Coach Tommy Prothro after Baker led the Beavers to a 27-0 upset victory over Stanford Saturday. Baker scored two touchdowns and gained 217 total yards. Oregon State, rated a 6½-point underdog, handed the Indians their first loss of the season in three starts. The Californians team went into the game fresh from an upset win over Michigan State. "They gave us an old country lickin'," Stanford Coach Jack Curtice said. "We tried everything possible to stop Baker's passing. But he is a cool cookie who can stay back there and pick your eyes out." "Our team was very down after getting beaten by Iowa a 28-8 loss last week and was out to make up for it," Prothro said. "And in a way that loss to Iowa actually helped us beat Stanford."
