Poland Train Wreck Leaves 11 Victims

Warsaw, Poland—Eleven persons were killed and 53 injured in a train collision 80 miles south of here Tuesday night, railroad officials said today.

The accident happened near Piotrkow-Trybunalski at the Jarosty Railroad Station, where three coaches tore off the southbound express and blocked the opposite track. They were struck by a northbound train traveling at 60 miles an hour.

About 20 coaches were wrecked, and 16 derailed.
