

Home Rites Wed Couple

Miss Melba Jeanne Klatt became the bride of Gaylord Keith Vasconcellos, San Francisco, in a ceremony held October 6 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Klatt, 204 Medford Heights lane, Medford.

The Rev. John E. Simon of St. Peter's Lutheran church officiated at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony attended by 40 relatives and friends of the couple. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Arnold Vasconcellos, San Francisco, who was in Medford for the wedding, and the late Mr. Vasconcellos.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Oregon State university. She has been an airline hostess with Trans World Airlines. Mr. Vasconcellos is a graduate of San Francisco city college and served as a lieutenant in the U. S. Marine corps. He is a pilot with Trans World Airlines.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon length white silk organza frock over white satin. It was appliqued with embroidered rose buds and her shoulder length veil was held by a small crown of roses and seed pearls. She carried white roses on a white Bible.

One Attendant
Miss Constance Guancione, San Jose, Calif., attended the bride. She wore a satin frock in a deep lavender shade and her flowers were pink and white carnations.

Wayne LaVelle, San Jose, Calif., served as best man. Baskets of pink and white gladioli and candles in candelabra at the fireplace served as the background for the wedding party. Bouquets of flowers decorated the other parts of the house. Roy Van Pelt, Klamath Falls, played the organ wedding music.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served at the Klatt home. Assisting with the serving were the bride's three sisters; Mrs. Larue Smith cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Boyd Berquist, Eugene, poured coffee and Mrs. Gordon Falk served.

Mrs. Chris Hutton presided at the punch bowl.

The couple traveled to Carmel, Calif., on their wedding trip the bride wearing a deep mauve suit with black accessories and a white rosebud corsage. They are making their home in San Carlos, Calif.

The bride was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta social sorority while at Oregon State university. During the past two years she has lived in Detroit, Mich., Kansas City, Mo., and San Francisco while an airline stewardess. Mr. Vasconcellos is based at San Francisco International Airport flying routes to the East coast.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mrs. Vasconcellos, San Francisco, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Florence Klatt, Oakland, Calif., grandmother of the bride; Frank and Angela Stefan, all San Francisco; Mrs. J. Q. VanPelt and Roy Van Pelt, Klamath Falls; Mr. Berquist, Eugene, and Mrs. LaVelle, San Jose.
