

Nine Brothers, Sisters at Rites

When Miss Esther Jacobs became the bride of Michael E. Kroh on September 29, seven of the bride's eight sisters and her two brothers took part in the wedding ceremony, or the reception which followed, at The First Assembly of God church in Medford. The bride had been dedicated in the same church at the age of two weeks.

The Rev. Robert E. Cull performed the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening. About 250 guests attended.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Jacobs, Route

4, Box 350-N-2, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Kroh, Westminster, Calif.

Miss Lenore Jacobs was honor attendant for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Jackson, San Francisco, Miss Joyce Henson, and Miss Elizabeth Goodson.

Carol Jacobs, another sister, was flower girl, and Delbert Jerry Ansures, Rogue River, a nephew of the bride, carried the rings.

E. Earl Stansfield served as best man, and seating the guests were Don Jacobs Jr., and D. Lorin Jacobs, brothers of the bride, and Don Strong, Ashland.

Escorted By Father

Mr. Jacobs escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her satin lace gown was similar to the one worn by Miss America of 1961 when she was chosen during the pageant. It was designed with a scoop neckline and the long sleeves were trimmed with Chantilly lace. The bodice was fitted and the full skirt was floor length. Her shoulder length veil was held from a crown of pearls and rhinestones. The bride carried a white orchid with Stephanotis on a small Bible which has belonged to the Jacobs family since 1860.

Her attendants wore gold satin gowns and their golden veils were held by matching gold headbands. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of white gladiolus and the bridesmaids' bouquets were white spider chrysanthemums.

The flower girl's dress was of gold crystalline and the candlelighters, Lois Jacobs, a sister of the bride, and Linda Chastain, a niece, wore gold overskirts. Their wristlet corsages were of white chrysanthemums.

Bronze and gold gladiolus and chrysanthemums decorated the church and white bows marked the pew ends.

Mrs. George Heide was organist and Miss Ethel Jacobs, a sister of the bride, furnished a whistling solo.

Sisters Serve
During the reception Mrs. Alfred Bendickson cut the wedding cake, a gift to the bride and bridegroom from Mrs. Guy Erickson, who had baked and decorated it.

Mrs. Don Jacobs Jr., a sister-in-law of the bride, served the punch and Mrs. Wallace Bowen was in charge of gifts.

Mrs. Chester Martin, Bremerton, Wash., Mrs. Eldon Chastain, and Mrs. James Kendrick of Hayward, Calif., sisters of the bride, served and Miss Deanne Strong registered the guests.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. Kendrick; Mr. and Mrs. John Goodson, and family, Glendale, Ore., and Norman Hagner, Redwood, Ore.

The couple made a wedding trip to Yosemite National park enroute to their new home in Westminster, Calif., where the bridegroom is employed in an electronics plant. For traveling the bride wore a grey checkered wool suit with red accessories and her corsage was from her wedding bouquet.

The bride attended Medford High school, and nursing school in San Francisco. She had been employed as a nurse's aide at Sacred Heart hospital.

Previous to the wedding two showers were held in honor of the bride-elect. One, a linen shower, was given by nurses at Sacred Heart hospital. The other was given by Mrs. Amanda Cherry in her home at 24 Myers court. About 25 persons attended.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a powder blue nylon lace

Mrs. H. F. Jenkins (at left) and Mrs. Leon G. Sharyon were on the committee which served refreshments for the 50th anniversary party of Ashland Study club held Monday, October 8, at Trinity Parish house. Mrs. Sharyon cut the decorated cake made especially for the anniversary tea. (Knackstedt photo)

Violinist To Appear

Stephen Hero, Forest Hills, N.Y., internationally known violinist, will appear in concert for the fifth consecutive season at Southern Oregon college Friday, October 26. He will be accompanied for the third time by Bruno Pellegrini, well-known Medford pianist and teacher.

Mr. Hero, born in New York City, began the study of violin at the age of five with his father, Simon Hero. He later was a scholarship student of Jacques Thibaud in Paris and St. Jean de Luz. In the United States he continued his studies with Louis Persinger and other masters who offered him scholarships were Mischa Elman, Georges Enesco and Carl Flesch.

The violinist has appeared as guest artist with over 40 symphonic groups including Montreal, Toronto and Mexico City. At the age of 12 he was guest soloist with the Warsaw Philharmonic orchestra.

The Roxy Ann Home Economics club will meet Wednesday, October 17 at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Kenneth D. Shaw, 2220 Spring street. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Steven McMahan.

Mrs. Squire Honored By Ashland Business Women

Ashland - Highlight of the 1962 observance of Business and Professional Women's Club week was the Wednesday evening dinner served in Wesley house to more than 40 members and guests.

Honored as the outstanding woman of Ashland BPWC by being named Beep of the Week, was Mrs. Viola Squire, a past president and a charter member of the club. The award was announced by Mrs. Lillian Jennings, past year's winner of the title, who revealed the club's choice and presented the traditional insignia and a corsage of chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Squire combines a business career as bookkeeper with her family life as the wife of Dr. C. C. Squire, professor of education at Southern Oregon college. She is the mother of two teen-age sons, David, 18, a freshman this year at Oregon State university, and 16-year-old Wayne, who is in high school. She has been active in civic groups and a leader in Parent-Teacher work and last year was nominated for the Ashland Woman of the Year award by the Garden club.

According to Mrs. Jennings, her services to the Ashland Business and Professional Women's club have been many and "beyond the call of duty."

Mrs. Frances Gallatin, justice of the peace, was the evening's speaker, and Mrs. Nell Faulkner, Medford club's 1962 Beep, was one of the honored guests. Other dinner guests included nine members from Medford and several visitors who are new in the community this fall.

Similarity of Purpose

Likening club work to administration of court justice, Mrs. Gallatin emphasized the similarity of purpose and the opportunities offered in both. She described many of the problems which she faces in rendering fair decisions and told of instances that prove difficult. Mrs. Gallatin said that the Ashland justice court is the largest of its kind in Oregon. In it are handled cases below circuit court level and outside of the municipal jurisdiction. She is also frequently called upon to perform marriage ceremonies.

In answer to questions from the audience the speaker replied that most juvenile cases stem from broken homes or unhealthy environment. She remarked that she has always required modest dress and has refused to admit wearers of shorts and open shirts to appear in her court.

Mrs. Alice Arnold headed the committee that served the dinner and Dr. Ruth Bebbler, club president, presided over the program and later conducted the business session. Mrs. Eileen Wright introduced the speaker.

During the business meeting at the conclusion of the evening the budget was presented by Mrs. Beatrice Lindsay and accepted without change. Plans for the fall rummage sale October 19 and 20 were completed and the fund raising projects were discussed.

Legislative Program
November 7 Mrs. Jennings and Dr. Phyllis Butler will be in charge of the program on legislation. The club theme centers about opening doors to opportunity, to knowledge and to new friends. The national program is based upon "Leadership, a Dimension in Democracy," encompassing the fields of career and business for women in community and nation. Special emphasis is placed upon training of young women and encouraging them in their choice of life work.

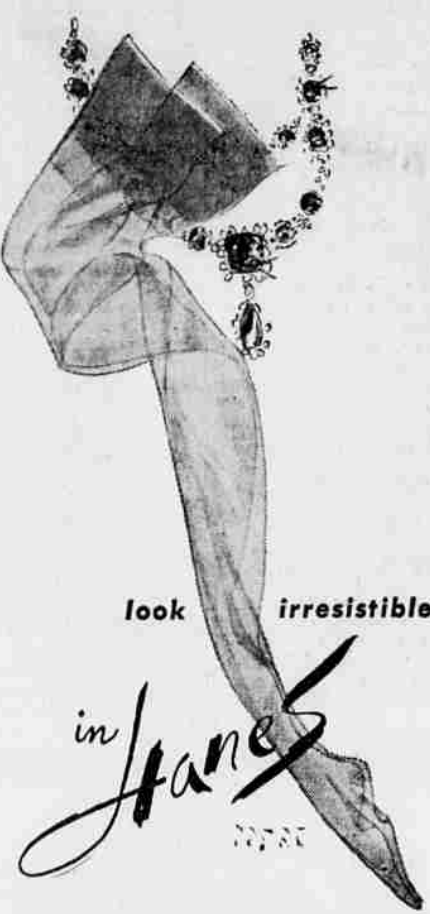

The Ashland club has as one of its projects recognition of the outstanding high school senior girl of each six-week term and at the close of the year presentation of a government bond to the Girl of the Year.

Set Dinner Meeting
Oregon chapter, Royal Arch Masons and Royal Arch Widows will meet for a potluck dinner Tuesday, October 16 at 6:30 p.m., in the Jacksonville Odd Fellows hall.

All Royal Arch Masons and their wives are invited. The committee for the evening will be Mrs. Albert Griffin, Mrs. Donald Wendt, Mrs. Minnie Offenbacher and Mrs. Fred Offenbacher.

Navy Mothers Club Schedules Luncheon

A noon potluck luncheon will be served by Navy Mothers club women when they meet Tuesday, October 16 at the home of Mrs. C. R. Alexander, 110 Almond street, Medford. All mothers of Navy personnel, sons or daughters, are invited.
