

Mr. and Mrs. James Michael Allen
(Knackstedt photo)

Couple Wed In Ceremony At Yreka

Yreka — Miss Barbara Betts of Montague became the bride of Larry Lee of Weed in a ceremony at St. Mark's Episcopal church September 22. The Rev. William Holt officiated at the four o'clock ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ernest Betts and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lee, Weed.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore a street-length gown of white lace over tulle with sleeveless bodice topped by a lace jacket with a bateau neckline and three-quarter-length sleeves. A pearl crown held her shoulder length veil of illusion net and her bouquet was an orchid encircled by stephanotis and carried on a white prayer book.

Miss Sheila Finwall, Yreka, college roommate of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a pink dress styled as the bride's gown and her headpiece was a pink crown trimmed with pearls and pink veiling. She carried white gladioli.

Patrick Mulvaney, Weed, was best man.

Debbie Morrison of Eureka, the bridegroom's cousin, served as flower girl wearing a ruffled pink nylon dress. She carried a small basket of pink roses and wore a halo of the same flowers.

Kim Currie, Yreka, carried the rings for the double ring ceremony.

Seating the guests were Peter and Frank Mazzel of Weed.

A large reception was held in St. Joseph's hall after the marriage. Presiding over the guest book, cake, punch bowl and gifts were the Misses Dar-aldyn Ellis, Karen Currie, Candy Smith and Sue Henry.

The bride's cousins, the Misses Pamela Broad and Carolyn Fincher, helped distribute the rice, bridegroom's cake and children's beverages. Henry McNeil served the champagne, assisted by the bridegroom's uncle, Gerald Morrison. Mrs. Herman Hammack made the bridegroom's cake.

The new Mrs. Lee wore a pink sheath dress with white accessories for traveling. The newlyweds are living at the Cascade Apartments, Weed.

The week before the wedding, a bridal shower was given at Willow Creek school by Mrs. Keith Severns, Mrs. Sheril Currie and Mrs. Wayne Spencer. The schoolroom was decorated with flowers and wedding bells. A pink and white cake shaped like an old-fashioned lady, made by Mrs. Sam Cairns, was the table centerpiece.

burg High school. He is to graduate from Southern Oregon college next spring.

After the wedding rehearsal a buffet supper was served in the home of the bride for the wedding group.

Miss Lettman's gown was of yellow tulle and the bridegroom attended Rose-

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Eugene Jensen

Couple Married Recently In Naval Station Chapel

The Good Shepherd chapel at the Oceana Air Base in Norfolk, Va., was the scene of a marriage of local interest last month when Miss Carol Haynes, Jacksonville, Fla., became the bride of Dennis Eugene Jensen of Medford.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord L. Thomas of Jacksonville and Newport News, Va., and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Swain Jensen, Foothills rd., Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen journeyed to Virginia to attend the ceremony which was held Saturday, September 15 at 2 o'clock with the Rev. R. Clarence Powell, Jr., chaplain officiating.

In the absence of the bride's father, who was serving aboard the USS Enterprise, she was escorted to the altar by Don Benton, a family friend. The chapel was decorated in white.

Maid of honor was Miss Sara Ann Patyk, Newport News, and the bridegroom's father served as his best man. Others in the wedding party included friends of the bridegroom who are fellow crew members on the USS Thomas Jefferson.

Wears Organza
The bride's gown was of ballerina length silk organza over a beige tulle and her fingertip length veil was of imported illusion arranged from a queen's crown of silk organza. She carried a nosegay of butterfly roses and the bridesmaid carried a nosegay of pompon chrysanthemums in shades of lavender.

The bride's mother wore a beige silk suit and Mrs. Jensen wore a cocoa brown and beige knit suit. Their corsages were of yellow and brown orchids.

The rehearsal dinner given by the bridegroom's parents was held at the Golden Dragon in Virginia Beach. The new Mrs. Jensen attended schools in Jacksonville, and was graduated from high school in Virginia Beach. The bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school where he was active in sports and a member of the football squad. After graduation, he enlisted in the Navy and was the first from this area to be chosen for extensive training in the new Polaris missile submarine service. He is now attached to the Thomas Jefferson, a new submarine soon to be commissioned. The newlyweds will make their home in Virginia.

On the return trip the bridegroom's parents stopped in Cedar Rapids and West Branch, Iowa, Mr. Jensen's former home, to visit relatives and friends.

While in West Branch, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jensen, a brother, entertained in their honor at a dinner and open house.

In Norfolk, they enjoyed an extensive tour of the shipyards and the naval air base.

Salad will be served.

Ladies of Elks Schedule Party
Wives, widows and mothers of Elks lodge members, whether local or from out of town, are invited to attend an afternoon of cards with the Ladies of Elks Tuesday, October 16 at 1 p.m., in the Elks club downstairs party room.

Pinochle, canasta and bridge will be in play and pre-arranged foursomes are not necessary for the parties, which are held the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

Hostesses for the October 16 event will be Mrs. Berrill C. Morey, Mrs. Paul W. Johnson and Mrs. James A. Grigsby.

Salad will be served.

Missionary Is Speaker For Welfare
Steven Oliver, a missionary from a South African leper colony, on leave to study anesthesia at a Portland hospital was the guest speaker at the bi-annual meeting of the Seventh-day Adventist welfare group held recently at the Bellview Grange hall in Ashland.

He accompanied Elder C. J. Ritchie, who is in charge of the welfare groups for the Oregon conference.

Also there were Elders Kenneth McVay, Klamath Falls, and Arvin Winkle, pastor of the Valley View church. Pastor Winkle gave the devotional and sang a solo.

Mrs. Ellsworth Bray, Rogue River, retiring president, directed the program.

The Ashland group, with Mrs. Mae Glidden as leader, acted as host and served the buffet luncheon during the noon hour. Eighty women attended.

Roll call and the bi-annual reports were taken by Mrs. Merlin Dewey, retiring secretary. Combined totals reported were, articles of clothing distributed, 26,020; food baskets and furniture given, 740; hours of donated service, 13,358; total cash value of $37,298.66.

Election of officers for the next two year term are as follows: Mrs. Audrey Dunlap, Medford, president; Mrs. Ervin Adams, Valley View, vice-president; Mrs. Eli Davis, Central Point, secretary and Mrs. Herschel Harper, Eagle Point, assistant secretary.

Anyone in need of assistance is invited to call any one of the officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Fraysher have returned to their home at 2035 Sunset drive after an absence of a month. They traveled through California, Arizona and New Mexico to Tulsa, Okla., where they visited friends and relatives.

FOE Auxiliary Head To Visit

Mrs. Wilfred Fordham, Bend, president of the auxiliary to the Oregon state Fraternal Order of Eagles, will speak to the members of the auxiliary to Crater Lake aerie Thursday, October 18 at 8 p.m., in the Eagles hall. Announcement of the meeting was made by Mrs. Wayne Smith, local auxiliary president.

Charter members and past presidents will be honored. A no host dinner at 6:30 p.m., in the Town House restaurant will honor the state president.

Mrs. Fordham's topic will concern a recent national convention in Pittsburgh, Pa., and she will outline the state auxiliary program for the fiscal year.

Mrs. Fordham is a longtime member of the Bend auxiliary, has served as its president, been a member of its drill team and has served on many state and local auxiliary committees.

Encampment Has Meeting

Yreka — Siskiyou Ladies Encampment auxiliary met recently in the IOOF temple in Yreka, with the chief matriarch, Mrs. Bill Singleton presiding.

Matriarch Mrs. Victor Henderson was elected delegate to Grand LEA which starts today in Fresno, and continues through October 19.

Laurel chapter, Theta Rho Girls club, will have a Halloween carnival October 29.

A letter of appreciation was read from the outgoing District Deputy Grand Matriarch Winnifred Kirkpatrick.

Plans were made for a potluck dinner and roll call meeting for the next meeting which will be November 6.

Siskiyou encampment met the same evening. The Golden Rule degree was conferred on Bill Nelson, Yreka, and Allen Gist, McClell. The Royal Purple degree will be conferred November 6.

Following the meetings the members joined in the dining room for refreshments.

Festival Scheduled

A Harvest festival and silver tea will be conducted by members of the Rogue Valley Herb society Tuesday, October 16 from 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., in the Girls Community club. The public is invited to attend.

Breads, cookies, jams, jellies, vinegars and gifts made from herbs will be displayed as well as herb plants.

At the last meeting of the society Mrs. Kay Green lectured on herb arrangements and showed types to be used for various occasions. Mrs. Charles Ray had the exhibit for the day. Mrs. Otto Nagel and Mrs. Melchior Heckenberger served refreshments using herbs.

A visitor in Medford Thursday will be Mrs. Wilfred Fordham, Bend, president of the auxiliary to the Oregon Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Clothing Drive Now In Progress

The annual used clothing drive sponsored by the Medford Council of United Church women in connection with Church World service is now in progress and will continue through October.

Good used clothing for all ages, men, women and children, is needed, the church women point out. The clothing is sent to areas of greatest need, both overseas and at home.

Good blankets are "desperately needed" to fill the calls of flood and disaster victims, it is said.

Items which cannot be used include pillows or mattresses, hats, neckties, bathing suits, or formal garments.

All donations can be taken before October 28 to either the First Methodist church, 607 West Main street, or the Westminster Presbyterian church, 2000 Oakwood drive.

Other church groups or organizations are invited to participate in the project and the clothing given through other groups will be boxed and labeled with the organization's return address.

Further information may be obtained by calling telephone 772-8750 or 664-1748.

Dinner Meeting Planned Monday

The first dinner meeting of the Jackson County Classroom Teachers association for this fall will be held at Central Point in the Jewett Elementary school cafeteria at 6:30 p.m. Monday, October 15. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

The speaker for the dinner will be Dr. Richard Gilkey, director of the Jackson county curriculum materials center. His topic will be "Local Production of Instructional Materials—An Avenue to Effective Instruction."

Men of Unity To Meet Monday

The Men of Unity plan a potluck dinner for Monday, October 15 at 6:30 p.m., in the Unity church, Holly and Haven streets. All men who are interested are invited, whether or not they are members.

Talent Group Sets Meeting

Talent—Mrs. Damon Floyd is in charge of the program planned for members of the Priscilla circle in the Talent Methodist church annex Monday, October 15. Mrs. Iva Tuggle, president, is to preside.

Sobbing Sims Says:

Our New 1962-63

HOBBY CATALOGS

Are In. Ask For Yours

FREE!

PINKING SHEARS

FOR CLOTH, PAPER, etc.

EDGING, TRIMMING, DESIGNING

BLACKENAMELED HANDLES

7" LONG

Serves many practical uses in the Home, Office, School and Factory

66¢ With Ad This

Mosaic Tile Headquarters!

3/4 Ceramic Tile Sheet 49¢

3/8 Oriental Tile Sheet 84¢

Granite Gems for Pebble Mosaics

25 Colors

SIMS Cycle & Hobby Shop
23 No. Fir • 772-2472

Burelson's
Downtown Medford

Park Shop

Open Fridays Until 9 P.M.

the latest! the greatest!

ROYALON U.S.

Eskiloo's

Cavalier 12.95

Frost Guard 11.95

new "cold-weather flats" to wear rain, snow or shine!

Brand-new and light as a shoe! You'll wear your Eskiloo's everywhere—you'll fall in love with their handsome shoe texture and their marvelous easy-care ways. Because new Eskiloo's are made of Royalon, the miraculous, soft and comfortable new "U.S." material that doesn't crack in the cold or stain in the slush and wipes clean as new with water! So get ready, get set, go everywhere this winter in Eskiloo's. Come in for your pair today! Warmly lined, and in Narrow and Medium widths for just-right fit.

Shop Every Friday Night Until 9

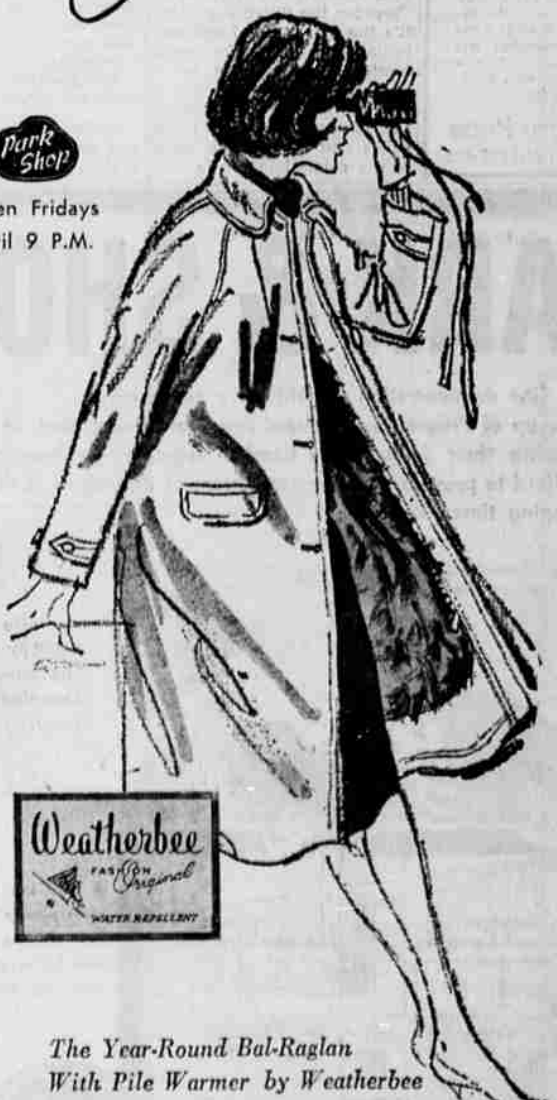

Park Shop

Main and Bartlett Streets

Phone 772-6428

Downtown Medford

Burelson's
Shoe Salon

The Year-Round Bal-Raglan

With Pile Warmer by Weatherbee

The fashion way to face any season . . . the two-in-one cotton poplin coat, Zelan-treated for rain or shine. Complete with full sleeved zip-in-or-out warmer of Crestan® luxury pile . . . to travel from climate to climate. Black/olive with martini pile.

$39.98

YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT INVITED!

Main and Bartlett Sts.

Phone 772-6428

Bell's
HOMEWARES

A CHALLENGE TO COMPARE

SALE

Informal True China by Iroquois

"Harvest Time" Pattern. One of many to choose from.

Iroquois Informal china is the most brilliant concept in dinnerware in the history of homemaking! WE CHALLENGE YOU TO COMPARE Informal with any china for beauty and elegance . . . with any tableware for break-resistance, stain-resistance, knife scratching and everyday practicality. Informal is completely safe in the dishwasher and is detergent-proof.

You Can Cook, Bake, Broil — Even Fry in This Beautiful True China

Replaced Free If It Chips Or Breaks
* In Accordance with Warranty

Made in America by Americans

ACT NOW!
4-Piece Place Setting
$4.99

16-Pc. Service for Four
$17.95
$32.80 if purchased from open stock

Bell's HOMEWARES
323 EAST MAIN PH. 772-2133