School News

Jackson School

Many extracurricular activities have been done during the first four weeks of school. All students have been weighed and measured. After eye tests were given there are several new pairs of glasses being worn.

Football season is in full swing and all football boys have been given a physical examination.

Martin Holmes, state supervisor of school safety patrols and Capt. Clyde Fichtner installed all safety patrol members Oct. 2.

The United Crusade drive is finished—Jackson school participated 100 per cent.

The Oregon Educational and national education dues have been paid 100 per cent by Jackson school teachers. They are also 100 per cent in the Medford City Teachers association, Medford Grade teacher and Jackson Parent-Teacher association.

The first grade parents tea Sept. 28 was well attended.

Steve Whipple is the director of the band classes which meet each Tuesday and Thursday during activity period. The orchestra, under the direction of Miss Alice Saunders practices each Tuesday and Thursday. Mrs. Margaret Nesheim is the music teacher for chorus which meets each Monday and Wednesday.

During September there were 1,623 books checked out of the school library.

All bicycles ridden to school were given a safety inspection Oct. 3 with many students receiving safety awards. Others were shown what was needed to make their bicycles safe.

The Jackson School P.E. club was organized and performed at the first football game.

In addition to these activities much reading, writing and arithmetic have been taught. One reason for this well organized system is the fact that the teachers worked one week at school prior to the opening of school.

A remedial class in fifth and sixth grade reading started Oct. 8 with classes meeting daily at 7:45 a.m. for six weeks.

Hedrick Junior High

By Susan Beals

The Hedrick Varsity Yell Leaders took a trip to Hayward school Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 10:45 a.m. The Hedrick yell leaders helped the Hayward school yell leaders with several yells, including their school song. There was a special fried chicken lunch prepared by Hayward school cooks for Hedrick yell leaders.

There was a Y dance at the YMCA Saturday, Oct. 13, for junior high students. The music was furnished by the Fenders and by records during intermission. The dance was well attended.

Assemblies were held Thursday. Each class had a separate assembly and their candidates gave speeches. The girls running for eighth and seventh grade yell leaders lead yells.

The Hedrick ninth grade football game will be played Oct. 19. The ninth grade will play Ashland at Ashland. The Hedrick Red and Blue seventh grade football teams will be playing each other here Oct. 19. The eighth grade team plays Central Point Saturday, Oct. 20, at Central Point.

Grange News

Phoenix Grange met with Master Lloyd Lacy presiding. Larry Ritchie showed slides and spoke on his trip to Poland and Switzerland and other European countries he visited in July. Myrtle Hixon gave a reading on stamps.

Charley Hoekersmith reported on alfalfa seed condition in the valley. Mervin Hixon reported that calf prices were considerably lower than in spring. Vaughn Quackenbush spoke on the good pear crop, saying that the pear decline condition was very much improved in the valley.

Phoenix Grange will be host to political candidates at a ham dinner at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 20, at the Grange. Candidates will speak following the dinner. Booster night will be held Tuesday, Oct. 23, with a covered dish dinner at 6:30 p.m.
