Moonlight Dance Set By Group

A Moonlight dance is being planned on the streets of Medford by the Twirlers Square Dance club for Friday, October 26. The gay event will be held at the corner of Main and Bartlett streets from 8:30 until 11 p.m. and will be part of the Medford Merchants' Moonlight sale that night.

All square dance enthusiasts are invited to take part. Saturday, October 20, the Twirlers will hold a potluck dessert and dance at the Phoenix Community hall at 8:30 p.m. All square dancers are welcome.

The club has adopted a slogan, "It's time for a change." Transformations have included a new name, a new turquoise and black banner, matching attire and plans for a new location. The site is on Shultz road near the Medford airport. Materials salvaged from the old Gold Hill railroad station building, purchased by the Twirlers in 1961 for this purpose, will be used in constructing the new hall. Many money raising activities are planned, and a recent rummage sale was declared successful.

Also changed is the location for the fall classes which were postponed earlier. Registration for the beginning Twirler square dance classes will begin Monday, October 29, at 8 p.m. at the Wilson school gymnasium, Medford.

Baked Fish Fillets Make Piquant Inexpensive Dish

Fish is rich in proteins, fats, minerals and vitamins that our bodies need. Usually shoppers can choose from a broad selection of quality fresh fish at lower prices throughout the year.

Fillets in particular can be found among the least expensive. In the Rogue valley area several choices are available throughout the year and include fillets of sea bass, perch, red snapper, rock cod, sole and flounder.

A recipe for baking fillets of such fish uses a delicately-flavored sauce of sour cream blended with grated Parmesan cheese, salt, paprika and Tabasco, the liquid pepper spice. The liquid seasoning is perfect in this sauce as it blends in smoothly leaving no unsightly specks.

Rewards Great The art of fish cookery is a deceptively simple one. Once you have mastered the basic principles of preparation, the rewards in flavor and tenderness are great. The purpose of cooking fish is not really to make it tender, for fish in its raw state is already as tender as could be desired. Witness the fact that the Japanese eat much of their fish raw; Americans cook it simply to develop its flavor and coagulate the protein. Since overcooking dries and toughens the flesh, baking fish in a piquant sauce is a delicious way to enjoy it.

Four teaspoons butter or margarine, divided; two pounds fillets of fish (sole, flounder, red snapper, sea bass, etc.); one teaspoon salt; one-half teaspoon Tabasco; one tablespoon paprika; one-fourth cup grated Parmesan cheese; one cup commercial sour cream; one-fourth cup fine dry bread crumbs. Grease two-quart baking dish with one teaspoon of butter. Arrange fish in baking dish. Blend salt, Tabasco, paprika and Parmesan cheese into sour cream. Spread over fish. Top with bread crumbs and dot with remaining three teaspoons butter.

Bake, uncovered, in moderate oven (350 degrees F) 30 minutes until fish is easily flaked with a fork. Serve with lemon slices if desired.

The yield is from four to six servings.

Student To Talk on Pilgrimage

Paul Goodwin, Medford High school student who was chosen for the Independent Order of Oddfellow and Rebekah lodges United Nations pilgrimage last summer, will speak and report on his trip at a meeting next week. It is set for Tuesday, October 23, at 8 p.m. in the Medford High school auditorium and anyone interested in the United Nations is invited to attend.

The student will also show slides of his trip.

Guests will include local exchange students, who will be introduced, and one of the chairmen of the pilgrimage project in Oregon will be present to answer questions. Refreshments will be served.

Young Goodwin made the trip east last summer with other winners in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. They went by chartered bus and visited points of historic interest as well as the United Nations building. The Medford student was the 13th to be sent on the pilgrimage from this district, since Oregon was one of the first states to take part in the program developed by the two lodges.

Lodge officials point out that the pilgrimage was started in 1947. Students are chosen on the basis of a contest. Jackson and Josephine counties make up this district, and any sophomore or junior between the ages of 16 and 18 years is eligible to enter.
