'Treasures' To Be Sold To Raise League Money

Many a woman has said in jest "I don't give away my old clothes to rummage sales - I wear them!" This week, women interested in financing the Broadway Theater league are going to ransack their closets and attics - and those of their friends and neighbors, put on the garments and hats and jewelry that they are willing to sacrifice for the cause, and then wear them. What's more, they are going to wear them downtown and to parties and on a door-to-door hunt for salable articles.

All this will be done to advertise an "Attic Treasures" sale which the board of the Theater league will hold at 122 East Main street, the former location of Weisfield's, October 26-27. Tuesday morning a series of coffees will be given by the women and their friends and at noon the group will have luncheon together at Rogue Valley Country club - wearing and carrying the "attic treasures."

Some may take along original paintings by Rogue valley artists, for 14 have already been donated for the sale. The board members are also planning to collect other art objects, white elephants, jewelry and anything else which they believe can be sold.

In addition to the "treasures," cooked food will be sold.

As an afterthought, the committee decided on one more unique touch for this extraordinary effort. The sale will be conducted to music.

All this doesn't mean that anyone interested cannot buy Theater league tickets for the coming season of four plays. Those still wishing tickets may call Mrs. Arlon Skinner.

Reaves-Briggs Rites Announced

Shady Cove-Trail—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reaves are making their home at 1119 East Jackson street, Medford, following their return from Reno, Nevada, where they were married October 6.

Mrs. Reaves is the former Phyllis Anne Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Briggs. Mr. Reaves' parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Reaves, Central Point.

The wedding was held in the Park Wedding chapel.

Mrs. Reaves is a graduate of Eagle Point High school and attended Southern Oregon college and the University of Oregon. She is a laboratory and dental technician for Dr. David P. Engelstein in Medford.

Judy Ann Gamble

Betrothal News Is Made Known

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Lomax, 620 Ray lane, Ashland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judy Ann Gamble, to Bernal A. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew E. Stevens, 5055 South Pacific highway, Medford.

Miss Gamble is a 1961 graduate of Ashland High school. Mr. Stevens, a graduate of Phoenix High school, served four years with the submarine branch of the United States Navy. He is engaged in farming near Ashland.

A wedding date has not been set by the couple.

Kiwanian Dames To Nominate

The nominating committee of the Kiwanian Dames will present its recommendations for next year's officers at the Tuesday, October 23, meeting at the home of Mrs. A. H. Schmechel, 441 Eastwood drive.

The event will be the monthly noon luncheon and meeting. Hostesses will be Mrs. Harry Covert, Mrs. John Reynolds and Mrs. Chester Jones.

All wives of Kiwanians are invited to attend.

Activities and Projects Planned by Junior Women

Coming social activities and projects of the Medford Junior Women's club were announced at the last meeting of the group at the home of Mrs. Eugene Cossette, 309 Stanley avenue.

Mrs. Jack L. Holmes, sales chairman for the social and appointment calendar, announced that calendars are still available. Persons wishing to make purchases may contact her or Mrs. William Clegg, 772-2148. They are also available at Johnston and Stewart Shoe store and LaPointe's.

Mrs. F. D. Nelson, club president, reminded members that they will be asked to assist the state organization in the selection of a new junior project for the coming administration. Last year the group assisted with the support of the Lazy J Ranch for retarded boys near Portland.

Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, coordinating chairman for the bicycle safety rodeo, reminded members of the riding skills tests for youngsters who have completed their safety inspection and written tests at the schools.

The club will have a guest social meeting Wednesday,

October 24, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Grigsby Jr., 2886 La Pine avenue.

At the last meeting Dr. Eugene Bowman of Southern Oregon college spoke of his two years service in Ecuador under the auspices of the U. S. Aid Agency For International development.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, November 14, at the home of Mrs. Truman A. Nelson, 333 Lindero avenue.

Guests attending the recent meeting were Mrs. Robert M. Wickman, Mrs. Keith Schulz, Mrs. Richard D. Nelson, Mrs. John K. Shea, Mrs. Robert Fry, Mrs. Eric Carlson, Mrs. James C. Walt, Mrs. John R. Dumas, Mrs. R. E. Dyer, Mrs. Gary S. King, Mrs. Wayne Frostad, Mrs. James A. Butler, Mrs. John S. Humphrey, and Mrs. Robert B. Stuart.

Chapter AA "Religious Cultures," will be the program title for Mrs. Robert Dames when she speaks to members of Chapter AA, PEO Wednesday, October 24 at 12:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. C. C. Thompson, Central Point.

The hostesses will be Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Mrs. Alfred C. McDonald.

Miss Wyatt To Be Guest At Workshop Banquet

Delegates from throughout Oregon are expected to attend a two-day workshop for members of the Christian Business and Professional Women's club and the Christian Women's council to be held October 26 and 27 in the Josephine county fairgrounds pavilion in Grants Pass.

Both men and women are invited to attend the banquet which is scheduled for 7 p.m., Friday, October 26 in the pavilion, sponsored by the Grants Pass Christian Women's club.

Guest speakers will be Miss Martha Louise (Marty) Wyatt,

Jacksonville, Miss Oregon for 1962, and Roy Price.

Miss Wyatt will tell of her experiences as Miss Oregon and relate highlights of her recent trip to Atlantic City, N.J., for the Miss America pageant in which she won recognition as one of the top 10 contestants.

Mr. Price will present part of his message in song.

Grants Pass business men also will participate in the program.

Young persons of high school and college are especially invited.

Reservations for the banquet should be made early in the week and may be made by calling Mrs. Fritz J. Rich, telephone 773-5548 or Mrs. F. M. Patterson, JU 2-1144, Rogue River.

Two national representatives of CBPW, Miss Irma Norleman and Miss Winnifred Nicholson will participate in the workshop.

Registrations will open at 4 p.m., Friday, October 26 and close at 4:30 p.m., on Saturday, October 27.

"DEAR DIARY"

Sunday . . . to buy . . . or not to buy . . . that is the question. Whether 'tis nobler to suffer the arrows of pater's outrageous objections to my desire to spend a month's allowance for a raccoon trimmed coat so temptingly displayed at TOWN & COUNTRY SHOP . . . or to take up arms to forego and resist the admiration of my hep friends . . . ah! There's NO rub! . . . T & C has a layaway plan for maidens such as I . . . and will deddy ever be proud I can balance my budget . . . if only he'd call me.

Goodnite, dear diary
