

Church Rites Wed Pair

Eagle Point - Miss Joyce Eileen Cearley became the bride of Gary Arthur Rydberg in double ring rites October 13 in the Eagle Point Community church. The seven o'clock evening ceremony was performed by the Rev. Warren Christensen. About 125 guests attended.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Cearley, 30 West Third street, Eagle Point, attended Eagle Point school and has been living in San Leandro, Calif., where she is employed by the United California Bank as a commercial bookkeeper.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Violet Otto of San Leandro is serving with the Navy as an aviation electronics technician second class. He received his education in Mound, Minn., schools.

Mrs. Arthur Phillipott, Corvallis, was matron of honor and Mrs. George Allen, Eagle Point, was bridesmatron. Both are sisters of the bride.

A cousin of the bride, Susie Robertson, Castro Valley, Calif., was flower girl and a nephew, Brad Chamberlain, Fortuna, Calif., was the ring bearer.

Candlelighters were Karen Chamberlain, Fortuna, Eddie Adamson, Medford and David Allen, Eagle Point.

Mr. Phillipott served as best man and the ushers were Leonard Adamson, Medford, a brother of the bride, Jack Chamberlain, Fortuna, a brother-in-law of the bride, and Ron Greb, Eagle Point.

Escorts Daughter
Mrs. Cearley escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

The bride's full length gown was of satin designed with train and trimmed with Chantilly lace and mother of pearl. Her veil was of the same lace with mother of pearl trim and she carried a white Bible with a white carnation bouquet.

The matron of honor wore a French blue satin sheath frock with an overskirt of chiffon. The bridesmatron's sheath dress was of gold satin also designed with overskirt. Their nosegay bouquets of carnations matched their gowns.

White and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The wedding songs were sung by Arthur Friesen, Medford, accompanied by Mrs. Ray Powers at the organ.

Mothers Wear Blue

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cearley wore a royal blue wool suit with black accessories and Mrs. Otto, the bridegroom's mother, wore a light blue dress with black accessories. Both had gardenia corsages.

The reception was held in the Cearley home, about 100 guests attending.

For traveling the bride wore a brown linen suit with beige accessories.

The couple will live at 1540 164th avenue, Apartment 28, San Leandro, Calif.

Out-of-town guests included the grandparents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. E. J.
