

Red China Calls For Peace Talks; Troops Advance

New Delhi, India—(UPI)—Communist China called for troop disengagement and peace talks with India today even though forces were smashing deeper into Indian territory.

In a formal statement, the Peiping government proposed a meeting between Premier Jawaharlal Nehru of India and Chou En-lai of China to halt the bloody fighting on the mountainous border between India and Red-held Tibet.

The three-point Chinese statement appeared to contain nothing new from previous Peiping proposals for negotiation which have been rejected by the Indian government.

There was no immediate Indian reply to the proposal. An Indian spokesman admitted earlier that advancing Chinese forces were threatening the town of Twang, about 18 miles inside the border on the eastern sector of the broad border front.

Read Over Radio

The Chinese statement was broadcast over Peiping Radio by the Communist New China News Agency. It proposed:

—That both sides disengage and withdraw 20 kilometers (about 12.5 miles) from the line of "actual control" along the entire border.

—That China and India agree not to cross the "traditional, customary line" in the middle and western sectors of the border.

—That the current big Chinese advance in the eastern sector.

—That, "in order to seek a friendly settlement of the Sino-Indian boundary question, talks should be held once again by the prime ministers of China and India." It said the talks could be held either in Peiping or New Delhi.

Drive Seven Miles

On the fighting front, an Indian Defense Ministry spokesman said the Chinese have driven seven miles from Khinzemane which fell to the Reds last Saturday.

Khinzemane was one of India's key defense posts along the Northeast Frontier Agency border with Tibet. The drive would put the Chinese about seven or eight miles from Twang, a town of 25,000 and the second largest in the NEEA.

The Indian defense spokesman said the situation on the western front in Ladakh was unchanged, although Chinese broadcasts claimed Communist troops were advancing on both sectors of the front, almost 1,000 miles apart.

Nehru has refused to enter negotiations with China until Indian conditions are met, including withdrawal of Chinese forces from Indian-claimed territory.

Pope Renews Plea For Peace Meetings

Vatican City—(UPI)—Pope John XXIII today reiterated his appeal to world statesmen to sit down around a table and seek ways to avert war.

The pontiff, addressing a weekly general audience in the Vatican's Hall of Benedictions, did not refer specifically to the Cuban crisis or the Sino-Indian fighting. He spoke of the problems of peace and war only briefly and in general terms.

"I always speak well of all those statesmen, here and there, in this or that land, who are busy meeting in order to avert war and bring a bit of peace," the Pope said.

"But of course only the spirit of the Lord can accomplish this miracle, because obviously where there is no substance and spiritual life many things cannot be accomplished."

Grenfell Indicted By Multnomah Jury

Portland—(UPI)—State Sen. William A. Grenfell Jr., 37, was indicted by the Multnomah county grand jury Tuesday on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident.

A warrant was served on Grenfell at his room in Bess Kaiser Hospital where he has been undergoing treatment for injuries suffered in the Oct. 8 accident.

Earlier Grenfell, a Democratic candidate for the Multnomah County Commission, was charged with filing a false police report.

The charges stemmed from a two-car accident in which Harold A. Jones, was killed. A housewife, Mrs. Natalie Crenshaw of Portland, was found at the scene. Grenfell was found injured near the scene four hours later.

Grenfell first said an abductor had flung him from a moving car, then later admitted driving the auto that collided with Jones' car.

Republican Gov. Mark Hatfield, Democratic Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton and Independent Robert Wampler clashed in a joint appearance before an audience of some 400 at a Portland rally.

It was the first time during the campaign that the three gubernatorial candidates shared the same stage.

Hatfield and Thornton tangled on how to make the governor more effective. Hatfield recommended streamlining the executive branch, setting up a cabinet, and gaining

Thornton Ponders Suit Over Hatfield's Aide

Salem—(UPI)—Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton said today he is studying the possibility of filing a suit against Republican Gov. Mark Hatfield to test Hatfield's authority to employ a legal aide at state expense.

Hatfield hired the aide, Loren Hicks, after Hatfield was elected in 1958, ignoring legal services available through Thornton's office.

At a debate in Portland Tuesday night, Hatfield gave Thornton a letter authorizing Thornton to file a test case. State law requires permission of the governor before the attorney general can undertake any major case.

Thornton, Democratic nominee for governor, called this action by Hatfield "nothing but a political grandstand stunt."

Commenting further on a possible law suit, Thornton said "I'd like to have some Democratic judges for a change to hear the case." This was an obvious reference to the Oregon Supreme Court, which Thornton contends is Republican-influenced.
