Church Leaders Urge Calmness

Washington—(UP)—The National Council of Churches today urged the leaders and the people of the United States to exercise "the utmost restraint, calmness and control" in the Cuban crisis.

It also appealed to government leaders to keep open the channels of diplomatic negotiation, and to make the "fullest" possible use of international peace-keeping agencies such as the United Nations.

The National Council of Churches is the nation's largest cooperative religious organization, composed of 31 major Protestant and orthodox denominations with 40 million members. Its statement on the Cuban crisis was issued under the signature of J. Irwin Miller, Columbus, Ind., industrialist who is the council's first layman president.
