

Speaker Named For Travel Club

Mrs. Fred Rankin will be guest speaker for Travel Study club, of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, at a meeting Tuesday, October 30, at 1 p.m., at the Girl's Community club, in the Fireplace room. Mrs. Rankin will speak on her trip "Around the World on a Freighter."

Larry Schade will speak to the group on scouting.

Mrs. Carl W. Peterson, president, will conduct a business meeting.

Mrs. Erwin C. Hoffman and Mrs. Myrtle Goodin will be hostesses for the afternoon.

James Douglas In Play Cast

James Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Brian Douglas, 1028 Murray street, a freshman student at Lewis and Clark college, Portland, will appear as a deck steward on shipboard in the college Fir Acres theater production of "A Majority of One," a recent Broadway comedy to be presented November 1 through 3.

The student is a 1962 Medford High school graduate where he was president of the Thespian troupe.

Mr. and Mrs. Garry Klein Poulton (Knackstedt photo)

Marriage Rites Held In Reese Creek Church

Derby - Miss Judy Lee Covey became the bride of Garry Klein Poulton Saturday, October 20 in a 4 o'clock afternoon ceremony held in the Reese Creek Community church.

The Rev. Gerald Smith of Medford performed the ceremony in the presence of about 50 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton J. Covey, Oroville, Calif. and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Klein Poulton, Box 177, Butte Falls highway, Eagle Point.

Mrs. Peter Webber, Butte Falls was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Joyce Covey, Oroville, and Connie Poulton, Eagle Point, sisters of the bride and bridegroom.

Mr. Webber served as best man, and seating the guests was Neal Ellis, Butte Falls. Miss Pauline Clymer, Butte Falls, registered the guests.

The wedding songs were sung by The Rev. Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Powell at the organ. The church was decorated with baskets of red, pink and white roses.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father were a floor length gown of white lace over white tulle designed with full length sleeves and fitted bodice. Her veil was held by a tiara of rhinestones, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Webber wore a beige sheath frock with white accessories, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaids' frocks were blue brocade sheaths, and their bouquets were of pink carnations.

The reception which followed was held in the reception room of the church. Mrs. Guy Tedrick served the cake and presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Chester Ellis, Butte Falls, poured the coffee.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a white full skirted shantung frock with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a cocoa brown suit with white accessories.

The bride attended Eagle Point High school and was graduated from Butte Falls High school. The bridegroom graduated from the same school, and is employed by Cascade Wood Products, Inc.

The newlyweds are making their home at Box 171, Butte Falls highway, Eagle Point.

Speakers will be Mrs. Leo Hoag and Mrs. Clyde Chamberlain. Each are teachers in the church school.

Guild Will Honor Church Teachers

St. Mark's Episcopal church school teachers and mothers of the children in the primary department will be honored at a special meeting of St. Catherine's guild Monday, October 29 at 8 p.m., in the parish house.

Speakers will be Mrs. Leo Hoag and Mrs. Clyde Chamberlain. Each are teachers in the church school.

Re-elect
John R. Dellenback
For
STATE REPRESENTATIVE
Proven, Honest and Capable
Plus he is experienced.
Pd. Pol. Ad. by S. V. McQueen,
2136 Hillcrest, Medford
Let's Back Dellenback

Youth Honor Day Events Set by Lodge

Youth Honor day, an annual event held on Halloween day, again will be sponsored by the Loyal Order of the Moose and Women of the Moose, lodge officers have announced.

Activities will include a window painting contest, a dance and a kiddies parade. Prizes will be awarded for costumes judged best in different age groups.

Purpose of the day is to interest the youth in activities which will be constructive rather than destructive on Halloween.

Mrs. Wilfred Huffman, past senior regent of the WOTM, has been honored for her work in the chapter.

A new location for the local lodge was discussed during a visit October 20 and 21 of the deputy supreme governor, Joe Cole, when he was honored at several activities given by the lodge.

DUV To Meet

Women of Elita Deuel Hubbs tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, will meet for a work day Wednesday, October 31 at 10 a.m., in the home of the president, Mrs. Ruby Malory, 207 Cottage street.

Members are to take sack lunches.

Public Invited To Discussion

A meeting for the explanation of ballot measures to be voted on in the November 6 election will be conducted by Medford League of Women Voters Thursday, November 1 at 7 p.m., in the Public Library of Medford and Jackson county. The session is to be held in the conference room in the basement of the building.

The meeting is open to the public and league members are anxious to have all interested persons attend.

Mrs. Ted Phillips will discuss the measures and answer questions concerning them.

Phoenix—Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge of Phoenix will meet Thursday, November 1 at 8 p.m., in the Phoenix Community club room for a business session. Mrs. Arthur Hunter will preside. A social hour is planned.

BEAUTIFUL NEW HORIZON TRAILER VILLAGE

... offers lots of things for you to do! Pay us a visit — ADULTS ONLY. Highway 99 South of Medford at Phoenix.

WE HAVE MOVED!

SO. ORE. COLOR PROCESSORS

New Location

3598 South Pacific Highway
Medford, Oregon
(1 Mile North of Phoenix)

ONE DAY KODACOLOR FILM SERVICE

SPECIAL! SPECIAL!

One (1) 5x7 ENLARGEMENT from the Kodacolor negative of your choice with each roll of Kodacolor processed, ONLY 29c.

ALSO: 50 BONUS SILVER DOLLAR STAMPS
ENCLOSED IN EACH ENVELOPE

COUPON

Present This Coupon to Any of the Following Stores
HUDSON'S ROGUE CAMERA SHOP
PHOENIX PHARMACY
J. J. NEWBERRY (Downtown)
MEDFORD PHARMACY
SEIBER'S SHOPPING CENTER (Talent)
CENTRAL POINT PHARMACY
(OFFER EXPIRES NOV. 10, 1962)

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

The reception which followed was held in the reception room of the church. Mrs. Guy Tedrick served the cake and presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Chester Ellis, Butte Falls, poured the coffee.

Speakers will be Mrs. Leo Hoag and Mrs. Clyde Chamberlain. Each are teachers in the church school.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father were a floor length gown of white lace over white tulle designed with full length sleeves and fitted bodice. Her veil was held by a tiara of rhinestones, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Webber wore a beige sheath frock with white accessories, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaids' frocks were blue brocade sheaths, and their bouquets were of pink carnations.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at 11 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m., when the featured speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Brandt of Calvary Lutheran church, Grants Pass. Special music will be provided by Mrs. Greg MacDougall.

Sewing kits, sarongs and blouses donated by the women's groups of the participating churches will be dedicated for their use in Southeast Asia Minor.

A nursery for women who have preschool age children will be available all day at St. Mark's Episcopal guild hall, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Milk will be provided but the children should have sack lunches.

'Channels To Peace' Theme For World Community Day

"Channels to Peace" will be the theme of the World Community Day program to be sponsored by the Council of United Church Women of Medford Friday, November 2 in Zion Lutheran church, Fourth street and North Oakdale avenue, according to the president, Mrs. Everett Lasher.

The observance will open at